

Chicago

Aug 9 1957

#1 to Ashland Blvd.
my dear Miss Tarbell:-
Your kind letter
should have received
immediate attention but unfortunately owing to the very hot weather I am not here only strong - In the meantime however, I am to be conferring with a photographer in regard to reproducing the picture.

I find that it can be done with success, but to procure a good one, several plates will have to be exposed and owing to the darkness of the club library the portrait may have to be taken out of doors - but the photographs say she is sure of a good likeness. It was my intention in the first to submit the portrait in a prospectus with three four hundred words in description - If it were not taken by McClellan's - Today's magazine would have given early consideration. The portrait is the equal property of my sister and self - and as we are informed that it will cost from $7 to $8 for a four photograph we feel that it's right to satisfy all around to ask $30 for a copyright photo of four size - the same as I should have hoped submitting it in manuscript form. Do not like son & make a cold business proposition, but as this will be the first original publication - The Tribune picture was a truly minute drawing by artist - in fact like they showed to make as far a consideration as was by the Tribune - or can not allowed the portrait to be produced however exactly because we wish to keep it choice and

private property -

I have an unspoken hope of a more explicit description too. My sister just returning from Lake out Mt. informs me that she met a couple of old rebel soldiers who saw it carried in that vicinity. I shall write them. As a conclusion, Miss Torbell will you kindly consider this and let me hear from you at your convenience? I want to send about a 12x16 photo -

It is my kind of you to offer your friendship should I come east and I am sure I should be grateful for it. I want to be in New York by November - and will then look for you Behave me very cordially Quaker & Justice

I attended a literary conference last week which I don't wish to mention here. I am sure you would be interested in what I saw and heard.