ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETE FOR HOMECOMING DAY

TRUSTEES DETERMINED TO SAVE SUM OF $46,000

$195,000 OF LAST ENDOWMENT REMAINS TO BE COLLECTED

Board of Trustees Willingly Promise Over Half of This Amount Themselves

No college in America has a more loyal body of trustees than Allegheny! Many facts, covering many years, may be urged in support of that proposition. I cite only one—the story of a recent meeting of the Board held in Pittsburgh, Friday, September 30.

The story begins with the Second Century Endowment Campaign of 1921. The inspiration of that campaign came from a pledge of $150,000 made by the General Education Board (Rockefeller) with the understanding that the College would raise $450,000 additional for endowment—$600,000 in all. If less than the full amount was realized, then the General Education Board would pay at the ratio of one dollar for three.

The College has been able to claim only $104,000 of that pledge, leaving a balance due of $46,000. Recently the time was extended to December 31 next for meeting the conditions, and the trustees were called together to decide what could be done about it. The essential fact which they faced was this:

To collect the balance due from the General Education Board it will be necessary to raise IN CASH during THE NEXT 90 DAYS the sum of $195,000! The debt incurred to construct the heating plant must be paid according to the conditions of the pledge, besides raising the three dollars for one still due.

For nearly two hours the Board engaged in thoughtful discussion. Then one member arose and said in effect, "Unless the trustees themselves subscribe most of this money, it cannot be raised. I propose that we take subscriptions at once to determine what the men in this room will do about it." Another then arose and began to auction oy the amount to be secured. MIRABILE DICTU! In about ten minutes $75,000 were pledged and members present undertook to secure $25,000 more from their colleagues who could not attend the meeting.

$100,000 in cash from the trustees before the last day of December! Doesn't that prove the proposition at the head of this article? Nor was it done grudgingly. Many of the trustees have said since then, "That was one of the finest meetings of the Board I ever attended!"

Of course they expect the other friends of Allegheny College to provide the remaining amount—$95,000. Some of this can be collected from persons who have not paid in full pledges made six years ago. But after the utmost effort has been made to collect unpaid pledges, it will be necessary to raise at least $70,000 new money IN CASH before New Year's Day in addition to what has been subscribed by the Board of Trustees. The Board ordered the President to start a campaign at once.

So we are off with a great start—half the total amount already in sight! The alumni and friends of the College will hear more of this in a few days.

Allegheny To Dance At University Club After Panther Game

Allegheny alumni in the Pittsburgh district have enthusiastically fallen in with the plan to hold an Allegheny dance the evening of the football game with the University of Pittsburgh, October 29. News of the coming festivities at the University Club has spread throughout the numbers of Alleghenians and their friends in Pittsburgh and its environs. Everyone is strongly in favor of the dance for three reasons; as a testimonial to the football team, as a point of concentration for Alleghenianism, resident and visiting, on that night, and as the 'non plus ultra' of amusement, entertainment, and good fellowship.

The ticket sale in Pittsburgh is well under way; many of the older grads have signified their willingness to underwrite the dance from a financial point of view. But such a precaution seems hardly necessary in the face of the returns on the first week of ticket selling. Arrangements for distributing tickets to the students and other Meadville Alleghenians will be made during Homecoming week-end.

COLLEGE BAND PLAYS ON HOMECOMING DAY

The College Band in uniform will play at the Westminster football game on Homecoming Day next Saturday, it was definitely announced today by the director, James Meadowcroft.

An unusually small number of candidates turned out for the first rehearsals but lately the attendance has been much better and those in charge are confident that a band of more quality than last year's will make its appearance on that day. The band will likely be composed of about thirty pieces.

SHERWOOD EDDY MAKES VISIT TO THE CAMPUS

SPEAKS BEFORE STUDENT BODY ON FOUR DIFFERENT OCCASIONS

Dr. Sherwood Eddy, Y. M. C. A. worker and a speaker of great reknown, was the guest of Allegheny College last Tuesday and Wednesday. He was brought here under the auspices of the local Y. M. C. A. and delivered a series of lectures at the college.

