Convention Now In Progress Here

Student Volunteers of Western Pennsylvania Assemble.

The second annual conference of the Western Pennsylvania Association of Student Volunteers for Foreign Missions was opened last night, at 7:15 p. m., by a song service in the Chapel. About twenty-five delegates from the various schols included in the association registered yesterday and indications at the opening of the conference point to assured success. The delegates are an earnest body of workers who gather together to study the problems confronting missionaries at the present day and to get new light on the work contemplated in the future. The program includes enthusiastic workers and nothing but inspiration can come from the meetings. At the meeting last night, Bishop J. M. Thoburn offered prayer, after which Rev. W. L. King, a missionary in India, and Rev. F. P. Turner, General Secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement, gave talks on "The World Wide View." It was a thorough delineation of the needs and the call for workers. The point was emphasized that the people of the heathen countries are in a plastic state and are simply waiting for some one to bring the news of Christ to them.

As is seen from the program, the whole time will be filled with talks and lectures of vital interest to the volunteers. The speakers are for the most part men and women who have spent sometime in the foreign field. F. P. Turner, the General Secretary will be present throughout the whole convention. Mrs. Alice McClure is a missionary from India, as is also Rev. W. L. King. Rev. T. H. Candor is at the present time a missionary in South America and the convention is especially fortunate in having him present. It is hoped that Dr. Rachel Benn will also be present. All the evening sessions and those on Sunday will be held in the Chapel and the remainder in the Oratory. The delegates are being entertained by the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. at the fraternity houses, Hulings Hall and in town. The Y. M. C. A. is represented by W. R. Hofelt, W. F. Maxwell, J. G. Lane, and C. L. Nevins, while Miss Frances Norton, Miss Ethel Bayard and Miss Dorothea Abrams will represent the Y. W. C. A.

Following is the program of the remaining meetings:

Today.

11:00 A. M.—"Winning Girls in India," Mrs. Alice McClure.
2:00 P. M.—Devotional.
2:15 P. M.—Address, Mrs. McClure.
2:45 P. M.—Address, Rev. T. H. Candor, Columbia, S. A.
4:00 P. M.—Reception to delegates by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A.
7:30 P. M.—Phases of the work, Rev. F. P. Turner, Rev. T H. Candor, Rev. W. M. King.

Sunday.

7:00 A. M.—Sunrise Prayer Meeting.
8:45 P. M.—Devotional.
9:00 A. M.—Address, Rev. T. H. Candor.
9:30 A. M.—Address, Bishop J. M. Thoburn.
10:00 A. M.—Student Volunteer: "Why I Volunteered." Several of the delegates.
2:30 P. M.—Business session in the Oratory. Delegates only.
3:00 P. M.—College Sermon, Rev. C. M. Stuart, of Chicago.
4:00 P. M.—Devotional.
4:15 P. M.—Question Box.
7:15 P. M.—Devotional.
7:30 P. M.—Address, Personal Appeal, Rev. F. P. Turner.

Grove City Today

Hard Game is Expected With Strong Grove City Team.

Perhaps the hardest game scheduled for this season for Allegheny is the one which will be played this afternoon at Grove City against the team of that college. The result of the game will be watched with great interest as it will not only decide the supremacy of the one team over the other but it will also eliminate one of the three present contestants for the league championship. The teams which at present are in line for this championship are West Virginia University, Grove City and Allegheny. Should Allegheny take the game this afternoon the championship will be decided next Saturday when the team plays West Virginia at Morgantown.

Grove City's record for the season has been free from defeat and scoreless so far as their opponents were concerned. Geneva has been played twice and defeated by scores of 17-0 and 9-0, while Tech succumbed to them 12-0. Waynesburg College could not keep them from running up less than twenty-two points and the Grove City Collegians succeeded in holding them to 24-0.

The Grove City team that Allegheny will face is virtually the same as made its appearance in Meadville last year and held Allegheny 6-6 and won 54-0 two years ago. The only change in the lineup is the substitution of a new man for Lamb, who is now at the University of Pennsylvania. Marks is the real star and Simon and Boone are by no means poor players. The cancellation of Indiana Normal left an open date with them for last Saturday and gave an opportunity to rest and get in shape for today's game.

The condition of the local team is perhaps the poorest it has been for this season. It has been some time since so many serious injuries have occurred in one football season. Both Hall and Sheffer have been barred from the game on account of broken legs while Townsend has two fractured ribs that will necessitate his absence for at least one game. Erb received what was thought a sprained ankle in the second game but which later turned out to be the breaking of a small bone, while Longfellow had his shoulder dislocated in practice. As the result of these injuries, Coach Stewart has been compelled to change the lineup of the team for this game in order to get a team to face Grove City.

