Consolidated Relief Drive Runs March 1 Through 6

The annual Consolidated Relief Fund drive on the Allegheny campus will be conducted from March 1 through March 6, Hugh Crawford, committee chairman announced recently. The drive is sponsored by the Allegheny Undergraduate Council.

Many new features have been organized to raise the funds this year. A hat-checking service was initiated at the Allegheny-Buffalo basketball game Saturday, February 14, and will continue throughout the remainder of the basketball season. An exhibit at the Reis Library will have information concerning the aims of the drive and the uses to which the money will be put. This display starts February 23. At an admission-free basketball game between the Allegheny J.V.'s and the Kiski team Saturday, February 21, tags will be sold for the benefit of the Consolidated Relief.

Sound movies of the Army-Navy game will be shown in the Playshop the afternoon and evening of March 2. Hugh stated that the admission would probably be fifteen cents.

The exact date for the double header basketball game is still indefinite. One game will feature the two contending teams for the intermural league crown. The other will be an Allegheny faculty team versus another fraternity uintet.

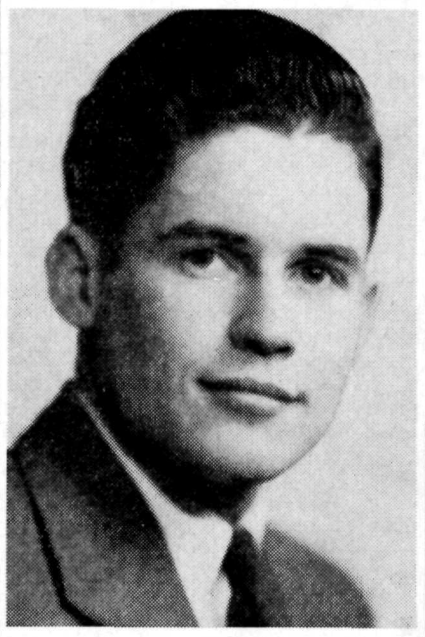

World Fellowship banquets will be held March 3 at both Brooks and Cochran dining rooms. Miss Olga Rukavina, a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh in 1947, will be the after dinner speaker at Brooks. Miss Rukavina will give a first-hand report of conditions in Europe at the present time. She has traveled extensively over the continent, spending most of her time in Gwatt, Switzerland. The committee is contemplating a speaker for Cochran.

The biggest fund-raising scheme and the finale for the week is the All-College Carnival to be held in Montgomery gymnasium, March 6 at 7 p.m. Esther McFayden is chairman for the Carnival committee.

In addition to these special entertainments, every person in Allegheny will be asked to make a contribution to the fund. A solicitor has been selected from each sorority and each fraternity to serve on a canvassing committee. This committee will be rounded out by additional solicitors from independent associations and various clubs on the campus. Their goal is 100% contribution by every person on the Allegheny campus.

The general committee for the Relief Drive is comprised of Hugh Crawford, chairman; plus Constance Callahan, Virginia Claxton, Jeanne Dahlquist, James Feisley, Pat Kiser, Frank Pollard, Bill Rylander, and Marilyn Schreiber.

"With the combined efforts of the committees and the variety of plans," Hugh stated, "we expect the Consolidated Relief Fund drive to be an even greater success than last year."

Red Cross Campaign Scheduled March 2 to 8

The annual American Red Cross campaign will be held on this campus through March 2-8, it was announced by Jean Sayers, chairman of the campus chapter of the Red Cross. Dean Jabez L. Bostwick, campus director, and Mr. Jack McFarland, educational director, are the officials on this campus for the Red Cross.

The Meadville chapter of the Red Cross is sending Jean Sayers and Florence Brownell, to the Eastern Area Conference of College Units of the American Red Cross to be held at Washington, D.C., from February 18-22.

The Meadville Chapter is also going to sponsor a home nursing class for students on this campus if there is a minimum of twenty people who are interested in a course of this sort. The instructor will be Mrs. Szczygiel, and the first meeting will be held on Wednesday 25 at 7 in the Independent rooms on the fourth floor of Brooks. If twenty people are present, a class will be held and a more suitable time will be decided upon. Those who have enrolled for the class are asked to bring 60c with them to buy a Red Cross Home Nursing book. Anybody who is interested in home nursing is invited to attend the first meeting. Regular attendance is required.

The Red Cross nutrition course which was formerly held on Thursdays at 7:30 in Arter 11 will now be held on Wednesdays at 7 in Arter 11.

