DON'T FORGET THE HOME CONCERT FRIDAY NIGHT.

THE CAMPUS

OF ALLEGHENY COLLEGE

ALLEGHENY HAS THE BEST GLEE CLUB OF A DECADE.

VOLUME NO. XL. NO. 12 MEADVILLE, PA., JANUARY 11, 1922 PRICE FIVE CENTS

Home Concert Will be Given Friday

Program Replete With Ensemble and New Novelty Numbers.

If one wants to enjoy a real treat, he will not fail to attend the Men's Glee Club home concert Friday evening at Ford Memorial Chapel. The program combines the ensemble entertainment of the Glee Club with the Musical Club with solo numbers from members of the organization. That the club is the best in years has been attested by many who have heard it this season.

On the initial trip of the organization the musical club received no mean recognition. "Gage's Collegians" offer a real novelty program characterized with a liveliness and so-called pep that easily wins approval. The orchestra has gained a commanding reputation in western Pennsylvania this season, filling many engagements in the Erie and Pittsburgh districts.

One of the features of the program will be a saxophone solo by John Himebaugh. A finished player of the instrument, he plays with an ease and lack of mannerism characteristic of a talanted musician.

No one has a more difficult program than the accompanist. Walter Kinkaid not only accompanies the entire club at the piano, but also gives a solo. He plays with an impeccable virility and exquisite touch. Those who have heard this young artist in the past know that he is a marvel "at the ivories."

"Buck" Wolz, with his pianologues, character songs, and monologues, presents an entirely novel entertainment which is highly appreciated. Mr. Wolz has appeared several times before college audiences and captivates his hearers with his witty, impromptu remarks that make laughter contagious. As an impersonator of noted singers he is at his best, displaying his ability to interpret professional artists.

The quartet, composed of Messrs. Carlson, first tenor; Gage, second tenor; Hines, first bass, and Bates, second bass, offers a number of excellent selections. The singers are talented and experienced in their work as entertainers and "harmony wizards."

Charles Bollinger is the college cartoonist, who has cleverly woven an interesting monologue into his act. He draws anything and everything from a landscape to the "girl on the magazine cover," not to mention the intense interest and attention of his audience, who delight in seeing beautiful sketches made "while you wait."

One of the special numbers is the dramatic work of John Bozic, who is exceptional as a platform reader. Mr. Bozic has won several prizes in college, reading difficult and heavy roles, and his selections Friday evening will display his power and ability.

The Glee Club has tentative engagements at Erie, Ashtabula, Cleveland, Akron, Youngstown and Sharon. During the Easter vacation the organization will make a tour of Pittsburgh and vicinity. These arrangements are the most extensive ever heretofore attempted by the club. Aside from the entertainment that the club affords, it also provides a means of advertising the college in a distinctive and commendable manner.

The tickets for the home concert are on sale at A. L. Ballinger & Co., the Registrar's office and may be procured from any member of the Glee Club.

PRESIDENT HIXSON ADDRESSES Y. W. C. A.

DEDICATION OF NEW ROOMS IS MARKED BY AN INSPIRING TALK.

President Hixson gave an inspiring address at the dedication of the new Y. W. C. A. rooms in Hulings Hall Sunday evening. Taking as his text, "Ye are the Witnesses," he showed that there are two kinds of witnessing for Christ. One is the deliberate or purposeful witnessing, and the other is the unconscious witnessing. He pointed out that what one is, is as important as what one says.

A vocal solo by Alto Postance was enjoyed by all.

The Y. W. heartily appreciates its new rooms, consisting of a pleasant assembly room and a cozy reading room. An invitation is extended to all the young women of Allegheny to make use of them.

JUNIORS PUT ON SUCCESSFUL PROM

THE GYM WAS THE SCENE OF THE BEST HOP IN YEARS.

The Junior "prom," held in the gymnasium Thursday evening, Dec. 15, 1921, was a huge success. The class of '23 and especially the committee in charge of the affair, deserve much praise for the careful way things were planned.

The program consisted of twelve dances, with two extras. Intermission was after the sixth dance. Punch was served between the engagements.

Including members of the faculty, there were over 70 couples, who highly enjoyed the wonderful music rendered by Gage's Collegians. Park Lytle, who played last year at the "prom" with Waring's Orchestra, was with Gage, and was an added attraction of the evening.

