"Grumpy" is Play to be Given by Duzer-Du

Many Men Try Out for Places in Cast

"Grumpy," written through the combined efforts of Horace Hodges and P. Wigney Percyval, has been chosen by Duzer Du as the play to be presented this season by the club. Mere mention of the title will arouse no end of interest and enthusiasm in all those who know anything about this play. It is one which has completely won over the theatre-going public of this country and abroad, and ranks among the most popular plays of the day. From its very first presentation at the Theatre Royal in Glasgow, Scotland, in 1913, this typically English play has travelled over Europe and America. It was presented here for the initial performance in Wallack's Theatre, New York, in the year of 1914.

This four-act play is one in which clever turns and entangling situations abound, delightfully mingling with humor of no usual type. While it is essentially English in tone, the play appeals to all peoples, inasmuch as it contains universal truths and plights. In all points of the development the play is most realistic and natural, evidencing at no time boresome absurdities of human life.

"Grumpy" is an old retired criminal lawyer, who must give up a most successful career in active life to be nursed and humored by his grand daughter, Virginia, as well as by his faithful servants. Virginia is a most charming and vivacious element in Grumpy's comfortable household, and is a source of much satisfaction to her loving, "grumpy" old grandfather. Virginia is expected to marry "dear old Ernest," which she refuses to do until after a most unusual experience has been readized, an experience which alters the outlook very materially. To see Grumpy's fits of amusing consternation at his daughter, Mrs. Maclaren, servants, and all; to see Mr. Jarvis, a clever crook, wrap the household about his fingers for a time, but yet to be outwitted by old Grumpy; to see the murderous attack on Ernest in the dead of night; to see the humorous courtships between Keble and Susan—all these scenes and many more will delight those who see the presentation of "Grumpy."

The story deals with the robbery of a large uncut diamond and the detection of the thief through the consummate shrewdness of an old man. The robbery takes place in the house of Mr. Andrew Bullivant, or "Grumpy." The latter is bearing the gem to his employers in London, and is about to pass the night in the house of his uncle. Seated alone in the sitting room after all have retired, he is mysteriously set upon in the dark by an unknown assailant, rendered unconscious and relieved of the valuable stone. Through a white camelia, the stem of which has been tied with a woman's hair, with no other clue to guide him, the amusing old man, step by step, traces the perpetrator, fastens the guilt upon an unsuspected personage, and in the end makes him disgorge the gem, and so crowns the happiness of his nephew and granddaughter, who love each other.

About fifty men have tried out for the twelve places in the cast, a fact which in itself indicates the quality of the material which constitutes the final cast. Not only has the men's student body in general shown an unusual interest in dramatics, but the cast itself has been displaying exceptional enthusiasm and whole-heartedness in the few rehearsals which have been held thus far. Under the direction of Prof. Schultz and the able assistance of Prof. Thomas, rehearsals will be conducted continuously until the time for the public presentation.

The cast is as follows:

Mr. Andrew Bullivant (Grumpy)... .....Kenneth B. Fry, '24
Mr. Ernest Heron....M. L. Judd, '25
Ruddock.....Roscoe C. Dundon, '24
Mr. Jarvis.....Theodore Lorz, '24
Mr. Isaac Wolfe.....E. R. Davis, 24
Dr. Maclaren.....John H. Bozic, 23
Keble .....Theodore A. Siedle, '24
Merridew.....Not definitely assigned
Dawson.....Frank E. Reed, '25
Virginia....Daniel W. Steenken, '25
Mrs. Maclaren.Charles W. Havice, '24
Susan.....Not definitely assigned

With an excellent play to work on, with very capable coaches, and with a most promising cast, Duzer Du will undoubtedly have a most remarkable year.

COMMITTEE REPORTS ARE GIVEN AT Y. W. C. A.

CHAIRMAN OF EACH DEPARTMENT TELLS OF PROGRESS MADE DURING PAST YEAR.

At the Y. W. C. A. meeting on Sunday evening the annual reports of the various committees of the cabinet were given, followed by the election of Mrs. I. R. Beiler and Mrs. Charles J. Ling to the advisory board. The Y.W. which has been an important factor in the life of the girls at Allegheny during the past year was very capable directed by Clara Weller, president. It was announced that installation services of the cabine will be held next Sunday evening. Alice Grenelle is president-elect.