Senate, Senior Court Name AWS Nominators

In an all day session of Senate and Senior Court last Sunday the following women were selected to serve on the A.W.S. nominating committee:

Senior
- Mary Louise Fulton
- Shirley Carlson

Junior
- Henrietta Bernhardt
- Martha Hopper

Sophomore
- Marilyn Schrieber
- Constance Callahan

Freshman
- Castella Heskamp
- Carol Sholle

By careful selection and consideration one representative from each sorority, one independent woman and two members of the freshman class were appointed by Senate and Senior Court in joint session. Deanne Blyth, president of A.W.S., will act as ex-officio member of this committee and preside as chairman.

The function of the committee is to draw up slates for the following offices of the Associated Women Students:

Three or four incoming seniors for president. (The second highest in election shall be vice-president.)

Two or three incoming juniors for recording secretary.

Two or three incoming juniors for treasurer.

Two or three incoming sophomores for corresponding secretary.

Five from each of the incoming sophomore, junior and senior classes for Senate representatives.

Additional nominations may be made by presentation to the president of A.W.S. of a petition signed by 50 A.W.S. members, no more than 10 of which shall be of the same social group as the nominee. Petitions must be given to the president within 48 hours after the presentation of the original state. No person may sign more than one petition for the same office.

Wakefield Contest Takes Place Tomorrow

Continuing a tradition of thirty years, the annual Wakefield Oratorical Contest will take place tomorrow evening at 8:10 p.m. in the Playshop. The several contestants were chosen on the strength of 2000 word essays submitted to the speech department. The contest is open only to upperclassmen. Some of the topics to be discussed are: divorce, propaganda analysis, and communism. The winner of the contest will represent Allegheny in the Pennsylvania Oratorical Contest which will be conducted on this campus March 5 and 6 with 24 colleges competing.

Prizes of $15, $10 and $5 will be awarded to the first, second and third place winners of the Wakefield Contest.

Judges for the event are Mr. William C. Lawton, Mr. Glenn Timmons and Miss Adelaide DeMaison. Miss DeMaison is a member of the Meadville High School faculty in the English department.

The contest was begun thirty years ago with prize money dipped from a $900 fund given to the school by James Wakefield. Mr. Wakefield was a prominent orator as an Allegheny student. Several years after he had graduated he gave the $900 as a fund for oratorical contests to perpetuate the activity in which, he had participated. The Fund has come down to the present time, being supplemented by the Philo-Franklin Union.

John Hruby Replaces Arlene Grendahl

Mr. John Hruby is replacing Miss Arlene Grendahl in the Speech Department this semester. Illness prevented Miss Grendahl from returning to Allegheny.

Mr. Hruby received his Bachelor of Arts degree in the Speech and Drama Department at Carnegie Tech. He also attended Western Reserve University and earned his Master of Arts and Master of Fine Arts degrees there. Mr. Hruby's teaching experience includes a year at the Glouchester School of the Theater in 1936. He was at the King Park School of the Theater in 1938, 1946 and 1947. He was technical director at the Youngstown Playhouse from 1938 to 1941 and saw service in the Army from 1941 to 1946. Mr. Hruby's work here consists of instructing the Speech I classes formerly taught by Miss Grendahl.

A replacement for Mr. Paul Giddens could not be secured and his classes have been divided among the other instructors. Mr. Giddens, head of the social studies department, is now on leave to write a history of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana.

Riding Classes Now Available to Men

Two riding classes are open for any men who have finished their physical education requirement. They will meet at 1:30 and 3 Tuesday and Thursday; the 3 o'clock class will be for those men who have never ridden and the 1:30 class will be for those men who have never ridden and the 1:30 class will be for those who have some riding ability. A $15 fee will be charged for the course. Those men interested are to see Mr. Alfred Werner in the men's physical education department, and obtain a permit to be signed by their parents.

Children's Play Is Given At Playhouse Performance

The first Playshop production of the semester is a children's show entitled "Birthday Buddy". Written by Barbara Webb, this play will be presented February 26-28.

When a little boy wants a train for his birthday, a prancing puppy won't console him. The play tells of the boy, Jay's, dream about the train he didn't get.

College students in the cast include Renee Binder as Mrs. Lynn; Cosmo Catalano as Mr. Lynn; Lorry Shaul, nurse; Melvin Gerseny, H.M.; and John Waite, Keeper of the Comic Book.

Children taking part in "Birthday Buddy" are Bob Isherwood, Jay; Bob Growald, Eddie; Frances Kirkpatrick, first courtier; James Shoui, Keeper of the Cake; Jimmy Bird, Keeper of the Cookies; Derry Bird, Keeper of the Soda; Bobby Stein, Keeper of Peanut Butter Sandwiches; Gary Cordier, Keeper of the Candy Stick.

