February 4th, 1909.

Mrs. Phoebe Katz Ruslander,

West Park, Pa.

My dear Phoebe:

If you will fix a date early in April, I think I shall be able to fill it. Kindly let me know as soon as you can. I suppose that you will be satisfied if I talk to you on Lincoln. That seems to be the subject of the time.

I will see about the photograph. Certainly you shall have one. I haven't any at present, but as soon as I get a new stock, you may count on one.

Faithfully yours,

Ida M. Tarbell
