

Lincoln Meets Seward at the Train.

From the "State Journal" of Oct. 2, 1860:

"Gov. Seward and party, en route from Kansas territory for Chicago, passed through this city on the 11 o'clock train on the Chicago, Alton & St. Louis Railroad yesterday morning. . . . Mr. Lincoln, among others, of our leading citizens, met him at the train and greeted him most cordially. . . . "

J. McCan Davis.