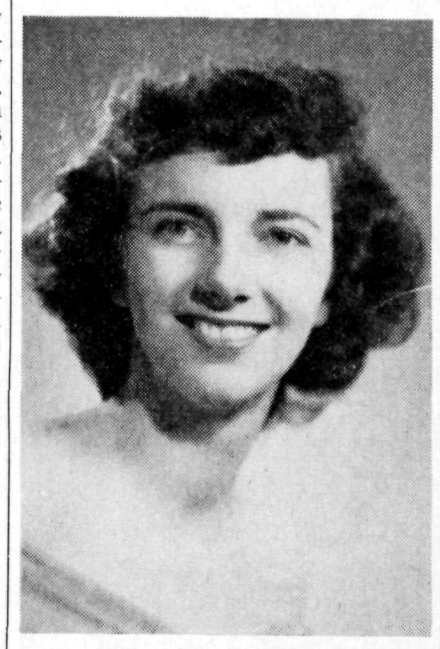

The children are all members of the drama department's Saturday theater classes. Others who are acting as courtiers and ladies include John Kent, Bob Reynolds, Don Gerhart, Harold Thurston, Beverly Dunn, Nancy Griggs, Nancy Silverman, Linda Bolard, and Renee Badner.

Another newcomer making his debut on the Playshop stage is Rascal Swick, Jay's dog.

Mrs. Graham Gloster Bird is directing the production. Authoress, Barbara Webb, is assistant director. The set was designed by Cosmo Catalano. Mary Elizabeth Thoma and Jo Smith designed the costumes. Stage manager is Gerald Liebman and Peter Prodan is in charge of lighting.

The opening performance of "Birthday Buddy" at 4:30 Thursday afternoon, February 26, will be open to college students. The rest of the shows at 4:30 and 7:30 on Friday and at 2 on Saturday are all paid performances.

"Arabian Night" Chosen As All-College Carnival Theme

Esther McFayden

Plans are well underway for the annual all-college carnival to be given in Montgomery gymnasium on March 6, according to Esther McFayden, general chairman. Proceeds will go to the Consolidated Relief Drive.

As in former years, the carnival will have many booths all of which will be decorated in accordance with the motif. This year the general theme will be "Arabian Nights" and the various refreshment and novelty concessions will depict a Persian market scene. It is expected that there will be about thirty booths sponsored by the fraternities, sororities, campus organizations and resident houses. In conjunction with the carnival, a variety show written by Joel Rosenblum, and cast with college talent, will be presented in the Playshop. Last year a comparable show, "My Kind of Woman" was produced by Paul Bantz and was received with wide acclaim.

Esther's assistant will be George Henderson. Other appointments made are the committee heads: decoration, Joe Backus; finance, Elgin MacConnell; booth, Jonathan Sandberg; entertainment, Richard Schaefer; clean-up, Roger Bailey; publicity, Sally Miller.

"Four-Twenties" Feature Well-Known Composers

"Four-Twenties," the half hours of recorded music daily in the Craig Room of the Library will be continued in the second term until the Easter vacation. The program for the week of February 18-24 has again been arranged by James D. Boulger.

Since the "Four-Twenties" were inaugurated on November 12, 45 programs have been given with a total attendance of 817. Such evidence of interest in recreational music has been most gratifying to the sponsors of the programs. Librarian, Philip M. Benjamin, will be happy to receive any requests for programs.

The program for this week is as follows:

Wednesday, February 18—
Chopin: Ballades
Alfred Cortot, piano
Strauss: Death and Transfiguration
Philadelphia Orchestra
Leopold Stokowski, conductor

Thursday, February 19—
Brahms: Symphony No. 1 in C Minor
New York Philharmonic Orchestra
Arturo Rodzinski, conductor

Friday, February 20—
Mozart: Divertimento No. 17 in D Major
The Lener String Quartet, with Aubry and Dennis Brain, horns

Monday, February 23—
Sibelius: Symphony No. 5
New York Philharmonic Orchestra
Leopold Stokowski, conductor

Tuesday, February 24—
Mozart: Sonata in D Major
Sonata in F Major
Robert Casadesus, piano
Quintet in D Major for Strings
Budapest String Quartet

Costume Design Exhibit at Library

The Traphagen School of Fashion of New York City is running an exhibit of modern costume design at the Reis Library, February 9-23.

The exhibit includes adaptations for the trade, textiles, research in historic costume, interior decoration, advertisements, and examples of the work of present and former Traphagen students. Also included is a costumed fashion manikin.

