Dear Miss Young:

Forgive me for having been so slow in acknowledging your letter sending me a copy of a reprint from "Pencil Points." I would not want you to think that I am not appreciative of whatever is done to your Lincoln Shrine. This reprint shows how much the wings add to the impressiveness of the Shrine. I am so very glad to have it for my notes. at

One of these days I hope to have the pleasure of seeing what you are doing and hearing what you have in mind.

With renewed thanks,
as well as for apologies for my delay,
believe me

Very sincerely yours

Miss Genevieve Young
