Dear, dear Ida Lee: —

I've finished the book last night — and thank you for the shining faith of your final paragraph!

We have lived our own lives again through the story of our overcoming even as told by you! And because of the way of this telling by you, your own revealed to me as an even finer Founder, a greater person than we knew! Who few have many years thought we really knew you! A crowning glory to all that has come from you and your pen to this time! Our love and all gratitude for what it is even through reading it —

Attwood & Georgie!
