Dear Miss Ash:

Your informant misunderstood my radio talk. It dealt with but one item in the program of the American Students Foundation - the book they publish on the scholarships which have been accumulated by our colleges and universities in the last three hundred years and the terms on which these scholarships can be obtained. The American Foundation publishes this book. As Mrs. Drouet the President writes you they have a Ways and Means program. Of that I know little or nothing. It was the publication which interested me.

I am sorry, but I doubt if there is anything you can get from the Foundation that would fit your nephew's needs.

Regretting that I can be of no help to you I am

Very truly yours