A summary of the reports given by the chairman of committees follows:

The membership committee, under the direction of Louise Hulin, vice-president, wrote letters to the new girls during the summer, and at the opening of college, met them at the trains and helped them register. The report showed that 184 girls are members of the association. The work of the Undergraduate Field Representative, Dorothy Leeper, consisted of attending to the correspondence with the National Board, and of representing the local association at the Undergraduate Field Committee meetings held at Eaglesmere in June and at Philadelphia in November. Frances Pitt, as chairman of the Devotional Committee made arrangements for the Sunday evening meeting. Many important outside speakers were secured as a result of the work of this committee. The raising of the money sent to the Isabelle Thoburn College in India was under the direction of Mary Henderson, as chairman of the World Fellowship Committee. This committee also instigated the weekly missionary study classes. The classes held by the Bible study committee, Sylvia Barnes, chairman, were a feature of the first part of the year. Perhaps the social service committee under the direction of Helen Shaffer is the most important of the committees. This committee sold tags to raise money for the Orphans' Home and made frequent visits to the County farm and Old Ladies' Home. Mary Gealy as chairman of the social committee had charge of the Y. W. C. A. reception, the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. reception, and the various teas held throughout the year. Special music for the Sunday evening meeting was furnished

BUCKNELL DEBATE HAS BEEN CANCELED

MOUNT UNION DEBATE IS THE ONLY REMAINING CONTEST FOR ALLEGHENY TEAM.

Due to various misunderstandings as to travelling arrangements, length of speeches and certain other matters, the debate with Bucknell University, scheduled for Friday evening, has been canceled. A laxity in correspondence on the part of the Bucknell managers kept arrangements in an indefinite state until it became too late to reach satisfactory agreements.

With the Bucknell engagement canceled, the Allegheny debaters will have but one more debate this season, that with Mount Union College, which will be held on Friday, May 12. This will be on the same question as the Bucknell contest was to have been, "Resolved, that the application of the principal of the closed (union) shop are for the best interests of the American people, constitutionality conceded."

OFFICERS ELECTED AT MEETING OF Y. M. C. A.

CARL T. BOYNTON IS NEW PRESIDENT OF ORGANIZATION.

With the election of a new cabinet last Wednesday night, the Y. M. C. A. began another year of activity at Allegheny, where it has had a marked influence in the lives of the men students for the past half century.

After a short song service, led by Mr. C. T. Boynton, President Larson opened the business session of the evening. Stating that the time had come for new officials to head the organization, he said he wished to take the opportunity to thank those who had so loyally assisted him during the past year. Mr. Larson added that the year which had just been brought to a close was a most trying one for the organization, but that he was confident the coming year would not meet with such discouraging conditions. Due to the recent subscriptions for the budget, the finances are in a much better state.

Election of officers was then ruled in order, and the following men were elected for the year: Carlyle T. Boynton, '23, President; Charles W. Havice, '24, First Vice President; C. Howard Wills, '23, Second Vice President; Frank W. Mason, '25, Secretary; Ralph H. Demmler, '25, Treasurer.

Also the following committee chairmen were elected: J. Edwin Larson, '23, Attendant; Walker Kinkaid, '24, Music; John H. Bozic, '24, Social; Emro J. Gergely, '23, Americanization; Milo M. Mook, '24, Publicity, and T. Stanley Thoburn, '23, Sunday School Deputation.

The new Cabinet will assume its duties on the first of May. At this time a complete financial report of the association will be compiled and published. According to the by-laws of the organization, this report must be audited by one member of the student senate and by one member of the faculty.

One of the matters which was discussed in the Cabinet session which followed the regular meeting, was the question of sending representatives from Allegheny to address high school students of Cattaraugus, N. Y., concerning college life in general. The following men, who were appointed at the meeting, will probably spend a week-end at Cattaraugus in the near future: J. E. Larson, C. T. Boynton, S. H. Carlson, E. R. Burdick and C. W. Havice. This action was taken as a result of an invitation extended by the Y. M. C. A. of that place.

COMBINED GLEE CLUBS TO RENDER CONCERT ON TUESDAY, MAY 2

PROGRAM IS IN CHARGE OF MR. J. A. M. STEWART AND MISS ALTA POSTANCE.

On Tuesday evening, May 2, at 8 o'clock, the combined Men's and Girls' Glee Clubs will give a concert in Ford Memorial Chapel. The program, in charge of Mr. J. A. M. Stewart, assisted by Miss Alta Postance, will consist of numbers by the combined clubs and selections by the separate clubs, interspersed by a reading and a double quartet contribution. The management for the girls is under the direction of Miss Eloise Fink and that for the men is under William E. Jordan. Tickets are 50 cents and may be obtained from any member of either club.

