Dear Miss Tarbell:

My understanding is this:

That you are to write ten or twelve articles for which the compensation will be seven hundred and fifty dollars each, and two hundred and fifty dollars worth of preferred stock for each article.

The payment of one hundred dollars a week begins the first Tuesday in July, which is our pay day. This weekly payment is to be increased later so that the final payment will be simultaneous with the completion of the articles.

Faithfully yours,

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.