This exhibit should be of special interest to students planning to enter fashion designing or schools of fashion. With the samples is literature concerning the Traphagen School, its enrollment, courses, and history.

The next display at Reis Library will be original pencil sketches by Honore Gilbeau. They were done for the Heritage Press edition of "Hajji Baba of Ishpan."

Faculty Committee Examines "A" Courses

Since many complaints have come up concerning the general education courses, more commonly referred to as the "A" courses, a faculty committee has been appointed to investigate and evaluate the courses and will try to endeavor what to do about them in the future, Acting-president Chester A. Darling disclosed recently.

The courses were set up for the purpose of giving a course of study that would enable each graduate of Allegheny to have had some training in all of the arts. It is the purpose of the committee now to find if the courses are fulfilling this plan and to make suggestions as to how the courses should be changed where they feel changes are necessary.

This survey will be quite extensive and will probably cover a rather extensive period of time.

Sunday Night Opera Heard At Library

EVENINGS AT THE OPERA will be the special feature of the Sunday night programs in the Craig Room of Reis Library for the next five weeks. The "opera season" will open with a performance of Mozart's delightful comic opera of the trials and tribulations of Don Juan. The Glyndebourne Festival Opera Company, with such famous soloists as Salvator Baccaloni and John Brownlee, will present Don Giovanni. The opera will begin at 7 o'clock, and refreshments will be served at intermission.

The following Sunday, February 29, Gounod's Faust will be presented by the Paris Opera Company.

In March, the La Scala Opera Company will present Verdi's Aida, and the Bayreuth Festival Opera Company will present Wagner's Tristan and Isolde.

On Palm Sunday evening, the new recording of Handel's Messiah, made by the Huddersfield Choral Society, Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra, organ, and soloists, will be played.

Younger Leaves Allegheny; Works For New York Firm

Paul H. Younger, director of admissions and assistant to President Chester A. Darling, will leave Allegheny March 1 when he will assume a counseling position with a New York City public relations firm, it was announced recently by the administration.

After having served in various administrative capacities at this school since his graduation here in 1931, Mr. Younger is to become a member of the counselor's staff of Marts and Lundy, Inc., counselors in public relations and fund raising for educational and philanthropic institutions.

A special committee composed of the president, deans and faculty representatives will take over the duties of the vacated admissions post, Dr. Darling said, until that time when a new director is appointed. Mr. Younger has served in this capacity for the past ten years and previously worked as a field representative, a personnel counselor and in 1945 assistant to the late Pres. J. Richie Schultz.

Although he will be working out of the New York office of Marts and Lundy, he and his family will continue to maintain a residence in Meadville, Mr. Younger stated.

After a conference with Meadville public school officials he decided to continue as a member of the school board, "at least until I feel that my new position is interfering with service to the board."

Active in community groups since he moved to Meadville from Pittsburgh in 1932, Mr. Younger is a member of the Meadville Round Table, chairman of the finance committee of the Stone Methodist Church, vice-president of the board of directors of Meadville City hospital and vice-president of the Meadville Kiwanis club.

He is also vice-president of the public relations branch of Methodist Educational institutions and a member of the Association of College Registrars, the American College of Public Relations Association, Alpha Chi Sigma chemistry fraternity, and Phn Gamma Delta Social fraternity.

Prominent Historian To Speak On Lincoln

Dr. Benjamin P. Thomas, who is rapidly gaining fame as a literary historian, will speak twice on Thursday, February 26. He will meet in an informal discussion at 2:30 p.m. in the Lincoln Room of Reis Library about the histories and biographers of Abraham Lincoln to those people who are interested in Lincoln, the Civil War period or writing. Thursday evening Dr. Thomas will speak in the Playshop at 8:15 p.m. on the topic, "Our Lincoln Heritage from Ida Tarbell."

In Dr. Thomas' most recent and highly praised book, "Portrait for Posterity," one chapter is devoted to the extensive writings of Ida Tarbell, Allegheny graduate and pioneer in the study of the life of Abraham Lincoln. Dr. Thomas spent a week on the campus in the summer of 1946 going over the 4,000 letters on file in Reis Library from Miss Tarbell's collection that she wrote and received while doing research work. In the preface to this book Dr. Thomas acknowledges the help received from Mr. Phillip M. Benjamin.