The Allegheny team will probably line up as follows:

Wieler, Robinson—L. E.
W. Dotterrer, Deemer—L. T.
Baker, Pierson—L. G.
Thomas, Gilbert—C.
Bodenhorn—R. G.
C. Dotterrer—R. T.
Hawk—R. E.
Miller—L. E.
Dotterrer, Gilbert, Abbott—R. F.
Lavely—L. H.
Abbott, Gilbert—R. H.

STUDENTS IN CHARGE OF MISSION STUDY

The second Mission Study Class of the year had a very good attendance at the meeting on Thursday evening, though not so large as previously. R. W. Thomas took charge of the meeting on account of the necessary absence of the regular leaders. He called on several of those present who had prepared short talks. H. S. Leitzel, '12, gave a brief summary of the current events of China, which are now especially interesting to the world at large. After this, the discussion of questions at the close of the second chapter in the "Uplift of China" were taken up, C. L. Nevins, '13, giving the answers to several of these. He was followed by F. H. Callahan, '12, who laid emphasis on the advantages and disadvantages of a golden age so far in the past. Miss Ethel Bayard, '13, told of the physical hindrances which the Chinese race had to contend with, her talk being followed by Miss Barbara Deane, '12, who told of the Chinese as laborers and speculated on their ability in military service. Miss Frances Norton, '13, closed this interesting series of brief discussions by speaking of China as a mission field, and giving ideas as to the possible future of the Chinese race.

CARNEGIE DEFEATED LAST SATURDAY, 5-0

Scotchmen from Pittsburg are Easy Victims—Lavely Made Only Score.

In a game, chiefly featured by incessant punting and frequent fumbles, Allegheny defeated the fast Carnegie Tech team at Athletic Park last Saturday by the score of 5-0. After Lavely's touchdown in the first quarter, the Allegheny team appeared to lose its vigor and was not very close to the Tech goal at any other time. Tech was powerless to resist the onslaughts of their opponents during the first few minutes of play. However, they seemed to find themselves and succeeded in holding the locals to but one touchdown. When the punting game was resorted to by the locals, the Plaids also adopted that style of play and seemed to get the better of it since they were the more consistent in running back the punts.

Horace T. Lavely, '12, ex-captain of the football team, who made the only score in the game with Carnegie Tech last Saturday. Lavely has been playing an exceptionally aggressive game all season.

Allegheny's goal line was in danger only once when Welsh broke through the line and blocked a punt. A failure to make any consistent gains in two downs necessitated a kick and Schmucker attempted a field goal. Again in the last quarter, McCully intercepted a forward pass and ran fifty yards to within a few yards of the goal but the ball was brought back because he had stepped out of bounds in starting. The game itself, however, was uninteresting so far as the spectators were concerned. The frequent punting and few attempts at running with the ball after the first quarter made the game more on the style of a rugby contest. This style of play, however, was the one used by Mt. Union and the kind that was needed against Tech in order to keep the majority of plays under cover from several Grove City players who were present.

For Allegheny, every man played a hard consistent game despite the fact that several were not in the best condition. Hawk had been injured in the Geneva game and notwithstanding this fact, his punting was good. Wieler who was unable to be in the Geneva game on account of an injury played his guard with the usual skill. Lavely again distinguished himself by carrying the ball for long gains, and making the only touchdown scored by Allegheny. "Chuck" Dotterrer used his 210 pounds avoirdupois to advantage in tackling at different stages of the game. As Hall's leg was broken in this game, there will be another vacancy in the blue and gold line. Townsend was badly bruised, but will probably be in shape for the next game. "Bill" Dotterrer played the entire game in a subconscious condition, as a result of a kick in the head.

First Quarter.

In the first period, the local eleven had little trouble in breaking away from the Pittsburghers. Near the middle of the first quarter, Hawk's trial at a field goal was missed and received by Carnegie Tech as a touchback. The ball was then put in scrimmage at the 25 yard line, but as Tech was unable to make their distance Schmucker punted. Hawk returned the ball to the 15 yard line and at the first down, Bill Dotterrer went through the line for 10 yards. Lavely then was given the pigskin and although tackled near the goal line, he was able to get over for the first and only touchdown. Hawk failed to kick the goal, making the score 5-0.

Second Quarter.

In the second quarter, the visitors began to strengthen their defense, but Allegheny was still able to make gains. In the second period, punting was resorted to by both teams, Allegheny also trying several forward passes, one of which went for a long gain.

Third Quarter.

In the third quarter, Allegheny enthusiasts heaved a sigh of relief after Schmucker failed to kick a field goal from the 15 yard line. A series of unfortunate plays brought the ball to this point including a blocked punt and a forward pass. The locals held the Plaids for downs for five consecutive times and Schmucker's failure to score kept Tech's tally in the goose egg region.

Fourth Quarter.