Doctor Eddy was born in 1871, received his Ph. B degree at Yale in 1891, his M. A. degree at Yale in 1916, and his LLD. degree at Wooster in 1916. He was sent to India as national secretary of the Y. M. C. A. and worked there from 1896 to 1911. His work also carried him into Japan, Korea, China, Near East and Russia. He is the author of many books some of which are "The Awakening of India," "With Our Soldiers in France," and "The New World of Labor". His present home is in New York City.

Doctor Eddy used as his general theme for his series of lectures "What is Right and What is Wrong." He first spoke Tuesday noon in Ford Chapel and used "Touchstones of Character" as his subject.

"What are we going into this life for?" asked Doctor Eddy; "and what

TEMPORARY PERSONNEL OF GLEE CLUB CHOSEN

TENTATIVE PLANS DISCLOSED—MIXED CHORUS IS UNIQUE FEATURE

From those persons who tried out for the Glee Clubs, a temporary personnel has finally been chosen. However, changes will probably be made from time to time. The Men's Glee Club will meet in Ford Memorial Chapel every Wednesday at 4 P. M., and the Combined Men's and Women's Clubs Wednerday at 7 P. M., thus making Wednesday the vocal day at Allegheny.

The first regular rehearsal of the Combined Clubs was held Wednesday evening, October 5, under the leadership of the director, Mr Morton J. Luvaas, of Erie. Various elections were held after the rehearsal Alice Stephens was elected student director for the Girls' Club, and Mary Butler manager. For the Combined Clubs, Jack Hartman was elected librarian, and Naomi Taylor, secretary and treasurer. Norman Laffer, who was manager of the Men's Glee Club last year, is manager of the Combined Clubs for this season.

As, yet, no trips have been arranged for the Clubs. Preliminary arrangements, however, are being made for the entrance of the Men's Glee Club into the Intercollegiate Glee Club contest, which will be held sometime af the knowledge of those in charge, the Allegheny College Glee Club will be

WESTMINSTER-ALLEGHENY GAME FEATURES AFTERNOON PROGRAM

Graduate Manager Townsend Makes Direct Appeal For All Alumni to Return

Plans have now been completed for the observance of the greatest and most enjoyable Homecoming Day since the inauguration of the event several years ago. This day also marks the resumption of football relations with Westminister, after a lapse of one year. Graduate Manager of Athletics, S. S. Townsend, sends the following invitation to all loyal Alleghenians:

Dear Alumnus:

Allegheny College Home-Coming Day has been gradually growing in importance. Each year it becomes bigger and better. This year's programme is especially attractive.

The football game at 2:30 o'clock between Westminster College and your Alma Mater will be the feature event of the day. It will be interesting, exciting, thrilling.

Are you planning to come back to "Old Allegheny" next Saturday? Will you be here to help the Blue and Gold on to victory? Will you gather together with your old friends to talk over the good times you had when you were a student on the Hill?

Home-Coming will stimulate in us greater loyalty to the College. It will tend to vitalize our desire to serve Allegheny that she may better serve society. It will afford the joy that comes with the meeting of old friends. It will offer the opportunity to make new acquaintances.

Allegheny Athletic Association is reserving two entire sections of the best seats in the stands for the Alumni. These will be held until 2:15 o'clock on the day of the game. Large delegations are returning from various Alumni centers, and October 15 is certain to be a happy occasion for those of the Allegheny Family who are here to enjoy it.

If you have not already decided to come back for Home-Coming Day, make the decision now. You cannot afford to miss it.

At ten o'clock on Saturday in the Library all the Alumni Directors will meet to complete all details for the adequate care of the many returning friends of the College.

At eleven thirty o'clock in Ford Chapel the Homecoming address will be given by Dr. L. W. Sherwin '08, former president of the Allegheny Alumni Association, and at present pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Oil City. Immediately after these services a concert will be given by the College Band on the porch of Cochran Hall.

