

February 23, 1934

Dear Mr. Reynolds:

I have your note from Lorimer and I think he is right about that sketch.

What about the Atlantic?
If you think it wise I'll offer to Sedgwick myself knowing him well. Let me know.

Thank you, my cold is better but I am told I must take a rest cure.

Faithfully

Mr. Paul Reynolds
599 Fifth Avenue
New York City