

patrad, L. 1.,
July 23rd, 1910.

My dear Miss Tarkell:

The
enclosed is a little tale, the motor of which came to me and which I did write in the hospital.
I am afraid it does not amount to much,
but nevertheless am
plucking up the courage to send it to you for the same

If it does not to the Ameread
you kindly let me have
it back - at your convenience
please postage.

We never again heard from Anna Dickinson
black! black!
"Mother's Daughters"
made a bad impression
I am afraid!

Believe me,

Yours most sincerely,

Edith Day Garrison.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,

Ed. The American Magazine,
New York City.