In the fourth quarter, Allegheny rushed the ball to the visitor's 10 yard line but were held for downs; on the first down the ball was booted to safety. Schmucker distinguished himself during this period by nabbing a forward pass from Allegheny on the 45 yard line and was only downed when within four yards of the goal. The run was ruled out because the star fullback had stepped out of bounds in getting away with the ball.

The line-up and summary:

Allegheny—5.		Tech 0.
Hawk	L. E.	Kesselman
C.Dotterrer	L. T.	Crawford
Hall	L. G.	Clair
Gilbert	C.	Taylor
Bodenhorn	R. G.	Welch
Wieler	R. T.	Weaver
Townsend	R. E.	McCully
Miller	L. H.	Schmucker
Abbott	L. F.
W.Dotterrer	R. F.
Lavely	R. H.	Patterson
	Q. B.	Lucas
	F. H.	Ballsinger

Touchdown, Lavely. Officials, Smith, St. Clair and Pendelton. Substitutions, Baker for Hall, Hall for Lucas. Time of periods, 10 and 12 minutes.

Freshmen hats in appropriate colors are being adopted in colleges all over the country. It is not that the freshmen need anything to designate them, but the feeling of each that he had a companion in verdancy is without doubt helpful.

A New Club

Fostered by Dr. Benjamin a Civic Club is Being Organized.

Professor G. A. Benjamin, head of the department of history and economics, is planning the organization of a club at Allegheny in connection with the work of his department, to be known as "A Modern Problem's Club." The purpose of the organization will be the discussion of important topics of the day along such lines as will interest the student of economic or sociologial subjects. The membership will be limited to a certain number of members of the Junior and Senior classes and meetings will likely be held fortnightly. The idea of such an organization in the colleges and universities is by no means new. The International Civic League of America has branches in the larger colleges and schools and it is to this that the club here would probably be connected.

A second plan includes a chapter of an honorary society known as Beta Epsilon, which would be more or less subordinate to the other. The members of this society would be those who have shown a special interest in the work of that department and would be elected on leaving school, much the same as Phi Beta Kappa, except that the retiring members choose their successors. These latter members would be chosen from the membership of the other club.

While nothing has been done in the way of organizing the clubs here as yet, communications have been received from the head of the league favoring the organization and President Crawford has given his consent.

Dr. Chas. M. Stuart To Preach Sunday

Second of Series of Monthly Sermons to be Heard in Chapel Tomorrow.

The second of the series of monthly college sermons, which are made possible this year through a special gift of Mrs. Sarah B. Cochran, will be delivered tomorrow afternoon in Ford Memorial Chapel by Dr. Charles M. Stuart, of Chicago. The time of the service will be three o'clock.

The popularity and benefit of this new feature of this college year was fully shown by the large attendance at the initial sermon which was given by Dr. Albert Knudson last month. His sermon on "Religion and Life," was one of the best that has been heard here for some time and is said to be the standard that will be heard in the remaining sermons.

Perhaps no other man holds such a place as that held by Dr. Stuart in the respect of the Allegheny community since his appearance here last spring in the course of lectures on journalism. His ability as a speaker was then demonstrated by the unusual audiences which attended the series. During the past year he has been before the public eye in the Methodist church probably more than any other man. He received a call to the chair of Philosophy and Ethics at Wesleyan University but later in the summer resigned that to accept the presidency of Garret Biblical Institute. He still continues as editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, however, until the General Conference of the Methodist church next May, when he will enter upon his duties at Garret. The fact that he is considered one of the able preachers in the church should be a sufficient guarantee of a record attendance. President Crawford mentioned in Chapel last week that he had been disappointed in the small attendance of students at the first sermon and urged everyone to hear Dr. Stuart tomorrow.

COACH ENTERTAINS.

All football men who had taken part in any of the games of the present season were entertained at dinner last Monday evening by Coach and Mrs. E. J. Stewart at their home on North Park avenue. After dinner, Mrs. Stewart rendered some vocal and piano solos and the 'varsity men showed their talent in the musical line by singing some college songs. Coach Stewart gave the men a spirited talk on the prospects for the rest of the season and showed how the best results could be produced. The party broke up before it became too late to visit E. J. Hall, at Spencer Hospital, who was injured in the Tech game. The varsity men present were: Captain Hawk, Lavely, Abbott, W. Dotterrer, Miller, Wieler, Bodenhorn, Townsend, C. Dotterrer, Sheffer, Thomas, Longfellow, Baker, Gilbert, Pierson, and Manager Nichols.

The Pacific Coast Gas Association has subscribed $2,000 toward endowing a chair for the teaching of gas engineering at the Leland Stanford University. It is expected that in the near future the degree of Gas Engineer will be conferred.

