

March 9, 1933

Dear Mrs. Judd:

How much I wish I could go next week to see the Dunhams extra Illustrated Lincoln, but I have been in bed for some little time now - influenza - and they are shipping me off tomorrow to Atlantic City to convalesce.

So you see it will have to be after the first of April. I hope you and your friends will not be discouraged with my dilly-dallying. I haven't been able to help it.

Affectionately

Mrs. Ida Benfey Judd
415 Central Park West
New York City