The gymnasium was attractively decorated. The college colors, blue and gold, predominated. Banners of various classes and fraternities were hung from the railing of the balcony. Lined along the wall on the dance floor were many comfortable and roomy settees and chairs, backed with many multi-colored floor lamps.

The patrons and patronesses for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Leffingwell, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Irving Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Fahr, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Muckinhoupt, N. W. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Stephens, Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Gamble, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gilbert and Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Miller.

The committee in charge of the event consisted of Messrs. C. H. Wills, chairman, H. C. Hiller, W. R. Flint, H. E. Sterling, R. M. Powell, C. E. Kinney. V. L. Wise, C. A. Bollinger and Misses Catherine MacDonald, Dorothy Mussler, Ruby Rishell and Sara McQuiston.

GIRLS CONTRIBUTE LIBERALLY TO FUND

THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS ADVANCED FOR RELIEF OF FOREIGN STUDENTS.

Three hundred dollars was the amount raised at the girls' chapel service held on last Thursday by the women of Allegheny, as their contribution to the Student Friendship Fund. From the faculty women has come $40, making a total of $340 to help in the movement carried on by students throughout the world for the aid of students in Europe. To that $340 will be added approximately $200, the portion of the Y. M. C. A. budget raised by the men to be used for the Friendship Fund.

Clara Weller, Francis Pitt and Dorothy Leeper presented the subject to the girls, giving an idea of the organization and growth of the movement.

Although the movement has been brought to the ears of Allegheny students only recently, it had its beginning as long ago as March, 1920 in Vienna, through the efforts of the World's Student Christian Federation. This Federation, which was organized in 1895, made investigations regarding the conditions of European students.

Following the investigation, which proved that something must be done immediately to relieve the situation, a general European Student Relief scheme was formally launched. The movement grew and the work spread among several countries. At the present time the operations have touched 120 different institutions of higher learning, with an attendance of 250,000 students. Help has been given in one form or another to some 70,000 students.

When the needs were presented to the girls of Allegheny and an appeal made for the support of this world movement, every girl was anxious to do her share and Allegheny's quota was raised in a short time.

KALDRON ADVANCE IS PROMISING

SENIOR WRITE-UPS ARE UNDER WAY—ORIGINALITY WILL BE FEATURE.

Work on the 1922 Kaldron is well under way. The annual this year promises to equal, if not surpass any previous attempts at a year-book. Many novel features are being added, some of them are completely new, while others are improvements oven the ideas of past years.

The book will contain the usual faculty and senior individual pictures, with equally attractive backgrounds as were secured for the annual last year. The senior individual write-ups are now being gathered. These will have a list of the activities of the student while in college, city and high school from which the person came, degree obtained, organization of which the party is a member, and a short paragraph on the character, personality and future of the individual in question.

Following the senior section will come the group picture and roster of the other classes in their respective order. Unique headings for each class and other heads throughout the book are being secured, both through the art editor and from others.

The various team pictures and resumes of the seasons will as usual constitute a large portion of the annual. There will be the publication section; a section composing the organizations of the college, as the men's and women's senate, the Y. M. and Y. W. cabinets and the clubs; another section for music and dramatics; one for oratory and debate; the fraternity section, and finally the humor section. These various parts of the Kaldron will be interspersed with page pictures of the college, action pictures of football and track, and the wit section with as many pictures of students in as compromising attitudes as it is possible to secure.

Many excellent drawings have already been handed in to the board, among them original and attractive page border designs. Some especially fine photographic work will dominate the book.

A contest for the best photographs is being planned, in which all the students are asked to participate. The rules and prizes for this contest will be announced later.

DEBATE TRYOUTS HELD LAST WEEK

BOTH VARSITY AND THE FRESHMAN TRIALS BRING OUT CAPABLE MATERIAL.

On last Friday and Saturday afternoons the debating season was started at Allegheny by the tryouts for the varsity and Freshman teams.

Friday's trial resulted in the choice of the following men to represent the class of 1925 in their forensic joust with the Sophomores on Jan. 17: Sutton (captain), Eddy, Steenken, Demmler (alternate).

The varsity tryouts on Saturday were for the purpose of choosing twelve men to compete in the final trial to determine the college team. These finals will take place on Saturday, Jan. 14. The twelve men chosen to compete in these tryouts are: Bozic, Ross, Braun, Bollinger, Larson, Hanst, Demmler, Weaver, Gergely, Sutton, Wright and Blodgett.