The concert will open with a rendition by the combined clubs of Thomas Elgar's famous "Pomp and Circumstance March," that stirring composition that is played at the coronation of the English sovereigns. Another outstanding selection to be given is Longfellow's "Village Blacksmith," set to music by Noyes. This piece, written especially for mixed voices, will be accompanied by both the piano and the organ. Mr. Kinkaid will be the pianist and Dr. H. W. Church will play the organ accompaniment.

In contrast to these two pieces, two quite different numbers will be sung which are designed primarily to bring out one quality and phrasing. The first of these is "My Love is Like a Red Rose," by G. M. Garrett, which will be given without accompaniment. The other is the beautiful "Auf Wiedersehn," from the well-known comic opera, "The Blue Paradise."

In addition to the numbers by the combined musical organizations there will be contributions by the clubs singly. The men will render H. R. Skelly's "De Coppah Moon," which wa so well received at their home con cert earlier in the season.

The other features of the program will be a reading by Miss Mildred Ellis, a double quartet number, the famous Italian song, "O Soli Mio," in addition to a piano solo by Walter Kinkaid, and a violin solo by Fred Smith.

College Mourns Death of Well Known Alumnus

Dallas Stephens, Class of 1920, Dies Suddenly in Pittsburgh

With the death of Dallas Malone Stephens, who passed away suddenly at his home in Wilkinsburg on Monday, April 10, the college lost one of its most promising alumni. The cause of death was pneumonia. He was a member of the 1920 graduating class and is well remembered by many of the present students and faculty. "Dal" had been a life long resident of Meadville and but recently moved from this city to take up the insurance business in Pittsburgh. He had been connected with life insurance since his graduation from college and his work promised every success. His death, coming as a complete surprise to his many friends, is deeply felt by the entire college, both students and alumni alike.

Dallas Stephens was born in Meadville twenty-five years ago. He attended the local schools and graduated from the college with the class of 1920. During his college career he was a leader and one of the most popular men on the campus. During the recent war he enlisted in the navy, where his superior qualities and unusual ability won for him a commission as ensign. He married last fall Miss Ruth Young, who was an Allegheny College girl, having been a member of the class of 1922. Miss Young is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Young, formerly of North Main street. After their marriage the couple resided in Meadville until recently, when they removed to Pittsburgh.

During his college years "Dal" was extremely active. His athletic ability was well demonstrated in his basketball work. He was on the basketball squad during his first two years and was a varsity man in his fourth year, playing the center position. "Dal" was a member of the college glee club during his second and third years and of the Modern Problems Club. He was a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. After his graduation from college he spent a great deal of time and effort collecting material and editing the book "Old Allegheny." This volume contains a complete description of the college, and a large amount of credit for the success of this publication is due to his excellent work.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ruth Young Stephens, two sisters, Mrs. J. M. Perkins and Mrs. J. E. McCullough, of Wilkinsburgh, and one brother, Rev. Frank W. Stephens, of Rockford, O.

SENIOR CLASS TO HAVE ALL-COLLEGE DANCE

The Senior Dance an all college affair will be held on Thursday, May 11th. The committee is busy with the arrangements and full particulars will be announced later. All indications promise to make this an extremely successful social event.

Founders' Day Exercises Held at Chapel Service

Newell Dwight Hillis, of Brooklyn, Gives Forceful Address to Large Assembly

Founders' Day was observed in Ford Chapel on Monday morning, when Dr. N. D. Hillis, of Brooklyn, presented to Allegheny students an address on "New Problems That Confront the Scholar in the Modern Christian College." Dr. Hillis proved to be a very forceful speaker and after being introduced by President Hexson, he gave an address which held the interest of the entire assembly.

In his introduction, Dr. Hillis gave the theme of his talk. He said that civilization is spun and woven of intellect and imagination, and that the greatest measure of progress in civilization is education. He mentioned three special problems that confront college students of the present day, the first of which was the element of illiteracy in the United States.

In the United States today there is an enormus increasing, rather than a decreasing percentage of illiteracy. there are twenty million of people in our country who can not write. In the scale of nations in literacy, the United States stands ninth. Switzerland, Denmark, Sweden, Holland, Great Britain and France are some of our superiors. While in Sweden and Persia only one person out of five thousand is unable to read or write, in the United States twenty out of fifty-five are illiterate. The high percentage in this country is due largely to the great foreign element. Dr. Hillis emphasized the fact that it is ignorance that ruins civilization. Ignorance of men has caused famine, floods, strikes and various kinds of trouble everywhere. At the present day, men will resort to any expedient to avoid the labor of thinking. The three most prevalent methods of education in America are methods requiring very little thinking. They are by means of moving pictures, bill boards and sensational headlines in newspapers.

