Dear Miss Estill -

You will be just as I'm leaving - you certainly are the thoughtful lady - how do you keep us all on your mind? You're too wonderful! But you must know how infuriating such a thought is.

I'm going off feeling good - everyone is so happy. White has sent all of us cute works of mischief made by himself - wasn't it nice of him?

And I had a beautiful letter today from Baker describing his time with the kids. I showed it to Drome who said we must get all of Baker's spirit in the magazine we can.

Henry & Stey lunched with me at the Playhouse today. Henry was lovely - Stey unbearable. Oh how I hate him sometimes! He's crazy I'm sure, but he's a fool.

Buthe & J.P. had a good talk, J.P. gave him some hot shot and I thought they was going to be born again. But that phenomenon doesn't seem to happen as it did in the New Testament days!
Buthe seriously talks of cutting down and all sorts of hopeful signs show themselves - occasionally. They leave tonight - he is enjoying life.

Jim off now - though would keep on writing ad infinitum - with great affection - But