The question for both the Freshmen-Sophomore debate and the varsity contest is, "Resolved, that the Kansas Court Plan for settling industrial disputes should be adopted in other states."

ANNUAL BANQUET IS BEING PLANNED

COMMITTEES HAVE BEEN APPOINTED FOR WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY DINNER.

Plans were made for the annual Washington's Birthday banquet at a joint meeting of the Men's and Women's Senates held last Friday afternoon. In order that all arrangements may be properly cared for, the following committees were appointed: General chairman, R. T. Doing; finance committee, H. A. Jones, chairman, W. E. Severn and Martha Schall; program committee, Sarah Peabody, chairman, J. E. Larson and Alta Postance; decorating committee, Mary Gealy, chairman, and C. H. Wills.

The Washington Birthday banquet has no small place in the list of all-college events, but is one which has done much to encourage and advance true Allegheny spirit. The present committees wish to assure the students that the banquet this year will be even superior to that of last year, and those who were fortunate in being at the one last year can well realize what such an assurance means.

At this banquet it has been customary for the lower classes to appear in costume, the nature of which being kept secret until their appearance. Needless to say, the Sophomores and Freshmen vie in the selection of unique and unexpected array. The two upper classes appear in caps and gowns, the seniors wearing black and the juniors wearing white. The banquet hall, into which the gymnasium is converted, will be very tastefully and elaborately decorated as also will be the tables of the various classes.

Tradition has set up the following regulations:

Each class will be assigned a definite corner of the hall.

The cost of decorations must not exceed $15.

The decorations must not obstruct the view of those people sitting in the balcony.

No nails may be driven in the gymnasium floor.

The two lower classes will appear in costume.

While the finance committee has not yet announced the probable cost of the banquet, the students may feel assured that the price of the dinner will be reasonable, yet one which will be of credit to the college.

DELTA SIGMA RHO INITIATES.

At a meeting of Delta Sigma Rho, honorary debating and oratorical fraternity, held Dec. 15, Hugh H. Buchanan and Elton H. Hickman were initiated. Delta Sigma Rho was founded in 1906 and has chapters in all of the leading universities and colleges of the country. Membership to the organization is confined to those who take part in intercollegiate forensic contests.

The History and Political Science Club will meet Thursday evening at the Library.

Y. M. Puts Across Mammoth Drive

Students Give Generously Toward Budget, Success Due to Cooperation

Over a thousand dollars was raised in the drives last week for the Christian associations of the college. A thoroughly efficient organization in both cases was responsible for the success of both campaigns last Thursday.

Pledges and cash subscriptions amounting to over $800 for the Y. M. C. A. means the adoption of a budget system for the remainder of the year. The Student Friendship Fund, the Americanization work, the lecture course, Freshman bible and necessary expenses are now liberally provided for.

The Y. W. obtained nearly $300, all to be applied toward Allegheny's contribution to the Friendship Fund.

With the purpose in view of devising a means whereby the Y. M. C. A. might be placed on a sound financial standing, the advisory board and cabinet of this organization met at a dinner in Cochran Hall on Dec. 13. At this conference it was decided that an intensive financial drive was necessary if the Y. M. C. A. were to continue its work. At the suggestion of President Hixson and Chairman Dr. Henke, two general committees were then appointed: The finance committee, to which Dr. Henke, C. H. Neely and J. E. Larson were appointed, and the advertising committee, to which Dr. J. R. Schultz, G. R. Braun and C. W. Havice were appointed.

The next step in the drive was in the selection of two generals, J. E. Larson and I. O. Fleming, by the finance committee. The two generals with the committee selected thirty representative men from the student body to serve as captains. At another dinner each captain selected a lieutenant with whom he wished to work in the drive. At the third dinner the captains and lieutenants selected the men whom they were to solicit the following day. Dr. Beiler served as solicitor of the faculty members.