A buffet luncheon will be supplied in Cochran Hall at one o'clock to the

Kaldron Pictures Should Be Taken As Per Schedule

With two meetings of the staff and the formal announcement of department editors, the work on the 1928 Kaldron has definitely begun. Warren Smucker, editor, has appointed the following on his staff: Fraternities, George Blair; Classes, John Ekey; Feature, Amzie Reynolds; Activities, Louise Hibbs; Athletics, Joseph Shaffer; Art, George Anderson, and Photography, Frederick Eaton.

The individual pictures for the fraternity section will be taken, as last year, at the Wetherby Studio. This work has actually begun, the various fraternities and sororities reporting according to the following schedule:

Week of Oct. 10 — Phi Kappa Psi; Kappa Alpha Theta.

Week of Oct. 1 — Phi Gamma Delta; Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Week of Oct. 24 — Delta Tau Delta; Alpha Chi Omega.

Week of Oct. 31 — Phi Delta Theta; Alpha Gamma Delta.

Week of Nov. 6 — Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Theta Upsilon.

Week of Nov. 13 — Alpha Chi Rho; Alpha Xi Delta.

Week of Nov. 20 — Beta Upsilon; Beta Kappa; Tallagewe.

BASKETBALL TEAM IS WITHOUT A CAPTAIN

Allegheny's basket ball squad received another hard blow recently when it was learned that Joe "Abie" Thompson, captain-elect would not return to school this fall. Thompson was the only man left on the squad, after the inroads made by graduation last spring, who had played more than two years. Thompson was never a flashy player but his ability as a passer and a team-worker made him invaluable. Al Moon is the only letter man left from last year's championship team.

MIGHTY "I" SEEKS A COLLEGE IN ORDER TO EXPAND HIMSELF

My chief reason in coming to college was to give myself a chance to expand. All my life previous to this has been spent in an exceedingly ignorant community where a person with the real stuff in him—like me (for an example)—was no more appreciated than spinach. Why even my best friends underestimated my genius along every line. I readily forgive them for any such oversight however, and prudently attribute it to their stupidity.

It took me a considerably long time to decide to which college to give the honor of having me in its fold for four years and of finally presenting me with my diploma.

It seems that many schools had hear of me, for my mail was continually crammed with circulars from the various schools in the country. I certainly did feel mighty sorry to have to disappoint so many people who were so desirous of having me with them.

I am really an extremely unselfish person, for I came to college so that the place would have something of which to be proud in the course of three or four years. Most colleges need something spectacular—like me—to put on the front page of each Sunday edition of the Sun-Tele.

Another reason for my coming to college was to help the professors get wise to some things that are going on in the world of today. It is really quite appalling that these men know so little. Really, I don't see how they can live on the little they do know, let alone trying to get it across. Things will be different, though, after they have had a few interviews with me. It will be too bad when I have to be graduated and leave the place; for then they will get back into the same old rut again. I am going to try to get back as often as I am able and sort of keep them up-to-date in that way.

While I am in college, I intend to revise the Constitution. As I said in the beginning, I intend to expand—fixing the Constitution will be one of the lines along which I shall expand; if anyone back home would attempt or even suggest any such thing everyone would think him to be crazy—that's all some people know.

Of course, while I am here in college, I will give the girls a treat and provide in myself a person with whom they may have some good dates. I will also do them all the honor at being present at their fall parties.

But my real purpose in coming to college is to get myself into training in order that I can manage the big business and political projects of the nation.

I really should go out for football so that my college would be sure of winning every game; but it would be so hard on the other teams that I think that I shall refrain.

OHIO STATE PUTS END TO ALL FROSH HAZING

Change in Policy Noticed at Wisconsin, New Hampshire, Capitol University and Cincinnati

"Any man who is in any way connected with throwing a freshman in the lake will sever his connection with this university." With this peremptory statement, President George W. Rightmire, of Ohio State University, announced the end of freshman hazing at the institution. Hazing may soon be as much a thing of the past in the colleges—as old fashioned as peg-top trousers, recent college events seem to indicate.

