

The New York Times

March 30 / 1936.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I have never thanked
 you on paper for your helpful response about the Lincoln-Douglas Debates.
 I used your speech in making appeal to the Federal Commission on sites of national historic interest for the inclusion of "Old Main" at Knox.
 I haven't had the final word but I am hopeful.

Martha is coming home
 to-night with word about the new list.

Sincerely,
 Miss Ida M. Tarbell.