After the rousing banquet on Wednesday night some sixty enthusiastic workers started out to solicit subscriptions for the Y. M. C. A. budget There were two teams of them, one under E. Larson and the other under I. Fleming, and competition was strong; each group tried to outdo the other in efficient work for a common end. All evening Wednesday and all day Thursday the fellows exercised their persuasive powers in their effort to put across a financial campaign that is going to put the Allegheny "Y" on the map. Those who were approached were profuse and original in their excuses for keeping their money to themselves, but the campaigners had "too hot a line", the students handed over their greenbacks, and the drive went across in great shape. No final figures are available as yet, but a semi-official report gives the following information:

Raised by Fleming's team	$288.00
Raised by Larson's team	425.00
Total raised by men for budget,	$713.00
Raised by faculty for budget,	$125.00
Total subscription for budget,	$838.00

MUSIC SOCIETY WILL APPEAR UAN. 30

ELEVEN ARTISTS COMPRISE NATIONALLY KNOWN ORCHESTRA. RUDOLPH VALENTINO

Judging from comments made by Meadville musicians, students will be but a part of the audience for the concert in the Chapel on Friday a week, when the Allegheny College Concert Course brings as its third number the New York Chamber Music Art Society. This orchestra of eleven pieces is practically the same as delighted the listeners at the Baptist church last year, in an entertainment under the auspices of the Meadville schools.

Included in the orchestra are two violins, one viola, violincello, contra bass, clarinet, flute, bassoon, oboe, French horn and piano, a well-balanced ensemble. The players are all artists, and have been prominent in musical circles for several years. The program which they will present will be in many respects the crowning musical event of the year.

PROF. ANDREWS, OF TUFTS UNIVERSITY, WILL DELIVER ILLUSTRATED LECTURE ON THURSDAY EVENING.

On Thursday evening, Jan. 12, Prof. Andrews, of Tufts University, will deliver an illustrated lecture on the subject of the "Balkans" in the lecture room of Alden Hall. Prof. Andrews has spent some time in relief work throughout Europe and will present many interesting aspects of the European situation along with a number of illustrated slides. The lecture is being held under the auspices of the History and Political Science Club.

EDITORIAL

This edition was published under the direction of Ralph Bacon.

—A—

Two weeks from tomorrow the final exams begin.

—A—

The large attendance at the Geneva game proves that the townfolk as well as Alleghenians are loyal supporters of the team. The spirit shown was highly commendable. While the result of the game was not what was expected, there may be something in that saying, "A poor beginning makes a good ending."

—A—

No other medium so well advertises our institution as the Men's Glee Club. The organization this year promises to show results. The program is of the highest calibre and the talent is exceptional. The Home Concert should receive the support of the entire student body. Every one should bear in mind that an organization of this kind reflects upon the college wherever it may appear. No better judges of Allegheny standards can be had than the active students, the alumni, and the faculty, who should determine by their applause that which we would have others know.

THE CAMPUS HAS A NEW HOME with all modern conveniences.

EXAMINATION SCHEDULE.

The examination schedule for the first semester has been tentatively arranged. Changes may be made, if possible, but no changes will be made after Friday, Jan. 20. The official copy of the schedule with all changes noted will be posted on Jan. 23. No changes either in place of time of examination will be made thereafter.

There are a few unavoidable conflicts. They should be reported to the Registrar not later than Friday, Jan. 13.

Examinations in one-hour subjects will be limited to one and one-half hours, in two-hour subjects to two hours, in three-hour subjects to two and a half hours, and in four-hour subjects to three hours.

When a student has been absent from class for any cause one-seventh the total number of recitations, or more, a supplementary examination must be taken at the close of the regular examination in the subject. Members of the athletic teams and the Glee Club are allowed four absences above such fraction each term to fill engagements.

Examinations in subjects not scheduled will be arranged by the instructors.

JANUARY LITERARY MONTHLY APPEARS

CURRENT ISSUE CONTAINS SOME COMMENDABLE LITERATURE.

"With this issue, The Campus pauses to usher in," not the new year, but a review of the January issue of the Literary Monthly. Although a thin issue, much variety is shown in the material given—from a novelette to a hymn of hate.

The Chronology, while not literary, appears to be an established section, so The Campus waives criticism. "Ananias' Gift," a story dealing with inter-marriage of Jews and Gentiles, covers too wide a field to be classed as a short story, but has possibilities of being developed into a novel. "Aunt Cordelia's Handbag," dealing with the trials of a Latin professor in a small western college, is really a clever piece of writing. The subtle humor is skillfully handled. The opening of "Numbers" is very effective, gaining immediately the attention of the reader. Suspense, always necessary in a mystery story, is secured and the suspense increases until the mystery is solved by the exposure of the murderer. The Campus detective was put on the trail of this story and discovered one fallacy. If one prick of the hypodermic needle was deadly, why did not "Clark" die, since the needle had been dangling from his finger? The story, however, is worthy of favorable comment.

The poems, "The Cage" and "Suggestions," show much ability on the part of the writer, but concerning "To—?" the Lit. is not the place to satisfy personal grudges.

