

Allentown, N.J. Dec. 19, 1922.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell.

New York, N.Y.

My Dear Miss Tarbell:-

I am sending you herewith the results of a first attempt at Deborah's grave-stone, made by my nephew, Col. J.M. Coward, U.S.A. (late on the staff of Gen. Bliss, in France), who calls them a failure, and explains that he went there unprepared for existing conditions and without a tripod, which was necessary for a successful time exposure. He will go again, better prepared, but meantime. I send you these in case the matter will not wait, and you can use them if you have to.

Very truly yours,

Lowell R. Hutchins

I sent you a registered package last week, which I hope you received all right.

C.R.H.