Miss Ida M. Tarbell,

132 East 19th Street,

New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

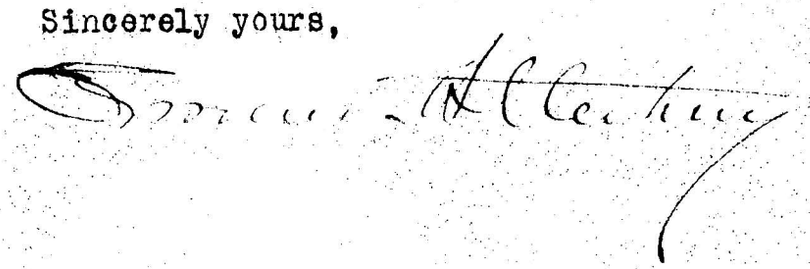

I find your note of September 20th on my return to town, and am glad it so happens that you postponed your invitation for me to meet you at the Colony Club for tea, as I am leaving again tonight for Tennessee where I am trying to put another town on the map. This time for one of your friends -- the railroads.

I have just come back from Bar Harbor where I saw one or two of your friends. I shall look forward with eagerness to our postponed encounter.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

GA:R