Manager's Talk

This corner given over each week to a simple discussion of the business department of the paper has never been conceived as a place for discussion of the right and wrong of certain problems, or for the discussion of business ethics. It is even said that the management of a college paper differs so vastly from the management of a big corporation that the manager of the college paper is not necessarily equipped for such a position. However, he has an opportunity to apply the first principles of business ethics in his duties. One thing that is forcibly brought to him is that bills should be met promptly. There are only four publications at Allegheny and only four men each year can manage these publications, but each student has the opportunity to practice his business principles by seeing the manager at once and handing him one dollar.

Unsportsman-like Conduct of Tech Men.

The conduct and attitude of the Carnegie Tech players and coaches during and after the game last Saturday was extremely unsportsman-like, as well as ungentlemanly. Despite the fact that the officials had been agreed upon before the game by both sides, there was much disputing by Coach Ramsdell of Tech on decisions made by the referee. The one official, whom Allegheny had been slowest to accept but who was eagerly desired by Tech, was Smith, of Geneva, the very man who made the decision against which Tech complained the most. So, if Tech was unsatisfied with the work of the officials it was their own fault. Their complaint is utterly groundless anyway, for, the fact is that Allegheny was penalized seven times while Carnegie Tech was penalized but once during the entire game. The complaints and the vulgar and profane talk of the Tech men, especially Coach Ramsdell, accomplished nothing except to establish the opinion that the Carnegie men were not possessed of the proper sportsman-like spirit.

Wearing Freshman Caps.

The spirit in which the Freshmen as a class have adopted their new head gear is praiseworthy. The continual wearing of the green cap shows the right kind of spirit; and most of the Freshmen are demonstrating that they are made of the proper stuff. But there are a few isolated instances in which Freshmen are not complying with the upper-class rules in this respect. Every Freshman ought to make his green patch his habitual head gear, and thus maintain the honor and dignity of his college and establish the honor of his class.

More Men in Competition!

At present there are very few men competing for positions on the staff of The Campus. The competition of girls is all that could be expected; but the work done by men in competition is confined largely to a very small number. This condition is deplorable. Perhaps the reason the men are reluctant to enter the field is that they have the idea that it is already overcrowded; but such an opinion is vastly wrong. There is a very good opportunity now for men to make a place on the staff of The Campus by working consistently from now until Commencement. It is pitiful that so much of this work should be left in the hands of women. For, with all respect to the ability of the women—and in some cases this ability is no small amount—the work of the journalist is more properly the work of the man than of the woman. There are many things which cannot be written properly by women, although one girl recently wrote a very creditable account of a football game. So let there be more Campus competition from men.

A new Y. M. C. A. building at Michigan is being planned which will be one of the best. It will cost about $250,000.

The Adventurer

After the slight altercation between the Adventurer and the Editor, several days passed before they met again. It was plain that the Adventurer was offended, that his higher literary sensibilities had been shocked and, further, that he was somewhat disgusted with the grosser nature of the Editor which had been revealed in his unrefined humor at their last meeting. The wound which the Adventurer had received was deep and severe. But finally on a bright sunny afternoon the erstwhile weekly contributor found his way to the Editor's room, where he discovered the later in his usual scholarly attitude and studious mood, from which he was unwillingly aroused. After commonplace greetings and a few ordinary remarks the Editor said:

"Well how about copy this week? Are you going to have anything, or are you still fixed in your determination to give it up?"

"I have a confession to make and a story to tell," began the Adventurer, "and I feel that I must hurry to tell it before my courage falls. I was so utterly disappointed, discouraged and disgusted the other day with you and the world at large—and of course with myself too—that it seemed as though I never would have the courage to attempt writing again even though my many readers might clamor with the vigor of a Roman mob to have me resume the pen. I felt that it was no use and I mentally resolved never to attempt it again. For almost two days I held to my resolve so much that I hated the sight of a pencil or pen. But at the end of the second day I picked up Cooper's 'Deerslayer' and began to read with luke-warm interest. After I had read a few pages I found my mind—as is its frequent though bad habit—wandering from the book to the character and life of the author. I remembered how Cooper had not begun his active literary work until he was almost forty years old and I reflected on what a vastly greater monument he might have left if he had begun at the beginning of his manhood instead of in middle life. In an instant I was reproaching myself for think of quitting the literary game when I have the advantage of a score or so of years over such procrastinators as Cooper. Was it not fortunate that I happened upon the 'Deerslayer' that evening? For if I had not, I probably would have persisted in my foolish resolve; and think what the world would have missed! And so I expect to be with you once more, each week as if nothing had ever happened."

The Editor silently determined to be more careful hereafter in handling his literary prize, for he realized that the contributions of the Adventurer did much to make the circulation of his sheet the phenomenal thing it is.

SPECIAL MEETINGS IN DECEMBER

During the past week the dates for the special meetings, which are to be held this year under the direction of the Rev. Robert E. Brown, '01, and the Rev. H. L. Smith, '04, have been decided. The meetings will extend throughout the entire week following Thanksgiving. The same kind of meetings which accomplished much good last year will again be employed. Further announcements concerning the nature of the meetings will be made later. In the meantime the work of creating interest in the services will be carried on in the regular Y. M. C. A. meetings.