The next problem that Dr. Hillis discussed was that of the slump in morals that has taken place. He said that this problem is one that should deeply concern everybody because it is through the moral life that progress is made. The only form of treasure that the state has is in its sons and daughters. Yet America is sadly illiterate in morals as well as in education. Last year there were ten thousand murders in the United States. In New York City alone, there were 360, which is six hundred in New York against nine in the city of London. Either the land is going back to the soul's golden day, the day of conscience, or else to a scrap heap of the universe. The former is a moral world representing the laws of God. The laws of God are not limitations to liberty, but are a great safeguard on every side, keeping men from plunging into sin. The measure of a man's greatness is the number of laws that he has mastered and obeys. The only path to sound morals and civilization lies in laws, and for the moment men seem to have forgotten laws.

Dr. Hillis took up as a third problem the question of Socialism. He said that Socialism may seem like a very small spark, but often it is the little spark that starts the large conflagration. By championing the socialistic cause, 891,000 people have voted to destroy the constitution of the United States. Dr. Hillis stated six points socialism stands for. They are: (1) in brief that there shall be no private property; (2) the abolition of courts; (3) the abolition of state legislature and all other government; (4) the abolition of every vestige of God and religion; (5) the community of women; and (6) the overthrow of political government by physical force and revolution if necessary. This movement tends to cut the nerve of individual enterprise and throw the responsibility of everything upon the state. While God is trying to make men grow by thinking, Socialism is taking the responsibility of thinking away from them.

Before the address of Dr. Hillis, the Men's Glee Club sang "Near the Vale" and "My Home Land."

CLUB ACTIVITIES FOR THE WEEK

DONALD C. THOMPSON SPEAKS AT MEETING OF HISTORY AND POLITICAL SCIENCE CLUB—OFFICERS ARE ELECTED.

Donald C. Thompson spoke on "The Organization and Jurisdiction of the Courts" at the meeting of the History and Political Science Club last Tuesday.

Mr. Thompson, who is a resident of Meadville, in discussing the various state courts, emphasized the importance of the Justice of the Peace courts. He also included in his talk a brief account of the organization of the United States courts.

Following the program, the club elected officers for the coming year. The elections were as follows: President, W. Melville Jones; Vice President, Katheryn C. Robins; Secretary, Harriet P. Titus; Treasurer, Margaret E. Hild.

Upon the invitation of Prof. and Mrs. Coleman, the members of the club will be guests at their home, 950 Grove street, for the next meeting.

The addition of several new volumes to the club library was announced. The new books include a

EDITORIAL

Now that the Easter vacation is over and with only six weeks of this semester remaining, the student body is beginning to look forward to the final examinations with terror, regret or pleasure, as the case may be. "If they didn't count so much" or "I wish they only counted one-third instead of one-half," are some f the remarks that are heard at examination time. The question arises, "Should final examinations count one-third?" The matter of marks has ever been a problem to teachers and a stumbling block to students. They may be classed as necessary evils, and because marks are necessary evils, examinations as a means of obtaining marks are likewise necessary. But in a class where it is possible to have classroom recitations, weekly or monthly quizzes, is seems unfair to have one examination at the end of the course count for one-half of the entire work. A student should be given credit for his daily work, for after all, by doing his daily work from day to day he must surely have a good understanding of his subject. Also, if examinations counted less, one-third for example, there would be less temptation for cramming, which all educators recognize as practically valueless. Many students would perform their work more faithfully each day and in the end derive more value from it.

On the other hand, some classes are very large, making recitations impossible and lectures the only advisable form of instruction. In such cases the fact is recognized that final examinations should play an important part, but, even here, would it not be possible to have short daily quizzes and monthly examinations, and thus obtain an estimate of the student's daily work, instead of waiting for one final examination at the end of the course?

Would it not be more fair that final examinations count one-third instead of one-half?

Success has crowned the efforts of Allegheny's Swimming Team.. Its victory over Thiel last week is commendable. We have made an excellent beginning in a new field of collegiate sport for Allegheny. It is to be hoped that a more extensive program in swimming tournaments will be featured next year and the years to come.

