Dear Miss Tarbell:

As a result of certain developments yesterday in Chicago I am leaving Saturday for New York where I will remain until the middle of the week.

It is not possible to do justice to the matter which takes me there in a brief letter but there are certain imperative reasons why I should like to discuss them with you.

I may call your residence some time Sunday in the hope that a time agreeable and convenient to yourself may be found for an interview.

With great good wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,

LEM:ER