DEATH OF DR. HENRY MANSELL.

Rev. Dr. Henry Mansell, '59, one of Allegheny's most distinguished graduates, died last Thursday in Bristol, Conn, where he was staying at the home of his son-in-law.

Dr. Mansell was born in 1835. After his graduation from Allegheny in 1859, he studied theology in Ohio for a time. He preached for three years in Pennsylvania, and in 1861 went to India, where he was associated with those ministers who are now Bishop Scott and Bishop J. M. Thoburn. He returned from India only last year, on account of broken health. His work in India was of great value to the missionary cause. He was the principal of the Theological Institute at Barcilly, and also presiding elder of several districts in the northwest of India. During the fifty years he spent in India Dr. Mansell wrote or re-translated forty-two books for the use of the natives.

Reserves Play Well

Game With Slippery Rock Normal Ends in 0-0 Score.

Last Saturday the Reserves journeyed to Slippery Rock where they met the strong Normal School team of that place. A very exciting and well played game resulted, in which neither team was able to score although each had several good chances. The teams were about evenly matched and neither was able to make any large gains through the line. The Reserves, however, excelled the Normal team in defensive work while the latter team worked the forward pass well. In fact, every gain they made was a result of forward passes and at no time were they able to gain through the line.

The only real chance that the Reserves had to score was when Deemer recovered a punt and carried the ball to the one yard line. The ball had not gone twenty yards, however, and according to rule, was called back. In the second half the ball was kept near the center of the field all the time and the punting game was used to a great extent. For the Reserves Deemer and Ramsey played well, although the entire line deserves great credit for their defensive work. It is probable that the Reserves will play at least one more game this season.

GREET PLAYERS NOT COMING.

A letter has been received by President W. F. Maxwell of the Duzer Du Dramatic Club from President Crawford, stating that he did not wish the club to bring the Ben Greet Shakesperean players to this city this fall. It will be remembered that a representative of the players held a consultation with the club and that it was then decided to bring them here if possible. The reasons for not having the company here at this time of the year are numerous, the chief among which is the fact that the engagement would interfere with the Kellerman concert

KELLERMAN RECITAL NEXT SATURDAY.

Music lovers of the town and college will be given an unusual opportunity to hear one of the finest singers of the day next Saturday evening when Mr. Marcus Kellerman will sing in Ford Memorial Chapel under the management of Le Petit Salon. This will be his first appearance in Meadville since his tours, arranged by his managers, usually cover none but the larger cities. Mr. Kellerman's engagement here, however, was not booked through his managers but directly with himself.

The reputation of Mr. Kellerman as a baritone soloist is well established. He has been at Chautauqua for the last two seasons and persons who have heard him there say that he has an unusually powerful voice and one that is of the purest type. Though Mr. Kellerman has been in this country only two seasons, his tours with the New York Symphony Orchestra, under Mr. Damrosch, the Minneapolis Symphony, the Cincinnati Symphony and the Theodore Thomas Orchestra of Chicago and his appearance with some of the most prominent musical organizations of the country in recital, concert and oratorio, have gained him universal commendation, and established for him a high reputation.

In connection with Mr. Kellerman, the French club has arranged for several violin selections by August Palma of this city. Mr. Palma is one of the finest artists on the violin who has been heard in this city recently. He studied under Joachin in Germany. He moved here only recently and is connected with the musical department of the Spirella Welfare Association. He will be accompanied on the organ by Professor M. H. Dewey of the German department. Miss Charlotte Marhoffer will be the accompanist for Mr. Kellerman.

Mr. Paul Deemer, '09, who is now teaching in the Dayton, O., High School, spent the week-end with friends here.

At the regular meeting of Quill Club on Monday night, Miss Ruth Dorworth and W. F. Maxwell will be the leaders.

According to the usual custom, the Y. W. C. A. girls are planning to make a trip to the County Farm, on Thanksgiving morning.

Rev. Gilbert R. Williamson of the First M. E. Church of this city, read the Scripture lesson and offered prayer at the Chapel service last Saturday.

Through the generosity of Mr. Joe Tordella an Italian daily newspaper and the French Figaro have been placed on the Library Table. Also, all students of the French department will be interested in the reappearance of L'Illustration.

A special meeting of Quill Club was held on Friday afternoon for the purpose of considering new members. Miss Jane Lockwood, '12, and J. R. McGowan, '14, were elected to membership and B. B. Breckenridge ratified as an associate member.

It is probable that Mrs. Flavia D. Porter, of this city, will play in the Chapel on some morning in the near future. Those who heard Mrs. Porter's recent recital at the Park Avenue Reformed church are especially anxious for her to play before the student body.