What happened to the "Arena?" It was an interesting section.

WHO WILL BE NEXT?

After Feb. 1, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Kinnear, both of the class of '20, will be at their home on Commonwealth avenue, Boston. Mrs. Kinnear, before her marriage Monday evening in the Butler Methodist Episcopal church, was Miss Susan Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Jenkins, of Bluff street, Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Kinnear, Miss Jeannette Kinnear and Miss Esther Kinnear, of North Negley avenue, were among the wedding guests.

In the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Louis Kendall, Jr., on Penn avenue, Pittsburgh, the wedding of Miss Winnie Arnett, '25, daughter of Mrs. Thomas C. Dunn, Jr., of Blessing, Tex., and Mr. Houghton Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clyde Philipps, of Alder Court, took place last Saturday evening, in an embankment of ferns and Easter lilies, through which gleamed cathedral candles. The bride wore a gown of white satin, cut with court train, trimmed with rose pointe lace and embroidered in silver thread. Orange blossoms held her tulle veil in place.

Mrs. Kendall, sister of the groom, and matron of honor, wore rose chiffon velvet, paneled with silver cloth. Mr. J. Louis Kendall, Jr., was the groom's attendant and Mr. John Ballard, of Bellevue, and Mr. Kenneth Barrows, of Philadelphia, acted as ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, upon returning from Lake Placid, will make their home in Butler.

BACK TO EARTH.

When I had lived there eighteen years I left my native town, and letters blotched with ink and tears told how the place shut down. No sooner had my baggage gone than all along the street folks asked how school was coming on in voices soft and sweet. The scented, sugared daily mail that came to Alleghe convinced me that the town must fail since I had gone away. Inquirers lined the old front walk inquiring after me; big business men would stop and talk of what my plans might be. Each day I read with new surprise how mother's cares had grown; of how she burned up cakes and pies while answering the phone. The mayor himself was sick with fear for work hung in suspense; the vine I tended for a year, died on the backyard fence. I learned that every busy clerk with Christmas drawings near would always put aside his work to talk of my career. The managers of all the shops commenced their flattery, and butchers ceased their chopping chops to talk with dad of me. I pictured going back again, of how I'd make a hit, of how the town would meet the train and snatch me off of it. At times it was too hard to wait and counting up the days, I fancied how they'd celebrate in sixty different ways. I bought a ticket weeks ahead and started in to pack, and every night I went to bed I dreamed of going back. At last upon the poky train I squirmed excitedly, and as I beat the window pane, men grinned fing up and back; the wheels were rusty, slow; I felt like jumping on the track and helping it to go * * * MY STATION—and a crowd around, all waiting anxiously, but when I stepped upon the ground, nobody noticed me. while gazing off in blue despair, I saw a moving speck.* * * My mother shot across the square and fell upon my neck. Before we reached the old abode I heard a dozen say, Where are you going? Why the load. O, have you been away?" * * * * That night with bowed and humble head, in disappointment deep, I jumped into my trundle bed and wept myself to sleep.

At Silvercreek, N. Y., Lyle Clough, '21, is teaching chemisrty and physics.

Lucia DeTurk and Ella Mae Wilson are rooming together at Urbana, Ill, where they are studying and teaching. Miss DeTurk, a member of the Romance Department faculty last year, is teaching in the University and Miss Wilson, who taught Spanish in the same department, is studying in the University of Illinois.

Don't you remember those college days,

Those rah-rah girls and their rah-rah ways?"

Well, these rah-rah girls from Allegheny put their wits to working during Christmas vacation, and the result was the first College Girls' Dance. The Phi Delts kindly offered their house, and about thirty couples danced there from 8 to 12 on Thursday, Dec. 29. A three-piece orchestra, consisting of Sam Bates, George Sigendall and Bill Phillips, furnished fine music for the dances. At intermission delicious home-made cakes were served with ice cream and coffee.

Much of the success of the party, for it was a huge success, was due to the efforts of the committee, which consisted of Elsie Reynolds, Ruth Ling, Alice Townsend and Gertrude Curry. There is some talk of making the party an annual affair, so "on with the dance."

Gage's Collegians Make Tour During Vacation.

Allegheny's fame is again being carried abroad in a musical way. During Christmas vacation Gage's Collegians made a trip extending over a week. They played for dances in various parts of western Pennsylvania, stopping at Junction Park, Pittsburgh, Windber, Warren, and Erie. The Allegheny men who made the trip are Gage '24, Alker '25, Steetle '24, Knapp '24, and Himebaugh, '23. From all reports they were enthusiastically received and helped to boost the college's name.

