Dear Mr. Page:

Thank you for sending me your list of Currier and Ives prints on the Death and Funeral of Abraham Lincoln.

All my Lincoln prints have gone to my old college where they intend to inaugurate a Lincoln room, my pieces being a nucleus of their collection.

I think I have one or more of the prints which you offer, but am not certain. I am asking the Librarian in charge to look this up and to let me know if she thinks they can afford to buy the piece lacking.

You say that you have a catalogue of Lincoln books. I should be glad to see it.

Thanking you again for your courtesy.

Very truly yours

Mr. C. H. Page