The Mutual Nourishment Society, commonly known as the 'M. N. S," was entertained at a spread last Wednesday evening, by five new members, Miss Celia McClure, Miss Rose Williams, Miss Stella Fisher, Miss Marian Carrol and Miss Nell Freer. The favors were white carnations.

The second Senior Tea of the year was held in the parlors of Hulings Hall on Thursday afternoon. Several members of the Faculty in addition to a large number of the Senior men were present.

Miss Althea Hunt, '14, took part in a recital of the advanced pupils of the Pennsylvania College of Music last Monday evening. Miss Charlotte Marhoffer, ex-'12, was the accompanist during the recital.

Mrs. Lucius Ames Meade, who is connected with the Pennsylvania Peace Federation, gave an interesting lecture on "Universal Peace" Thursday evening in the Chapel. She also spoke at Assembly Friday morning.

A number of the Hulings Hall girls listened with interest last Thursday noon to Mrs. Miller, a home missionary from California, who has been making a short stay in the city. She told with great effect of the work which is being done among the Chinese of San Francisco and among the Indian tribes of this country.

The Sunday evening meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was in charge of Miss Florence Griswold, '13. She spoke of the determination to set aside time for spiritual development, and advised not only a more regular attendance at religious meetings, but also more attention to daily private devotions. Miss Irene Beatty, '13, gave as a vocal solo, "O Love that Will Not Let Me Go."

Last Saturday evening the Pan-Hellenic Association of women's fraternities entertained the girls of the Freshman class at an informal dance at the Saegertown Inn. The party which was chaperoned by Miss Spalding departed at about seven o'clock and returned at eleven-thirty, just in time for the bonfire which had been lighted in front of Hulings Hall in celebration of the Tech victory.

The Classical Club met last Tuesday in the Library. According to a plan adopted at a previous meeting, every one answered to the roll call with a Greek or Latin proverb, and the innovation was received so well that the plan was adopted permanently.. The paper of the evening was read by Miss Margaret Beebe, the subject being "A Comparison Between Aristophane's 'Birds'" and Rostands' 'Chanticler'." The next meeting will be next Tuesday evening.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting Wednesday evening at Hulings Hall was led by Miss Edith Rowley who gave a very excellent talk on "The College Girl and Social Service." She spoke of the different aspects and larger fields of the work now as differing from that of former years, emphasizing especially the work of Miss Jane Adams, Judge Lindsay and other workers. She also told of the wonderful opportunity in the cities for social service and showed that the future of the work needs the support of the college girl of today.

Alumni

Mr. C. W. Gill, '06, is in Chicago University for the Fall and Winter quarter taking a course in Medieval Drama and teaching Freshman composition. He is also working on his Master's thesis and hopes to receive his degree in March.

In a recent issue of the Epworth Herald pictures of the missionaries sent out by the missionary societies of the Methodist church in the past year appear. Among them are pictures of two Allegheny graduates, Miss Rachael Cousins, '07, now in Conception, Chile, and Mrs. William Millward, '06, now in Nanking, China.

F. L. LaBounty, '07, who is the head of the English department at Edinboro Normal, has founded a weekly paper there known as "The Birch Rod," and is acting as editor until sufficient competition can be conducted to choose an editor. While in college, Mr. LaBounty was editor of The Campus and after graduation spent three years on the faculty of Alden Academy.

H. H. Hamman, who for two years attended Allegheny College, and is now one of an active firm engaged in the manufacture of postal views, has been in Meadville recently, on his way to the South, where his firm has extended its business. While here at Allegheny, Mr. Hamman specialized in Chemistry and in other lines connected with his interest in photographic work.

Hulings Hall

Mrs. Jordan and her daughter, Louise, '12, were entertained at Dr. Cobern's at dinner Wednesday evening.

Miss Margaret Megirt, '12, had her sister as a guest the latter part of the week.

Miss Marion Carrol, '14, entertained her mother at the Hall a few days last week.

Miss Rachel Smith, '14, was the guest of Miss Florence McElwain, '12, last Saturday.

Miss Grace Thomas, '09, of Union City visited friends at Allegheny Saturday and Sunday of last week.

Miss Barbara Dean, '12, was the guest of Miss Cosette Whittaker, '14, at her home in Cochranton Sunday.

Miss Hanna Quinn, '15, spent several days at her home.

Miss Caroline Lauffer, '12, was the guest of friends at Cambridge Springs Sunday.

Miss Mabel Baker, '15, spent Sunday with her brother, Frank Baker, '05, at Edinboro.

Miss Marion Moorehead, '14, spent a few days this week at her home in Beaver.

Mrs. Lucia Ames-Meade was a dinner guest at the Hall on Thursday evening.

