120 BROADWAY NEW YORK
ROOM 2555

January 18, 1932
(Dictated 1/15/32)

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I was about to write you that Josephine and I had returned and were hoping soon to see you when your letter to Mr. Young of January 9th came to my desk. It came to my desk because Mr. Young finally succeeded this week in getting up to Van Hornesville for a few days. The questions you ask him I shall not attempt to answer, but we expect Mr. Young back next week and so perhaps he will answer them himself. In the meantime, if there are any other questions which I can answer you know that I shall be only too glad to do so to the best of my ability.

With kindest regards, believe me,

Faithfully yours,

Evrett Case
