

Raney-Director of Harper
Memorial Library -
Chiefly ruined

Interview on L. H. Druehl.
Ask for Baile's collection.
Tell me it is still in cases in which it may be found. Delay caused by need of appraisals.
Which was done by Barrett and Horner.
Cowan said Paul Anger.
Thinks said price was 25,000 - not sure - 5,000 returned by Baile as an endorsement -
not yet paid for various misdeeds, fees

Depression - Secretary was with 40,000 or so now 14,000 or so - After appraisal - How about purp. of ownership took 3 hrs.
Will soon begin cataloging the effects -
Value of various additions the paper to make the autograph
not signed but given in R. hand verified it - R. can get the current idea of owner that if Cor. was in R. hand had it - would place it with Constitution 2 manuscript Proclamation

larger than this sheet
a little older

There is absolutely no smudge around the apertures - no sign of cells etched. no sign in looking through the paper of any

ment. This is the condition of paper
shown in the Ballou reproduction which made me suspicious.
is entirely lacking
I later found with Racey - the thing I take it to be making
but don't see it