Y. M. Will Bring Famous Cartoonist Here.

Alton Packard, nationally famous cartoonist, will come to Allegheny for the third number on the Y. M. C. A. Lyceum course, Tuesday evening, Jan. 24. Mr. Packard's repertoire includes besides his colored cartoons, original songs, which he accompanies on the piano.

This entertainment is among those covered by the Y. M. drive and every one who subscribed $4 or more received a ticket for the remainder of the course.

LITERARY STUDENTS ATTEND LECTURE

QUILL CLUB MEMBERS HEAR DR. CROTHERS IN HIS TALK AT THE UNITARIAN CHURCH.

Samuel McChord Crother's lecture in the Unitarian church last night was attended by the Quill Club in a body. The subject was "Some Old Poets and Some Not So Old." Besides being internationally known as an essayist, Mr. Crother is a contributor to The Atlantic Monthly, and a large number of other prominent magazines. The difference in the style of the old and the new poets, which included a fine discussion of the modern writers of verse, was the theme of his lecture. After the program every member of the Quill Club had the honor of being formally introduced to the prominent pastor from Cambridge.

Thursday, Dec. 22, 1921, was alumnae day at the Louisville Girls' High School, Louisville, Ky. During chapel period several girls representing schools all over the country spoke. Such colleges at Bryn Mawr, Wellsley, Hollins, Randolph-Macon and Allegheny were represented. Dorothy Davidson, '25, was Allegheny's spokesman to the two thousand girls of the school.

Block A Club Plans Smoker

WILL BE HELD AFTER ALFRED GAME AT DELT HOUSE.

Plans for a smoker to be held at the Delta house next Saturday night after the Alfred game were consummated at a special meeting of the Block A Club held at the Phi Kappa Psi house last Sunday afternoon.

Newly elected members will be initiated at this time. Last year's track and tennis men in addition to the past season's football men are included in the list of initiates.

A move was also made to have the numerous trophies placed in their proper positions in the trophy room. A picture of last season's football letter men will also be taken in the near future, and is to be placed in the trophy room.

The question of a graduate manager of athletics was also taken up in the meeting, but no decision was reached as nothing definite can be done until after the meeting of the Board of Trustees, which takes place on the 15th of January.

FROSH GIRLS TAKE BASKETBALL HONORS

SOPHOMORES LOSE FLOOR CLASH 9-5 IN INTERESTING GAME.

That girls' basketball is a success at Allegheny was proved by the Sophomore-Freshman game Friday at 4:30 in the girls' gym. By capturing nine points to the Sophomore's five, the Freshmen gained the victory. The entire game was spirited and fascinating. The first half ended with a score of 4-3 in favor of the Sophomores, showing that the teams were evenly matched. During the latter half, however, the Freshmen, gaining steadily, proved themselves more than a match for their opponents.

The lineup was as follows:

FRESHMEN, 9		SOPHS, 5.
	Forward
Pugh		Gilmore
Nance		M. Rose
	Center
Prather		Olmstead
	Guard
Davenport		Crandall
Shaeffer		D. Rose

Field goals: Freshmen—Pugh 1, Davenport 1. Sophomores—Gilmore 1.

Fouls: Freshmen—Pugh 1, Davenport 4. Sophomores—Gilmore 3.

Substitutions—Shaeffer for Davenport, Davenport for Shaeffer.

Blue and Gold Lose To Geneva Passers

Lack of Team Work on the Part of Locals Marks Opening Contest

Allegheny suffered a decisive defeat at the hands of Geneva here last Friday night. The final score was 30-17. It was the initial contest of the season for the locals, whereas the Beaver Falls collegians had all the advantage of teamwork gained through several games, including Dartmouth and Syracuse, which were played during the Christmas vacation period.

At no time during the entire fray did the Blue and Gold display a strong attack, four field goals being the total for forty minutes of play, while three of these were made in the second period, after the lineup had been shifted considerably.

The game opened very auspiciously, each team passing the ball around in an effort to sound out the respective defenses. One minute of play had been consumed before Kofford made the first score of the game with a perfect throw from the foul line. Geneva evened matters up a moment later, when Boren was also successful on a free throw. Graham then made the first field goal of the evening on a short left from beneath the net. From this time on, however, Geneva gradually dre waway from the locals, and at half time the score stood 18-6 in their favor. Close guarding necessitated many long shots, with the Covenanters having a distinctive advantage in this respect. Time after time shots made by Allegheny men would roll around the hoop and finally drop to the floor or into the hands of the visitors.

