Dear Miss Tarball:

I have got back your manuscript, IN MR. LINCOLN'S TOWN, from McCall's and I am sending it down to your apartment. I am not sure whether you are in New York but I suppose it will reach you if you are not. I am sorry I made the mistake of sending it before you made the changes.

I'd like to come down and talk with you sometime if you would like to have me.

Yours sincerely,
