Dear Edna Yost:

I have just received the enclosed letter in answer to mine to Dr. Coleman in regard to the copy of the Indiana Statutes which I think we ought to have for a collection of the books Lincoln read.

Dr. Coleman had said that he could get a copy for $50.00 but he hoped to get one for $25.00. Apparently $40.00 is the best he can do. If you and Mr. Beezel are agreeable I think we better take this copy.

We should stipulate with the seller that the title page reads as on the enclosed slip. The volume that Lincoln used is in the Library of the New York Law Institute and bears the inscription enclosed.

I suppose the book better be sent to Miss Rowley for her care or should we have it sent here and shown at the tea - it might be an advertisement?

Affectionately

Miss Edna Yost