After receiving his Ph.D. from Johns Hopkins, Dr. Thomas taught history for three years at Birmingham Southern College. He then moved to Springfield and the Abraham Lincoln Association, and during this period published his "Lincoln's New Salem," whose popularity is evident from the 20,000 copies in circulation. The business world attracted him in 1936 and he devoted his time from then until he examined the Tarbell manuscripts in real estate and in managing a livestock farm. Even today he spends two days a week at his farm overseeing the care of his pure-bred Polled Hereford cattle and Duroc hogs.

Dr. Thomas is at present writing about abolition.

Carnival Adds Original Musical

In cooperation with this year's "Carnival", the playshop is presenting "Hotel Musicale", an original musical stage comedy in three acts, written by Joel Rosenblum, '49, and directed by George Ross. There will be two shows presented on the evening of March 6. Fuller and more detailed descriptions of the show will appear in subsequent issues of the CAMPUS.

Jensen Speaks About Far East

"These Americans don't understand much about the real problems of life; do they?" was the key-note of Dr. Anders Kristian Jensen's introductory remarks as he spoke with a group of faculty, students, and townspeople on phases of United States relations in the Far East Monday evening.

Dr. Jensen has recently returned from Korea where he has served as a missionary for the past twenty years. Combining practical realism with idealism, Dr. Jensen focused his attention primarily upon Korea. The people on the other side of the world aren't "against Americans" . . . they are simply disappointed with us when we don't live up to the high democratic ideals which we have spread about ourselves, Dr. Jensen stated.

Giving a brief picture of existing conditions in Korea under dual Russian and American control, Dr. Jensen explained that it is difficult for the people to comprehend the differences between Russian communal organization and the apparent non-organization of the American portion. It is equally difficult to reach the people in Southern, or American Korea, for they are disposed to consider their countrymen who speak for the United States as "collaborators", and but few Americans speak Korean. The missionaries presently act in the capacity of ambassadors for America.

How is this morale of Korea and other Eastern nations to be restored or rebuilt? In Japan, this problem is indeed a grave one. In Korea, however, the future is considerable brighter. The solution to the problem of aiding these nations in a material way as well that of reconstructing their national psychology may sound much more simple than it actually is. Dr. Jensen assures us that the difficulties confronting our efforts in these directions are manifold. Perhaps the best thing is to prevent them from hearing overpublicized news stories of Washington tiffs and also to hold out to them the guarantee that America will "hang on."

At one time, the Russians offered to leave Northern Korea, providing the Americans would also evacuate the Southern portion of the nation. "Let them leave!" said the Koreans. The only alternative for the American occupation forces was to prepare to leave; immediately public demonstrations of all types assured the Americans that Korea actually wished them to stay. In spite of much disappointment, America is yet the hope of the Koreans. They need to know that they can depend upon the hope that we can hold out to them. Dr. Jensen asserted that although various nations are in dire need of aid from "the richest country in the world," it is not the quantity of this aid so much as the assurance that they may continue to depend upon this help which will reassure Korea and other nations of the world.

Expanding his theme of Monday evening from a slightly different viewpoint, Dr. Jensen spoke at assembly today on the topic, "Our Stake in the Far Eastern World Problem."

Social Whirl

Well, we're back and getting into our own private ruts again—kind of nice though, but tests start again next week.

The town alumnae fed the Alpha Xi seniors Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Jackson.

The Alpha Gams wish to announce that Marge Cochran cracked up after semester finals. We all send our sympathy to Marge and her broken leg. We also send our sympathy to Hope Rowan, who lost her roommate at semesters, but we know Doris is happy.

Portia Gott, '47, visited the campus this weekend.

The Kappa seniors also were fed by their town alumnae. It seems to be all the rage this season. So they wouldn't have to wait in that long lunch line, the Kappas had lunch in their rooms Monday.

On Thursday night the Thetas had a big feed in their rooms.

We want to congratulate the Phi Gams on their successful debut into the social life on campus. Friday night under a ceiling of pink and white streamers danced many girls who were happy to see the inside of the house again. The chaperons were Miss Agnes Kollitz, Mr. William Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Younger. Guests were Miss Laila Skinner, Dr. Edward A. Ogilvie and Mr. and Mrs. John McFarland.

The theme was Sweethearts and there were many at the Phi Delt House Friday night. Chaperoning the sweethearts were Miss Laila Skinner, Dr. E. A. Ogilvie and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson.

Formal initiation was held Monday. The new initiates are Loyal Moore, Cliff Skinner, Per Klippgen, Tor Dahlstrom, Ken Allison, Corky Bonner, Bill Vaughn, Jeff Hopper, Howard Schlitt, Bill Utburg, Sam Brahm, Don Rupert, Dave Meehan, Dick Rossbacher, Dick Hileman, Gene McClure.

