

GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY
570 LEXINGTON AVENUE, NEW YORK

OFFICE OF THE
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

June 8, 1934.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

You shall have a copy of Mr. Young's University of Nebraska speech just as soon as available. He made several changes after he left here, so that what I have at present is not official.

I don't know what the summer will bring me but at present I am staying with Mrs. Young at Riverside and, of course, am very happy. I hope that your summer will be both profitable and free from cares for you!!

Sincerely yours,

Gertrude C. Landler
