Besse Building

Springfield, Mass., December 11 1914

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
132 East 19th St.,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I do not wish to seem to be too persistent but we are still hoping that you will be able to come to Springfield and speak before the Publicity Club and their ladies as we had planned.

We still hold ourselves in readiness to arrange a date to suit your convenience and we trust that you can see your way clear to come either this month or early in the new year.

Thanking you for your interest in our organization, suggested in your consideration of our invitation, and trusting that we shall have the pleasure of entertaining you at no distant date,

I beg to remain

Very truly yours,

Edward H. Marsh
