Miss Ida M. Tarbell
120 East 19th Street
New York City

Dear Miss Tarbell:

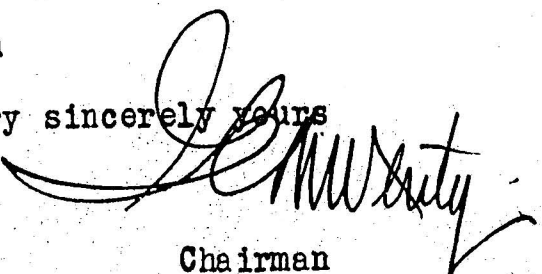

In reply to your note of the twenty-eighth, at your request we are sending direct to Miss Dorothy Giles, International Magazine Company, The Cosmopolitan, 57th Street and 8th Avenue, New York City, several interior views of our plants, and also a copy of a photograph of our President, Mr. Charles R. Hook, and one of my own.

As regards the photographs, if it should be your wish to use both of them that will be all right. If you only have space for one I would prefer that you use Mr. Hook's photograph, as he is now the active head of our business and was the author of the plan which I sent you, and had also the responsibility of putting it into effect. Data covering Mr. Hook's association with our business is attached to his photograph.

You ask for views of our plants. It is, however, very difficult to give you any views of any one or more of our plants of a size that would be satisfactory, as we have a number of plants and they each cover so much ground that a photograph of the size you could use means very little. We have, therefore, given you several interior views of modern equipment and trust these will be satisfactory.

With kind regards, I remain

Very sincerely yours

Chairman
