Miss Meta Anderson,
Hotel Judson,
53 Washington Square,
NEW YORK CITY.

Dear Miss Anderson;

My sister has forwarded me your note of the 15th, saying that Helen Burr is sailing on the 24th, and asking me to dine with you when she arrives in New York. I am so sorry that I will not be there.

My work down here in Florida is dragging longer than I expected when I undertook it. I will not be back to stay before the middle of May, though I shall run up from Washington, where I must stop for two or three weeks for the May Reception.

Please give Mrs. Burr my affectionate good wishes, and tell her that any time when she is passing through New York, I hope she will let me know a little in advance, if possible. She knows what a hopeless sort of tramp I am.

Very sincerely yours,

Ida M. Tarbell
