

A Mrs. Ward, of Staten Island, telephoned me that she has a quantity of Lincoln "Memorabilia". From our conversation I gather that she believes the heights, in which she lives, had its corner stone laid by Lincoln, in the last year of the war. I do not recall that Lincoln was in New York in the last year of the war, but possibly for the permission there. She also says that her grandmother or grandaunt was an intimate friend of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln and that she has many stories of her. I have told Mrs. Ward that I would call her up when I return.