War struck Meadville Sunday in the form of the Phi Psi barrel roll. We hope that there weren't too many patients for Dr. Robert Byers.

Formal initiation was held Saturday. The initiates are Henry Bauer, Will Bowlus, Jim Brahm, Tom Coates, Robert Cook, Dick Carlson, Charles Cochener, Mark Funk, Howard Funk, Bob Fulton, Al Krall, Don Lundell, Dick Neithamer, Lyle Peterson, Jim Pond, Dick Price, Dick Scibetta, Paul Shroads, Dick Simmons, Russ Spanard, Bob Teitt, Dick Welsh, Reg Wilson, B. A. Wright, Bob Zuberbuhler, Bob Brydon.

There was a parade Sunday morning. Did you notice? The Sigs all went to church to start the new semester out right. Sunday afternoon they opened their house and played host to the whole campus. Miss Minerva Club poured and Miss Ludwig and Miss Hummer were chaperons.

The Sigs also had initiation Sunday. The initiates are Dave Barnes, Dick Edstrom, John Hobson, Bill Roher, Jim Sheridan, Lee Pyron, Art Craig, Dick Conrad. They have also pledged Jack Potter, Walt Strahl, Wally Kingora.

The Theta Chi's had election of officers and the results found John Bowles as president; vice president, Harry Marshall; Dick Hartung, treasurer; secretary, George Hartung.

J-V's Face Kiski In Benefit

Along about this time of the basketball season every year, certain die-hards make with the criticism of the players and the coach. Forgetting all the previous hard-won victories, they launch into tirades about losses and inferior performances, which proves exactly nothing. To us, the existence of such foul balls in the world of sport constitutes a menace that should be discouraged by every true Alleghenian. When students hear such talk, a simple, "What have you contributed?", will soon direct the conversation to other more pleasant topics.

Our bid for a future all-time Allegheny swimming great is a burly lad that still has two years of competition left—Virgil Sayre. And we also believe that somewhere in the offing a new record in the 100-yard race is waiting for Virg. The Meadville merman turned in a sparkling performance last Saturday when he set one pool record, anchored the relay group to another and stroked in first in the 60-yard dash. Three for three adds up to a thousand percent in any league!

* * * * * *

And while we're talking about outstanding athletes, don't forget the latest addition to the Allegheny family, the Norwegian skier, Per Klippgen. You can take our word for it, or else you can ask the outstanding waxed-hickory artists in the East, but Klippgen is a champion in his own field. Per showed his heels on two occasions recently when he established himself as a leading skier in the country by winning one big race and placing third in another. The complete details are available elsewhere on this page, while those of the student body who want to know more about the likable Scandinavian, will find an interesting feature on him in next week's Campus.

One thing seems to lead to another today, but mentioning Klippgen brings to mind other foreign students who do not have the benefits that we Americans have. In this connection, Consolidated Relief, a worthy organization that aids these foreign students, is sponsoring a tag day this Saturday in conjunction with the Allegheny Junior Varsity-Kiski Prep basketball game. The contest will start at three o'clock, but purchase of a tag is NOT necessary for entrance. Let's get behind the J-V squad and Consolidated Relief on Saturday and give them both a boost with the same tag.

After last Wednesday's game between the Sigs and the Phi Psis, Bob Trumpeter and Corky Gourd are wondering if basketball is a non-personal contact sport or not!

Intramural news is abundant this issue, but here are a few items that pertain to the overall picture. A handball tourney is currently underway with all fraternities and the Independent Men engaged in first-round matches. These must be completed by February 26th.

Next week swimming will occupy the spotlight as the preliminaries are run off on the 23rd, the semi-finals on the 25th, and the finals on February 27th.

Tie Case 33-33 . . .

Tankers Set Three Marks

Three new pool records were set as Allegheny and Case swam to a 33-33 deadlock in the Montgomery Gym pool Saturday. Coach Hanson's proteges fell behind before the final event, but tied the score by gaining seven points in the 400-yard relay. In doing so, the combination of Ken Smith, Bill Byham, Howie Schlitt, and Virg Sayre lowered the pool record for that event to 3:58, a reduction of four tenths of a second.

Virgil Sayre was the most effective Allegheny swimmer. He set a new pool record of 31.4 seconds in the 60-yard freestyle and easily won the 100-yard dash, trailed by Captain Ken Smith of Allegheny.

Strong backstrokers kept Case ahead as they gained a half-length lead in the medley relay and later collected eight points in the 150-yard backstroke event. The Case breaststroker did something which has been done just once before this season: he beat both Davis and Baum in their event. Steve Davis, who holds the pool record for the event, was not up to par, since even his teammate outswam him.