The Misses Fay Barnes, '14, May Girsham, '14, and Gertrude Hammond were the guests of Miss Rachel Smith, '14, last Thursday evening.

Miss Marie Fisher, '12, was a guest at the Hall Thursday evening.

Miss Barbara Deane, '12, and Miss Helen Dungan, '10, were dinner guests at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house last Sunday.

Miss Grace Thomas, '09, of Union City was the guest of Miss Mildred Reed, '12, last Sunday for dinner.

Miss Lottie Smith, '13, spent the week end at her home in Guys Mills.

Miss Helen Dungan, '10, was the guest of Miss Barbara Deane, '12, last Saturday for lunch.

Miss Bardeen Braymer, '12, was the guest of Miss Ethel Rowley, '05, last Sunday for dinner.

Miss Ruth Browning, '14, took lunch at Dr. and Mrs. Lee's last Sunday evening.

Miss Jessie Tiffany, '14, was the dinner guest of Miss Lydia Geiss, '12, last Saturday.

NEVINS TALKS ON "CHRIST AS THE IDEAL."

The regular Y. M. C. A. meeting Wednesday evening was in charge of C. L. Nevins, who gave a very practical and helpful talk on "Christ as the Ideal." A number of interesting thoughts were developed by the leader and further enlarged upon by several of the men present. An unusually large number of men were present and an increasing interest both in the revival meetings which are to be held next month and in the regular weekly meetings was evident.

In developing this subject the leader said in part: "As I see it, life is three-fold. First there is the body in which is embedded all the passions and sins which we are continually fighting. It is this which makes us do those things which we do not want to do. Then in the next place there is the mind. It is this part of us which helps us to enjoy the best that God has given to man. But reaching far above these in importance is the spirit. This is the climax to the body and the mind. We may conceive of many grand things but we never get to the source of them till we get the spiritual life. This brings us right to God.

"When we make the stand for Christ we are bound in a certain sense to be crucified with him. We do not know whether this is of the body, mind or the spirit, but it means that we hide ourselves in Christ. We are marked, and from that time on there are certain things that we cannot do, say, or hear. We do not necessarily join a funeral procession but as Christians we must begin a shun the evil and begin to seek for the best. Passion and sin must cease to be a part of our lives; certain habits must go and the only remedy for these is Jesus Christ."

GLOVES That SET THE PACE
FOR THE COLLEGE FELLOW AND COLLEGE GIRL
AT ELDRED'S

True economy in glove-buying begins and ends with getting GOOD gloves. The style and fit of FOWNES GLOVES need not be emphasized. But that quality of material and workmanship which makes the Fownes glove preeminent in appearance, makes it the most durable and economical as well.

The world is our leather market; one hundred and thirty years of experience is our guide; the result is quality—and again quality.

Glacé, Suede, Silk

If it's a Fownes that's all you need to know about a glove.

Holeproof Hose

What Our Six Months' Guarantee Really Means

Holeproof Hosiery is guaranteed to be as free from holes at the end of six months as it is the day you buy it. We give you this guarantee in writing so if any holes appear in six months you receive new hosiery free of charge.

Common hosiery has no such guarantee. It costs you just as much as "Holeproof," but at the end of six months it is worthless. You spend hours darning it when for no extra expense you can have "Holeproof" and do no mending. Why not have the best?

FAMOUS Holeproof Hosiery FOR MEN WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Insist on seeing the original Holeproof trade-mark. Many have imitated the guarantee but none have equaled the quality.

The makers pay 63 cents a pound for Egyptian and Sea Island cotton, but common hosiery is made from cotton at 12 cents a pound.

"Holeproof" uses 3-ply yarn in the body and 6-ply in the heels, toes and knees. Ordinary hosiery uses 2-ply throughout, yet costs you just as much as "Holeproof."

Stop in at our store and examine the hose. See how stylish and comfortable it is—soft, smooth and neat fitting. Learn the facts today.

Football Gossip

Last Saturday's football results were the cause of more surprises in the world of football than any other one day this season. Not only was this true in the smaller colleges in which Allegheny is particularly interested but in the large universities where the American collegiate championship is usually decided.

Considering the scores of the opponents that Allegheny's warriors are still to meet, it is easily seen that the hardest part of the local schedule is yet to be played. Grove City, although idle on Saturday, was nevertheless saving her energies for her biggest game and her hope lies in beating Allegheny. W. & J. has been considered the strongest in years and yet West Virginia, whose team up to this time has not shown any particular class, succeeded in downing them by a one point margin. This means that Allegheny will have the two hardest games of her schedule following each other. Buchtel has been looked down upon by the majority of football enthusiasts as below their usual standard but the fact that they ran up such a high score against Ohio Northern University shows that they are improving, as the season progresses and that they will not be lacking any of the necessary ginger when they meet the local team on Thanksgiving Day.

