Dear Miss Tarbell:

Let me tell you how much we appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing that kindly letter of January 12th. If I haven't told you before that you are my favorite author, I will tell you so now.

However, when you are ready I think it might be a good plan to have a pow-wow about the next book. You know how eager we are to learn some of the details.

Cordially as always,

William H. Briggs
