New Dorp, S.I.

My dear Mrs. Chambers:

I have your letter of the 17th enclosing a beautiful handkerchief as a mark of your appreciation of my interest in your Hollywood lot. You should not have done this, dear Madam, I was only too glad if I could be of any service.

I hope it will work out. I have a letter from the Company, asking for the name of the bank with which you do business, also asking whether or not your husband is living, and if so, his given name. On receipt of this information, Mr. Brodbeck says that he will forward to the bank a letter of credit, to be delivered to you on receipt of a proper quit claim in which you and your husband quit-claim your interest in their company. This probably is the practical way for the matter to be handled, and I advise you to send the information.

Very truly yours