The third record set was in the first event of the day, the 300-yard

Klippgen Wins East Ski Race

Allegheny's Per Klippgen, 22-year-old Norwegian student, turned in a polished performance against forty-nine veteran skiers to win the Eastern downhill championship on Mount Greylock's (Mass.) Thunderbolt Trail during mid-semester vacation. Clipping 10.8 seconds off of the Trail record set by Bob Livermore in 1940, Klippgen flew down the precipitous route in 2:08.6 minutes.

Klippgen's 185 pounds was a leading factor in his win. Taking the course without a check, he gathered momentum as he used the perfect weather conditions to advantage, beating his teammate, Fred Moller, second-place winner, by a full second. Both were competing under the colors of the Norway Ski Club.

In the latter part of December Klippgen took third place in the open giant slalom, a twisting, turning, three-quarters of a mile descent down Cannon Mountain. In all, there were 131 competitors in the pack, the majority of them experienced and well-versed in the tricky race.

The big Alleghenian could easily have been a member of Norway's Olympic team had he chosen, but he preferred to come to the United States to get his education instead. He came to Allegheny after meeting Jay Luvaas, who was in Norway last year. During the war, Klippgen was in the Norwegian underground.

Cagers Try Grovers, Hamilton, This Week

The Golden Gators of Allegheny College swing into their last three weeks of basketball competition with two games listed on the slate in the next three days. Tomorrow night will find the Wernermen at Grove City for a return match with the Crimson, the only school on this year's card that rates two cracks at the Blue and Gold. Then on Saturday, the Hilltoppers play host to a school that hasn't appeared on the Gator schedule since 1941—Hamilton.

As far as the Grover game goes, it will be an entirely different squad that the locals take on tomorrow. In the meeting earlier in the season, Allegheny swamped the neighboring school by a score of 61 to 43, with a display of shooting wizardry and defensive ball that completely baffled the visitors.

The Grovers had not had too much practice however, because of a late start. This time the Grovers will have their home court as a battleground, plus the fact that they have hit a winning stride. They rolled over Buffalo University on the night previous to the Bull's appearance here, an accomplishment that may mean a lot, since the Bulls spilled the Gators by a 46-45 count.

Coach Al Werner's boys are smarting under the effects of the last two games, which saw a sudden and almost fatal collapse of their vaunted offensive power. The team has been pulling hard, but they can't seem to find the hoop with any degree of accuracy.

The trouble started at Pittsburgh last Wednesday when the Gators failed to mesh a single field goal in the third period, then could count only two in the final canto. When Buffalo came into town for the next game, Allegheny got only one fielder in the first chapter. They recovered somewhat in the next quarter but were never up to full speed.

Pitt turned on the steam when the Blue and Gold faltered, and ended up on the long end of a 51 to 33 count. In spite of the score, it was a terrific ball game for two quarters, with the advantage even at the half, 23-23. That contest marked the first time that an Allegheny College basketball game was ever broadcast over the radio, with station WMGW in Meadville putting it on the air.

Buffalo Edges Allegheny

The University of Buffalo proved themselves a heads-up ball club when they grabbed a one-point lead in the final minute and kept possession of the ball until the gun fired, giving them a 46-45 victory over the Gators, last Saturday.

It was a thriller alright, but not until the waning moments. Allegheny got off to a miserable start, not being able to score from the field until 10 seconds before the first-period buzzer sounded. The visitors, meanwhile, had notched 18 big markers and were showing no signs of stopping.

Coach Werner's squad roared back with a 15-point barrage in the second chapter, making only a ten-point difference, 31-21, at the intermission. They continued their drive in the next quarter, firing 12 counters through the hoop while holding the New Yorkers to a scant six points.

Not until the middle of the last fourth did the Hilltoppers pull up to an even count with their guests. Paul Miller poured one in with three and a half minutes still showing on the clock, making the score read, 42-42. Captain Jim Feisley got a foul, but so did Bison guard Bill Needham, after the huge Buff center, Paul Brady, had thrown in his one and only field goal of the game. Reserve center Roger Christopherson put in two calm charity tosses, but the Gators still trailed, 46-45.

Then the visitors went into their ball-hawking act, and it was all over but the shouting. Allegheny meshed only 19 out of 30 foul tries, while the New Yorkers put in 12 out of 23.

Outstanding contribution to the Gator cause was made by two guards, Jim Montgomery and Dick Kahl. Monty was a bear-cat on defense, even throwing in two fielders, one right after the other in the second quarter. Kahl hit for four twin-pointers, and steadied the team throughout the fray. Paul Miller led the scoring with 10 points, followed by Kahl with nine.

