Dear Miss Tarbell,

This is fine of you.

Incidentally I'm going up to Middletown Monday for the Spring term, to have conferences now & again with the Wesleyan young men about writing (as if I knew anything about it!)

I could run over to see you Sunday evening, if you happen to have read the play by then. Or I can try to reach you, one of the two or three times I come in for a week-end between now and June.
There's no urgent hurry about it anyhow.

And I do appreciate your kindness
Arthur Goodrich
