June 8, 1922.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Would you have the great kindness to grant a few minutes to one who wishes to come to talk with you.

You do not know me - but perhaps you have heard mentioned of my name when my childhood diary was printed in the Atlantic Monthly in the spring of 1920. I do not think that you have seen my other book.

Will you be in

New York City any time during the latter part of June - especially between June 14th & June 21st. I expect to be in New York during a part of this time. If you were able to see me for a few minutes I would be most happy and most grateful. There are so many things I wish to talk with you concerning but I would be most careful not to take of your time.

Your Sincere Friend,
Opal Whitely