In the East, the most striking result was that of Princeton and Harvard. By defeating Harvard, Princeton stands in a fair way for the Eastern championship, the right of which can more easily be determined after the Yale-Harvard game. Postals were received the early part of this week from former Allegheny students now at Princeton, telling of the wonderful game.

In Ohio, the contest for the state championship is becoming more closely contested. Since the defeat of Reserve by Oberlin and the victory of Case over Ohio State, the final winner is entirely problematical.

The Kenyon Collegian contains the following interesting bit of football dope: "Reserve sprung the biggest surprise of the year when she held Annapolis to a 0-0 tie. If the Navy holds Princeton to a tie and Reserve ties Navy and Kenyon holds Reserve to one touchdown, how near would Kenyon come to winning the Eastern championship? And yet Allegheny 24, Kenyon 0! Football is great dope."

HALL IMPROVING.

The game with Carnegie Tech last Saturday was responsible for one of the worst accidents that has happened to an Allegheny player for a number of years, when Ernest J. Hall, '13, had his right leg broken between the knee and ankle. Both of the bones were broken and it will be a number of weeks before he can even leave the hospital. As soon as the accident happened, he was taken to Dr. Gamble, who ordered his immediate removal to Spencer Hospital. The hospital physicians, however, were unable to set the broken bones until Tuesday on account of a sore near the break. The accident happened in the latter part of the third quarter when Hall was caught under one of the visiting players in trying to tackle him. It is not known exactly how the accident happened as he was not directly under the mixup. Spectators and players near the scrimmage heard the bones break. This is Hall's first year on the Varsity eleven, but he had previously played two years on the scrub team. He also is an associate editor of The Campus.

It is rather a strange coincidence that W. E. Sheffer received a slight fracture in the same bone while playing the same position on the team in the Cornell game. Sheffer is now able to be around.

The student Senate at Leland Stanford fined a student ten hours extra work for cribbing in exams, and also expelled him from the course.

Thoughts and Afterthoughts

Some brilliant repartee ensued between Coach Stewart of Allegheny and Coach Ramsdell of Tech at the game last Saturday. On the way home after the game, Ramsdell said to Stewart that as long as he was at Tech their team would never play Allegheny again. Coach Stewart smiled and replied that as long as he was at Tech Allegheny would never be afraid to play them. Some time later, however, Ramsdell made a sort of apology and said, "We'll see you in basketball."

RESOLUTIONS ON DEATH OF HOWARD LORD.

The following resolutions upon the death of Howard F. Lord were drawn up some time ago by the class of 1913, but owing to an oversight they have not been published until now.

"Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom has called to Eternal Life our friend and classmate, Howard F. Lord, therefore be it

Resolved, That we as a class express our sincere sorrow; and be it

Resolved, That we extend to the family of our classmate in their bereavement our deep sympathy; and be it

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family in their grief and also published in The Campus."

KALDRON EDITORS BUSY.

The newly elected Kaldron board, composed of R. W. Thomas, editor-in-chief; Miss Florence Griswold, associate editor, and Miss Margaret Megirt, Miss Ruth Dorworth, Charles S. Miller, W. F. Maxwell and F. H. Callahan, assistant editors, held its first meeting on Tuesday afternoon in the Library to discuss plans for the make-up of the 1912 book. After consultation with the manager it was decided to offer as prizes two copies of the year book, one to the person contributing the best cartoon or sketch and one to the person contributing the best literary article. It was favorably suggested that some articles of literary merit be secured and put into the book and in view of this the histories of the various classes will be written on a competitive basis, the best to be used in the book.

The fact that a board of editors cannot compile a student's year book without the co-operation of the whole student body is one that the board wishes to be impressed upon everyone. The best jokes and puns should be taken down as soon as they are heard and deposited in the Kaldron Box in Bentley Hall. Any opinion that any student may have regarding the book or regarding any particular phase of the college is what is really wanted. Snapshots characteristic of college life are also desired.

The board will hold regular meetings every Monday morning at ten o'clock, at which time the work of the week will be taken up. It is hoped to have the calendar up to date by the next meeting; it will then be kept in shape from week to week. As soon as the kind of background for the pictures has been decided the various societies and fraternities will be asked to have their pictures taken at once, so as to insure the early completion of the book. Manager Kightlinger has already begun work and states that he expects to have the Kaldron on sale about the first of June.

DELTS GIVE ANNUAL SMOKER.

The Delta Tau Delta fraternity entertained the members of the national fraternities and the Faculty at their annual smoker at the house on Highland avenue last Saturday evening. The hospitality of the big house was thrown open to the guests and for several hours they were pleasantly entertained. A large barrel of sweet cider together with chestnuts, doughnuts and apples furnished the refreshments, while cigars and other smoking accessories were furnished.

Oberlin, Ohio Wesleyan and Western Reserve have formed a triangular debating league.