PHI GAMS WIN

FIRST HALF CAGE RESULTS:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Phi Gamma Delta	7	0	1.000
Phi Kappa Psi	6	1	.857
Phi Delta Theta	5	2	.714
Delta Tau Delta	4	3	.571
Sigma Alpha Epsilon	3	4	.429
Independents	2	5	.286
Theta Chi	1	6	.143
Alpha Chi Rho	0	7	.000

The Phi Gams beat the Phi Psis. They licked them, 37-29, but it wasn't as easy as the score suggests. In fact, it wasn't until Chuck Johnson tallied five consecutive points that the result was determined. Those two baskets and one foul shot were the Battle of Gettysburg of the intramural championship game.

Bud Stride and his Phi Psi passing mates clung tenaciously to a slim lead until the waning minutes of the first half. Then the tide seemed to

SECOND HALF STARTS

The Phi Gams started the second half of the intramural league by tanning the last-place Chi Rhos, 42-12, and defeating the Theta Chis by only 22-16. The comparative success of the seventh place Theta Chis in producing such a close score was a carry-over from their previous game against the Phi Delts, in which the Randolph Streeters overcame a 20-point deficit to lose by only two points, 36-34. The reason for this success seems to be simply that Bowlus, Stanton, and Mazza began to throw 'em in from any angle. And that's hard to stop—witness Allegheny vs. Wooster or Allegheny vs. Buffalo U.

In other contests, the Phi Psis did not impress anyone in defeating the Independents by the score of 32-23. Brooks Hollenbeck and Frank Pollard tallied ten and nine points respectively for the victors, while Morrow of the non-fraternity men scored ten points. The "Impression of the Week" was made by the revamped Sigs, whose addition of Frank Fuhrer and Al Stone to a combination of Bailey, Kraft, and Wood make them the team to beat.

They pounced on the Delts for a 44-30 victory despite the seeming infallibility of one Robert "Bummy" Davis in shooting from one particular spot in the middle of the floor. Bummy dropped in three in a row in the third period for the Delts. Stone, Bailey, and Kraft each tallied at least ten points for the Sigs.

However, it was another man, Bob Wood, who led the scoring for SAE in manhandling the "different" Phi Psis by the incongruous score of 42-23. Wood collected fourteen points throughout the game. The value of Frank Fuhrer in his first two intramural games was not so much in scoring as in keeping his team organized. Lack of organization was a definite fault of the Sig quintet in the first half.

turn. Doc James tied the score with three points. Bill Rylander's hasty set shot caromed in almost at the whistle. The third quarter ended with the count 23-19, Phi Gams, and the heat was turned on. Johnson collected four goals; Rylander, Crawford and McHolme each threw in one for the Phi Gams in the last period, while the Phi Psis collected only six points. A last desperate aerial attack was crushed, and the game ended—37-29. The Phi Gams were first half champs of the league.

The Phi Psis towering center, Bud Stride, was held to four field goals, but his accuracy from the free-throw line brought his total to fourteen points. He finished with a 12-point average at the league's dividing line, which is far ahead of his nearest competitor, Don Stevenson. Don, a Delt, tallied 61 points in seven games while Stride had 72 points in only six contests.

During the time out at the half, Buddy May, the Connie Mack of intramural basketball, was presented with a wheel-chair as a token of appreciation for his lifelong service to Phi Gamma Delta.

Conversation heard in the first quarter:

Bill Lamb, referee: "Gordon, you're pushing!"

Gordon, Phi Gam forward: "Lamb, you're crazy!"

Lamb: "TECHNICAL!"

medley relay. Case raced to victory in 3:21 minutes, breaking the record set earlier this season by Westminster. Case gathered a first place in the distance swim also when Blesch beat out the veteran Root, recording a time of 5:56.9.

The Cleveland school had a record of three wins and one defeat previous to Saturday's encounter, and were rated a slight favorite to take the Gators. They were without the services of an ace freestyler, Bob Roth, who graduated at the end of the semester after leading his mates to their three victories. His absence was felt by Coach Harry Kyr even though he went to great lengths to revamp the team.

Coming up today is a return match for the Gators against Westminster, with the meet scheduled for the New Wilmington pool. Allegheny lost to the Titans in the other affair by a fairly wide margin, and the pre-meet dope seems to indicate that the Hill-toppers will again be the underdog this afternoon.

This will be the seventh match for Coach Hanson's squad, with five more left on the boards before the tankers hang up their water suits.