"Freshman rules and sophomore traditions are giving way before an enlightened upper-class sentiment to the effect that freshmen have a right to be treated as human beings," reports "The Daily Cardinal," University of Wisconsin. The freshman and sophomore classes at the Universities of New Hamphire have modified the traditional freshman rules.

Hazing has been abolished at Capitol University, Columbus, Ohio. At the University of Cincinnati "Frosh taming gives way to training." The student council has dissolved the vigilance committee and supplanted it by the Men's and Women's guidance committees, who are to train the beginner in the rudiments of University of Cincinnati traditions and campus rules.

Pies, pastries and frankfurters have been banned from New York school lunches in an effort to encourage more balanced meals.

COLLEGIANS AID AMERICAN RED CROSS IN SEVENTY-SEVEN DISASTERS OF TWENTY-FIVE STATES DURING PAST YEAR

College men and women throughout the country played important parts the past year in the memorable Disaster Relief work conducted by the American National Red Cross. It was a task calculated to appeal to collegians—the magnitude of it constituted a challenge. When one remembers that 600,000 persons were dependent at one time upon the Red Cross for food and shelter, the immensity of the job is apparent. Several Southern States saw their most fertile farm lands converted into a great lake. The Father of Waters challenged his adherents as never before. How well they met the challenge is an old story now. In every community where the rising waters became a menace to life and property the under-graduates of the institutions in the locality marshalled themselves into a relief body. They took orders from the Red Cross directors on the scene and performed prodigices of service. Their intelligence, their courage and their untiring youth was an inspiration.

Not that the students deserve or expect special commendation. It was an emergency calling for the best in every citizen. Naturally the collegians were involved, but involved gloriously and in a manner befitting the best traditions of American scholastic life. Similar scenes were enacted throughout the country. While the Mississippi burst its levees twelve other catastrophes were reported in other States. Red Cross relief was promptly forthcoming. The past year was a trying one in practically all sections of the United States. Twenty-five states suffered disaster in some form during the past twelve months. Flood, fire, tornado and explosion followed one another with grim persistence. It was a period designed to try the patience and optimism of the bravest. But the American people won through—and the Red Cross served as the medium in every case.

The total number of disasters reached the appalling figure of seventy-seven during the past fiscal year, including the gigantic Mississippi floods. Small wonder that the college men and women throughout the nation found opportunity for practical application of their abilities. But there exists a brighter side. Not all the activity of the Red Cross consisted of providing disaster relief.

The great universities accommodating thousands of young men made splendid progress the past year in teaching proficiency in water-rescue and swimming. The colleges concede the pre-eminece of the Red Cross in fostering and developing water safety, swimming and first aid courses. The athletic programs of the universities were well adapted to specializing in this field. Yale turned out from 100 to 150 men trained in swimming and water-safety. Dartmouth was not far behind, while at West Point and Annapolis the poor swimmer was the glaring exception.

Swimming is frequently chosen as the winter sport in many colleges. From the indoor tanks the swimmers emerge to engage in summer activities, such as participation in Red Cross Life Saving Institutes held annually. The girls' colleges are just as keen as their brothers in acquiring water proficiency. Smith, Wheaton, Bryn Mawr and Western College hung up notable records the past year. The technical colleges avail themselves of other Red Cross instruction courses with gratifying results. The pulling power of these courses lies in their being essentially practical. They mean something to the possessor, not only in college but afterwards.

The Eleventh Annual Membership Roll Call of the American National Red Cross will be held as usual from Armistice Day through Thanksgiving—November 11-24—thereby affording the college students of the Nation an opportunity to endorse their Red Cross, and by participation through membership, insure the maintenance of each of its services.

Y. M. C. A. VESPERS ARE INAUGURATED SUNDAY

On Sunday at 4:30 p.m., the first Vesper services of the year were held in Ford Memorial Chapel. Although a fine program was offered, only a very small audience was present. The services, in charge of Warren Smucker, were opened by the singing of a hymn, followed by a prayer. The speaker was Dr. Chester A. Darling, who spoke on the subject "Rainbows".

