Dear Miss Tarbell:

May I say to you again how much we enjoyed your visit with us last week and what a pleasure it was to have you see what we are doing here at the Fair? Mr. Dawes had some pictures sent to you yesterday taken of you and of him while you were at the Fair. He thought you might like to have them.

He was so much pleased when I told him of your words of praise for the Lincoln Group. We had all been very sure of the validity and excellence of Fort Dearborn but the Lincoln Group had been built as a concession and Mr. Dawes was eagerly awaiting some authorized word for it. I am wondering if you would be willing to drop a note to him saying what you thought of it? It would mean a great deal not only to Mr. Dawes but to the man who has been trying so hard to build it up and make a success of it.

Do not let me impose upon you for a moment, and if for any reason you do not want to write such a note please believe me that it is quite all right and we are still very much your debtor. I am not too sure of whether Mr. Dawes would want me to ask this favor of you but I do know how much he would appreciate a word if you wanted to write it.

We hope very much that you will be with us again, and will you not let us know if you have any friends here whom you would like to have us take through the grounds?

Very cordially yours,

Helen M. Bennett