A number of changes in the local lineup made at the opening of the second half proved more effective against the Geneva attack. Parent and Wise were removed. Parker went in for Kofford, Bittner took Parent's place at forward, Miller was moved up to the center position, and Kofford filled in at the other offensive position opposite Bittner. This combination played the down staters to a standstill, being outscored by only one point, 12-11. The Geneva five tired in the latter half of the game and contented themselves with passing the ball around under the Blue and Gold basket. As the defense tightened they would break away for long shots. Allegheny teamwork was very conspicuous by its absence and that of Geneva was not superior to any great degree. However, accuracy in locating the rim from mid-floor or beyond counted heavily in the scoring. Boren, of Geneva, was the star of the evening, scoring three pretty field goals and fourteen free throws. Thomas, Laeffler and Galbraith also put up good exhibitions for the visitors.

Graham did the best work for Allegheny.

A capacity crowd was on hand to witness the opener.

The lineup:

GENEVA, 30.		ALLEGHENY, 17.
	Forward
Galbraith		Parent
Boren		Miller
	Center
Harr		Wise
	Guard
Loeffler		Kofford
Thomas		Graham

Summary: Field goals—Allegheny—Miller 2, Graham 2. Geneva—Galbraith 2, Thomas 3, Boren 3. Foul goals: Allegheny—Kofford, 8 our of 14; Bittner, 1 out of 1. Geneva: Boren, 14 our of 17.

Substitutions: Geneva—None; Allegheny—Bittner for Parent, Miller for Wise, Parker for Kofford, Kofford for Miller.

Time of halves—20 minutes.

Referee—Baird.

Timekeeper—Lee.

LITTLE KNOWN OF ALFRED STRENGTH

VARSITY WILL BE IN BETTER SHAPE FOR SATURDAY GAME.

Alfred University will provide the attraction next Saturday night, when its team stacks up against the Blue and Gold five in the college gymnasium.

Information concerning the New York state passers is noticeably lacking, although a comparison may be made after their contest with Geneva at Beaver Falls tonight.

However, Alfred is known to have a veteran combination and is not to be taken too lightly.

Coach Hammett has been drilling the members of the local squad hard in an effort to correct the errors which were so apparent in the Geneva game. With Captain Kofford again in good shape physically, Allegheny will be at full strength for the coming contest.

SPORTLETS.

Prominent W. and J. alumni of Pittsburgh are preparing for a monster testimonial banquet for the Red and Black football team next Saturday night in the ballroom of the William Penn hotel. Coaches and managers of the Pitt, Tech and Penn State elevens are on the invitation list and it is expected they will cheerfully accept and do their part in paying tribute to the sectional champions.

With one of the best football schedules in the history of the institution for next year, Carnegie Tech is planning to spend $10,000 improving the field for these big games. Besides practically rebuilding the present playing field, the seating capacity will be increased to 10,000.

Allegheny is included in the tentative tennis schedule of the University of Pittsburgh for the 1922 season. Matches will be played both at Pittsburgh and at Meadville Grove City will stack up against the strong West Virginia University quintet at Morgantown next Saturday night.

Featuring the proposed grid card of Carnegie Tech for next season will be the appearance of Notre Dame at Tech Field Nov. 25.

Grove City is starting in where they left off last year. With a record of 16 consecutive victories last season, Bob Thorn's quintet has already made a very auspicious beginning this year. Aside from three or four victories over strong independent teams in the Pittsburgh district, Marietta College fell before the Crimson tossers last Thursday night by the score of 44-27.

FRATERNITY BOWLING TO BEGIN SATURDAY

LOVING CUP WILL BE AWARDED TO WINNING ORGANIZATION.

The Interfraternity Bowling Tournament will open Friday, Jan. 13, at the college bowling alleys in Cochran Hall. All the fraternities have entered teams and the competition should be very keen. All the games of the series will be played off on Thursday and Friday evenings of each week or on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The alleys were repaired during the Christmas vacation and they are in the best of condition. An attractive loving cup has been secured by the management and will be awarded to the team winning the series. The fact that the cup is a one-year cup should promote keen rivalry between the contestants.

