My dear Miss Tarbell:

Thank you so much for your note of the 18th. We are delighted that you can meet with us on May 5th, and three o'clock as a time is entirely agreeable. In fact we had put the time at three thirty thinking it might be a little more convenient for you, and so are glad that three o'clock is better.

We do need your advice and counsel and greatly appreciate your meeting with us on the fifth. Instead of going to the Vassar Club, come here to my office, since it is also the headquarters for the Committee and our regular place of meeting. Because it is our workshop we are more ourselves here, I think. The number of the office is 1901.

Very sincerely yours,

Maude White Stewart
