| Terms of Use | Annual Reviews requests that authors not post the PDF of the published version of their review anywhere on the open Internet. However, Annual Reviews both permits and encourages its authors to self-archive, after the work's publication, an Annual Reviews-supplied ePrint URL (a specially keyed URL that allows nonsubscribers to access an Annual Review article freely via the Annual Reviews website) on one personal website and/or one institutional repository. The ePrint URL is supplied by the Production Editor upon final online publication. |
