

Note

In an interview with H. H. Rogers, he tells me that the cost of drilling wells in West Virginia is so great that none but a great corporation could have afforded it. Wells cost from three to eight thousand doallrs in the early days. Find out if the West Virginia wells cost more.