The importance of co-operation and industry in bringing about success in any enterprise can not be over emphasized. Seldom, if ever, has any great object been accomplished without them.

We are endeavoring at the present time to improve the athletic conditions in our college. A board has been elected to control and a graduate manager to recommend plans by which the desired results can be brought about There is, however, no magic power about a board of control or a graduate manager that can suddenly transform losing teams into winning combinations. Great teams do not arise spontaneously; they are developed by hard work on the part of the coach, willing and diligent appreciation of their task on the part of the players, and systematic support from the faculty, student body and town in which the college is located.

The gradutee manager is anxious to secure the co-operation and support of all the forces of the school and town in his efferts to accomplish the work before him. He especially urges and requests that the players of the various teams work diligently, enthusiastically and loyally—not for the individual glory they may receive, but for the honor of this, our revered and beloved college.

By S. S. TOWNSEND, Graudate Manager.

The death of Dallas Malone Stephens, of the Class of 1920, is felt deeply by the students and Alumni of Allegheny College. His active life, both during his college course and after, demonstrated his ability and promised for him a successful future. He can only be spoken of in the highest terms by all who knew him. The sympathy of the entire college goes out to his wife, Mrs. Ruth Young Stephens, and relatives in their bereavement.

ALUMNUS IS HONORED WITH TESIMONIAL DINNER

BIBLE CLASS HONORS MR. PAUL STURTEVANT, CLASS '99

Mr. Paul Sturtevant, '99 was the honored guest at a Testimonial Dinner given recently by the members of the Men's Bible Class of the Madison Avenue M. E. Church, New York City.

The dinner, which was planned many months ago, was for the purpose of expressing an appreciation for the valiant service Mr. Sturtevant had rendered in connection with the church during the past twenty-two years.

It is interesting to note that one of the principal speakers of the evening was The Rev. W. H. Crawford LL.D., President Emeritus of Allegheny, who gave a very appropriate address.

Mr. Sturtevant has long ben identified with the Sunday School teaching and in a comparatively short time has filled many important positions of administration. He was Superintendant Secondary Division 1911, Assistant General Superintendant 1912-16, General Superintendant 1917-18, President Epworth League 1902-5, Treasurer World's Sunday School Association 1920, Manager M. E. Hospital, Brooklyn, 1919 and has been an active trustee of several churches, Theological Seminaries and of Allegheny College. He has been a teacher of the Men's Bible Class, Madison Ave., M. E. Church since 1919.

Herman Melville makes the following statement in one of his novels: "In common life we esteem but meanly and contemptibly a fellow who anoints his hair * * *. In truth, a mature man who uses hair-oil, unless medicinally, that man has probably got a quoggy spot in him somewhere. As a general rule, he can't amount to much in his totality."

If Mr. Melville speaks with any good authority, we hope that what was true then is not true now.

ALLEGHENY TO BE REPRESENTED AT CONTEST

SIX COLLEGES WILL COMPETE IN INTERCOLLEGIATE CIVIC LEAGUE PROGRAM ON MAY 3.

Mortimer E. Graham, '22, will represent Allegheny in the Intercollegiate Civic League Oratorical Contest to be held in the Soldiers' Memorial Hall, Pittsburgh, on Wednesday morning, May 3, at 10 o'clock. Six colleges, Colgate, Pitt, Wooster, Washington and Jefferson, Ohio Wesleyan and Allegheny will have representatives in this contest. Chancellor Bowman, of the University of Pittsburgh, will be the presiding officer.

The subject for Graham's oration is "The Parting of the Way." It is largely a discussion of our present industrial problems in the light of the present open and closed shop drives. There is a possibility that the speaker will deliver his oration before the student body at the chapel service on May 2, but this is still undecided. The fact that Graham is an orator and debater of three years college experience gives reason for confidence that Allegheny will be creditably represented in this annual forensic classic.

AWARDS WILL BE GIVEN FOR WRITINGS

KENYON COLLEGE AND SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY OFFER PRIZES FOR BEST POEM AND ESSAY.

Spring has come at last. It's arrival is detected from the appearance of birds, buds, knickers and afternoon dates. The piano recital, held by a young musician in Cochran Hall assured the fact. But now one is positive, for the poets and writers are bursting forth again. To be specific, Kenyon College, at Gambier, Ohio, "in order to promote the better knowledge of one of the rarest achievements of American literature," offers a prize of $100 for the best essay written by any student in any American or Canadian College on "Sorgo," a Romance of Old Athens. Each contestant must submit three typewritten copies, not more than 4,000 words in length. These must reach Kenyon College not later than December 1, 1922.

