

21 East Elm St. Chicago
Jan. 25th 1926.

Dear Miss Farbell -

Will Boyden tells me you are coming to Chicago about February 17th - to speak and to stay for a few days -
I begged to ask you to stay - with me - Don't you please - you can have a key and come and go as you please and stay as long as you will - It is a walking distance from down town - and I will not bother you myself, nor will I let anyone else interfere with your plans.

Do write me that I may look forward to seeing you - I am going to have my tonsils out tomorrow - which probably will be too gay - but the doctors seem to believe it necessary.
