

November 11, 1938

Dear Mr. Massey:

You are not forgetting, I trust, that you were generous enough to promise me the other night that you would come as a guest of honor to the Pen & Brush Club on the afternoon of the first Sunday in January.

I reported to the Club that you had been so generous as to accept the invitation and there has been great rejoicing ever since.

Miss Ormsbee will make arrangements with your secretary, calling for you at the proper hour if you wish.

I cannot tell you how much I am counting on seeing you again, telling you how satisfying an experience "Abe Lincoln in Illinois" was for me. It grows on me as I think of it, which I take it is as good a proof as one could have of the sincerity, intelligence, deep conviction in your work. I am not afraid not to check up on my impressions.

Will you be good enough to ask your secretary to assure me that the day and the hour of the engagement at the Pen & Brush is understood - four o'clock, January 8th - the place 16 East 10th Street.

Faithfully yours

Mr. Raymond Massey
Plymouth Theatre
New York City