Now for the aspiring poets. The Southern Methodist University offers a prize of $100 for the best poem of not more than 150 lines, any style, written by any student of any American college or university. These poems must reach Dallas, Texas, not later than May 15, 1922. They should be addressed to J. B. Hubbell, Professor of English, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas.

Here is an excellent opportunity for aspiring journalists to turn their unsuspected poetic ability into cash and also bring honor to their college.

by the Music Committee, and the upkeep of the scrap book fell to the Association News Committee, of which Sara McQuiston was the chairman. And last came the Day Student Committee whose duty is to take charge of the activities of the town girls as far as the Y. W. C. A. is concerned. Marie Charlton had charge of this work. The report of the treasury was read by Katherine Simmons and Mary Whitfield, secretary, told something of her work.

A brief summary of the main business of the Seventh National Y. W. Convention, which is being held this week at Hot Springs, Arkansas, was given by Frances Pitt. The questions of having national members, of extending the personal membership basis of city associations, of Student Industrial and Student-Rural co-operation, of amending the national constitution to assume more responsibility in promoting the aim of the World's Association are being discussed at this convention. For the first time, the National Student Assembly is holding meetings to discuss Christian problems peculiar to student associations. Among the best known people present at the covention are Mrs. Frederick Paiste, Mrs. Robert E. Spur, Mrs. John French and Miss A. Maude Royden.

It is expected that either the student field secretary, Miss Katherine L. Richards, or the delegate from the University of Pittsburgh, may come to Allegheny this spring to tell the local association more about the covention.

TANK TEAM WILL MEET OIL CITY

LOCAL SWIMMERS EXPECT VICTORY IN CONTEST WITH Y. M. C. A. TEAM ON FRIDAY EVENING.

Oil City Y. M. C. A. will provide the opposition for the Allegheny tank men next Friday evening. Elated over their first intercollegiate victory at Thiel College last Saturday the Blue and Gold fish will enter the Oil City meet determined to add another victory to their list.

The strength of the down-state team is unknown at this time, as it is also in the initial stages of development.

According to M. V. Wright, F. G. Travis, E. O. Black, K. B. Fry, R. A. Demmler, Griffing and Judd will probably comprise the local team for this meet.

Have you been thinking that old Bentley's bell rings automatically with the accuracy of your alarm clock? Did it ever occur to you that while you are waiting for the ten-minute bell or the warning bell, that someone is standing with a watch under his nose waiting for the minute hand to tell him when to hang on the ropes?

How would you like to be the official bell ringer? This article is to announce that if you have any aspirations it is too late for the College has employed a bell ringer who is now on duty. The job is not half as easy as it looks anyway. An attempted snooze between bells might lead to all kinds of campus chaos. Picture this situation. The official bell ringer has fallen asleep at his post. The class which is your biggest bore is running ten minutes overtime. You have been to a dance the night before. Your last name commences with H and the prof has just finished with the G's. Do you agree with us that hanging would be too mild for the sleeper?

Hou would you like to be the official bell ringer?

BIOLOGY CLUB.

There was a very interesting program given at the last meeting of the Biology Club, which was held at Alden Hall on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Miss Louise Hulin discussed "Fur-Bearing Animals," and Miss Roach explained the origin and life of the rodent. A talk on "Forestry" was delivered by Ira O. Fleming.

Following the discussions there was a short business meeting, in charge of the president.

BOOKS OF LITERARY INTEREST ARE REVIEWED AT CLASSICAL CLUB.

Interesting reviews of recent books of classical interest were given by Miss Edith Rowley at the meeting of the Classical Club Tuesday evening, April 18.

One of the Latin books reviewed was a biography of Virgil by Tenney Frank, who accords the reader an opportunity to interpret the poet's works in relation to his environment and experience. Another was "Andivius Haedulio," by Edward Lucas White. This book is an absorbing romance of Ancient Rome, which tells the adventures of a Roman nobleman in the days of the empire.

Some of the Greek books reviewed were the following: "The Greek Renaissance," by P. N. Ure; "Delphi," by Frederick Poulsen; Handbook of Greek Vase Painting," by Mary A. B. Herford," and "Discovery in Greek Lands," by F. H. Warshall.

Dr. C. F. Ross spoke briefly on the paper written by Prof. A. D. Fraser and published in the Art Bulletin of September, 1921, entitled, "The Age of the Extant Columns of the Olympieum at Athens."

