Young by practical experience has discovered the difficulty of getting action through political leadership. In speaking before the Trustees of Walter Hines Page School he said, - Page 8 of Robinson.

At Bryn Mawr in 1928 he said - Page 9 of Robinson.

It is in this paragraph that he says that politics cannot enter into business operations and enjoy at one and the same time an insulated iisolation and an international market. You cannot go abroad and stay at home is the gist of it.