By agreement among the several fraternities a new ruling has been introduced this year regarding the players on each team. The ruling states that each man can bowl on one team only, the choice of whether it shall be Honorary or Social Fraternity for which he can bowl is left to the individual. This will eliminate the dissatisfaction which seemed to be prevalent last year. The schedule for the first week is as follows. If the dates are not suitable the management should be notified and suitable dates substituted:

Friday, Jan. 13—Alpha Chi Rho vs. Allegheny Club.

Phi Kappa Psi vs. Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Saturday, Jan. 14, 3 p. m.—Phi Delta Theta vs. Beta Upsilon. Delta Tau Delta vs. Faculty.

VITAL TALKS FEATURE LAST WEEK'S CHAPEL SERVICES

Chapel talks the last week featured the Y. M. C. A. campaign that closed on Thursday. The Friendship Fund was discussed in the first service, on Tuesday, by Dr. Bieler. He stressed the conditions of European students, who are being forced to leave school in order to earn their living. The majority of those remaining in the colleges, he said, usually are compelled to earn a part of their expenses.

The advantages of the "Y" to the American college and especially to Allegheny was the topic developed by Dr. Darling on Wednesday morning. Mr. Gergley and Mr. Boynton followed with short talks, the former telling of the value of the Americanization classes to the Meadville community, the latter outlining the budget scheme for which the campaign was promoted.

Dr. Ernest A. Smith, a former Allegheny professor of history and political science, visited the college last Wednesday, January 4, and was a chapel speaker for the day. Dr. Smith is now located in Evanston, Ill. He taught here at two different periods. His first professorship began in 1898 and terminated in 1910. The years between 1913 and 1916 again saw him in his old position.

He remembers the "Old Allegheny" and recalls the time, about 1901, when the term "New Allegheny" came into use. His talk in chapel concerned the greater opportunities derived from the "Newest Allegheny," which the students in college today are injoying.

Dr. Smith is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University in the class of 1888 and a member of Beta Theta Pi and Phi Beta Kappa fraternities.

AN EXCURSION OF THE 1922 ALLEGHENY TOURISTS' CLUB

In 1914 Reims was a peaceful, prosperous industrial and commercial city of over 100,000 inhabitants. Its marvelous cathedral, one of the most famous in all Europe, had from before the time of Joan de Arc witnessed the coronation of all the French kings.

The war came. In the first onslaught Reims fell into the hands of the invading Germans. But not for long. The tide of battle suddenly turned and less than a week later Reims was free from the invader. However, a worse fate was in store for her, for both armies entrenched themselves only a few miles away, and from that day until the signing of the armistice, the city was subjected to a terrific and never ceasing bombardment. Every shot, say the inhabitants, was aimed at the gigantic cathedral, which remains a shell, but which the most terrible engines of war were unable to destroy.

Armistice day found Reims a picture of desolation. Of its 14,000 buildings, all of stone, only fourteen, one to a thousand, remained uninjured. Less than 2,000 could be rebuilt. All the rest had to be torn down, stone by stone, and rebuilt from the very foundation. It required nine months merely to clear the streets so that the work of demolition and rebuilding could begin. The cathedral can never be restored, but must remain forever as a monument to the wanton destructiveness of the invaders.

ALLEGHENIANS ARE PRESENT AT BANQUET

MANY INSTITUTIONS ARE REPRESENTED AT ERIE ANNUAL "COLLEGE NIGHT."

With ten undergraduate students and two members of the Erie Alumnae present, Allegheny was well represented at the annual "College Night" banquet held in the Erie Y. M. C. A. Friday evening, Dec. 30, 1921.

Pennsylvania, Michigan, Penn State and Carnegie Tech were represented by delegations of considerable size, while many other colleges were represented proportionately at the gathering.

The banquet, held annually, is for the purpose of inducing high school graduates to enter college and also to bring the college men of the vicinity into closer contact with each other.

A feature of the evening was the presence of the members of the Western Reserve Glee Club. The University quartet favored the assembly with two pleasing numbers.

Those present from Allegheny were Courtney M. Dale, J. H. Tate, M. V. Wright, W. J. Dale, Ted A. Siedle, Clifton T. Little, Seth E. Hough, of Meadville; L. L. Greenwood, Eugene J. Brew and Edward Staples. Prof. M. E. More, '11, instructor of physics in Academy High School, Erie, and Professor H. E. Stone, '05, Boys' Counselor in Central High School, also attended.