Most of the books reviewed were kindly loaned by Prof. A. D. Fraser.

ALUMNI.

The Allegheny College Alumni Committee of Pittsburgh, composed of J. G. Klingensmith, '16; James W. Kinnear, '82; John L. Porter, '90; Dr. Edward B. Heckel, '87, and Miss Hazel Emery Evans, are furthering the campaign of Major David A. Reed, who is a candidate for United States Senator from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Allegheny Runners Are Defeated in Dual Meet

Fast Time Is Recorded in Dashes—McCreary Wins Two Events

Pitt overwhelmingly defeated Allegheny in track here last Saturday afternoon by a score of 85 1-2 to 40 1-2. The Panther victory was a foregone conclusion with Miller, McGowan, and Bliss out. However the visitors presented a well rounded squad and were especially strong in the field events. A cold chilly wind failed to dampen the ardor of the fans and a fair sized crowd was in the stands at 1:45 when the first call for the hundred yard dash was issued. Time for the various events was exceedingly fast considering the frigid weather conditions.

McCreary won the 100 and 220 in fine style with "Speedo" Laughran of Pitt pushing him to the limit in both. Brickley and Bender furnished the thrills in the hurdles, the Pitt man winning by a yard each time. Hayes, Allen, Hewitt, and Robusch were the other 10-point men of the afternoon and thus were very instrumental in amassing Pitt's total. Hewitt threw the hammer with such force that a shovel was required to dig the steel out of the soft field. In the high jump, Bobusch displayed perfect form and had no difficulty in taking premier honors.

Summary of events:

100 yard dash—McCreary (A) first, Laughran (P) second, Martin (P) third. Time 10.1.

1 mile run—Hago (P) first, Fawcett (P) second, Kirschner (A) third. Time 4.56.

220 yard dash—McCreary (A) first, Laughran (P) second, Pyle (P) third. Time 23.3.

120 yard high hurdles—Brickley (P) first, Bender (A) second, Eardly (P) third. Time 16.4.

440 yard dash—Allen (P) first, Wimmer (A) second, Pyle (P) third. Time 53.

2 mile run—Hayes (P) first, Carpenter (P) second, Reams (A) third. Time 11.12.

220 yard low hurdles—Brickley (P) first, Bender (A) second, Ellsworth (A) third. Time 27.3.

880 yard run—Allen (P) first, Fawcett (P) second, Wimmer (A) third. Time 2.08.

Pole Vault—Robusch (P) first, Taylor (A) second, Small (P) and Moore (A) tied for third place. Height 9ft, 9 in.

Shot put—Thornton (P) first, Hewitt (P) second, Murdock (P) third. Distance 39 ft. 10 in.

High jump—Robusch (P) first, Judd (A) second, Crumrine (A) third. Height 5 ft. 8in.

Discus throw—Hewitt (P) first, Capers (P) second, Agnew (A) third. Distance 112ft. 8in.

Hammer throw—Hewitt (P) first, Cunningham (A) second, Murdock (P) third. Distance 144ft. 5in.

Broad jump—Crumrine (A) first, Capers (P) second, Moore (A) third. Distance 19ft. 8 1-2in.

Timers—Fahr, Andrews and Gilbert.

Judges—Church, Hill and Doty.

Starter—Dr. R. E. Lee.

Announcer—Cullom.

ALLEGHENY SWIMMERS WIN FROM THIEL

WRIGHT AND TRAVIS ARE HIGHEST POINT-GETTERS FOR LOCAL TEAM.

Allegheny's first tank team was successful in winning its first intercollegiate swimming meet by defeating Thiel College, of Greenville, by a 38 1-2 to 20 1-2 score, in Thiel's tank last Saturday evening. It was the second meet for Thiel, and resulted in its second defeat, the first being administered by the University of Pittsburgh.

Vic Wright and Travis were the mainstays of the Allegheny team, both placing first in several events. Wright was the final man on the Blue and Gold relay team; took first place in the 50-yard free style; first in the 50-yard back stroke, and second in the 100-yard swim. Bauer was Thiel's best man.

Summary of events:

200-yard relay—First, Allegheny (Travis, Black, Fry, Wright); time, 2:32.

Fancy dive—First, Bauer (Thiel); second, Fry (Allegheny); third, Travis (Allegheny).

50-yard free style—First, Wright (Allegheny); second, Bauer (Thiel); third, Travis (Allegheny). Time—29.1.

Plunge dive—First, Griffing (Allegheny); second, Lohman (Thiel); third, tie between Fuller (Allegheny) and McCoy (Thiel). Distance, 47 feet.

200-yard swim—First, Travis (Allegheny); second, Bauer (Thiel); third, Lohman (Thiel). Time—2:39.

100-yard swim—First, Travis (Allegheny); secand Wright (Allegheny); third, Burkman (Thiel). Time—16:1.

50-yard backstroke—First, Wright (Allegheny); second, Bauer (Thiel); third, Black (Allegheny). Time—40:3.

We can remember the time when a good church member could fall down the cellar steps if he wanted to, without starting the neighbors to talking.

TENNIS SEASON OPENS SOON

BEST TEAMS IN TRI-STATE DISTRICT ARE ON SCHEDULE

One of the best tennis schedules that Allegheny has had in some years will be the one which opens at home on the 12th of May. Those who see the team in action will undoubtedly see some of the best tennis playing that has been exhibited here since the time of the Castle brothers. This brand of tennis will be necessary in order to be able to uphold the reputation that the teams of the past have established for Allegheny.

The teams which are on the schedule include the best in the tri-state district including Carnegie Tech, the tri-state champions of last year.

The system that will be used this year in picking the team will be entirely by challenging. Any man wishing to try for a place on the team will challenge one of the members of last years team. Two defeats will be necessary to eliminate a man from completion. The challenges should be handed to Manager Bittner and he will assign the playing. The members of last years team to be challenged will be Flint, Cochran, Clarke, Coale and Bittner. It is necessary to run this system of elimination because of the short time remaining before the first match. All men who wish to enter the competition must have handed their names to the manager by noon on Thursday, April 27.

The schedule is as follows:

May 5—West Virginia, at home.
May 12—Wash & Jeff., at home.
May 19—Carnegie Tech, at home.
May 23—Univ. of Pittsburgh, home.
May 27—Wash & Jeff., Washington.
May 30—Penn State, State College.
May 31—Westminster, New Wilmington.
June 3—Thiel, Greenville.
June 5—Carnegie Tech, Pittsburgh.
June 6—Univ. of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh.
Commencement week—Alumni, at home.

BASEBALL SCHEDULE HAS BEEN COMPLETED

NEW EQUIPMENT PURCHASED BY COLLEGE FOR USE DURING THE COMING SEASON.

With the Phi Delt-Chi Rho game on last Friday afternoon, the inter-fraternity baseball season was given its send-off. From indications it appears that even a longer list of exciting and interesting contests will be staged this year on Montgomery Field than last season. Nine teams will compete for the championship, which was won by the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity last season.

The schedule as arranged calls for five games a week to be played, continuing the playing season right up to the spring examinations. With the schedule as it now stands there is but one day a week on which to play off games which may have to be postponed on account of wet grounds; it also makes it impossible to postpone scheduled games for any other reason. The teams will have to play on the dates set or forfeit the game.

The two last teams will play for the championship of the college on Commencement Day just as was done last year.

During the Easter vacation the field was rolled, the backstop was put up and the diamond marked out. A new set of bases, a new catcher's protector and other equipment have been purchased. The appropriation which the college makes allows a new ball to each fraternity at the start of the season and one new ball a game; this ball goes to the fraternity which wins the game.

D. J. Murphy, '22, has been active, as in past years, in promoting the league. He has rendered invaluable service in arranging details and will take charge of the schedule from the students' end. Each team is to play every other one and the championship will be determined on the percentage basis.

All in all, the season promises to be the best that the college has witnessed since the old days of varsity baseball.

The schedule is printed below, the first game to start at 3 p. m.:

April 20—
Beta Upsilon vs. Non-Fraternity.
April 21—
Delta Tau Delta vs. Phi Gamma Delta.
Phi Delta Theta vs. Alph Chi Rho.
April 22—
Phi Kappa Psi vs. Beta Upsilon.

PHI DELTS ARE WINNERS IN OPENING GAME 9-3

Inter-fraternity baseball season was opened on Friday afternoon by a game between Phi Delta Theta and Alpha Chi Rho. The Phi Delts took this first game by a 9 to 3 score. Fair baseball was displayed in this contest considering that it was the first game of the year. Loomis, doing the mound duty for the Phi Delts, was successful in getting himself out of a hole on several occasions. With the bases full, Loomis rose to the occasion and prevented the men from scoring. Both Loomis and Deveney, who pitched for the Chi Rho's, played good baseball.

The Phi Delts scored three runs in the seventh inning.