Dr. Darling opened his talk with a short poem.

"My heart leaps up when I behold
A rainbow in the sky;
So it was when life began,
So it is when I'm a man;
So be it when I grow old,
Or let me die."

He compared the rainbow to ideals, and said, "If one was not inspired by ideals, he could never achieve anything great, and that life would be fruitless. Just as rays of sunlight and drops of rain make rainbows, inspirations to the mind may be worked over to for ideals. Just as at the end of the rainbow is a "pot of gold", the ideal may result in success in life.

"Two years after graduation from college," continued the speaker, "I thought that college was too idealistic. Ten years after, I thought that ideals were the main things to be gotten out of college. Every invention, every great feat in the world's history, has been the "pot of gold" at the end of some ideal. One will get nowhere in the world if he does not have ideals to urge him on to the attainment of success."

WE ARE THE HOSTS

Next Saturday will mark the annual Home-Coming Day for Allegheny college. Once again the sons and daughters of old Alleghe' will come back to their Alma Mater.

It is up to the students of Allegheny to show the Alumni a good old fashioned time. Give them a big hand and make them feel that they are welcome. When we stop to think about it we can see that we owe a great deal to the alumni of this college, both young and old. They have helped in many ways to make the college what it is. It is because of the alumni of our college that we now have a reputation that is quite enviable—that of being a well recognized small school.

Make them feel at home, students. In a way try and show them that we DO appreciate the interest they have in us and the help that they have given us.

HOME COMING AND THE TREES.

Have you ever listened to the trees of our campus whispering to one another of the students who have walked beneath their branches? Trees, younger and more delicate in the day when Washington crossed French Creek, grown older when Timothy Alden founded his little college. Trees which hold the thoughts of centuries within their leafy depths. Centuries have softly crept in and quietly, brokenly crept out through their arches, leaving only countless memories. How they must long for Home Coming day, the great reviver of old memories!

The stout, prosperous looking alumnus is ever to the trees the small town boy who never quite made ends meet. The noted public speaker may hurry over the rustic bridge without a reminiscense. But the trees know. Their leaves swish laughingly at him and try to point to the spot where he carved his initials and another's. A man, nearly bald, is known to the world as the owner of a flourishing real estate business. The trees see him as a curly headed boy with books—and dreams. A woman makes one last wish at the sign of the swastika. Only the trees can tell that she makes the same, hopeless wish every year.

The cycle goes on. Fifty years ago the trees heard the same songs they hear today. Perhaps the melody is different; the song is the same. The students, too, are unchanged. The trees find for the scholar, the dreamer, the athlete, the college belle, a counterpart in our own generation. They smile at modern youth as they smiled at its reckless grandparents, and keep it a secret that college hasn't changed a bit.

Gnarled, twisted trees, offering their battered selves as symbols of struggle and strength; slim, straight trees, embodying hope and courage! They bridge the gap between the alumnus and the undergraduate, welding Old Alleghe into a powerful oneness. For all of us there are strong trunks and misty, leafy branches, stretching forth messages of inspiration.

FOR A BETTER SCHOOL SPIRIT

Last year an article appeared in this column praising the all-college dance given by the Men's Senate on last Homecoming Day. After pointing out the benefits which the school receives from all-college functions the article asks the questions. Will history repeat itself? Will there be another dance next year?

We now know that there will be an all-college dance on Homecoming Day. History is repeating itself. Each year a few more links are added in the chain of more wholesome college spirit through the medium of all-college get-togethers. The program this year calls for more dances of this type, and they are the surest way to promote a real college spirit.

Allegheny is sorely in need of something to bolster its waning spirit. As the writer of last year's article suggests, why not hold more general parties and not so many fraternity functions? Wouldn't that be a good way to improve college spirit?

At any rate we are advancing in this matter and it seems only a matter of time before we will accomplish the desired result.

IMPRESSIONS

How lasting an impression is! It is the hardest thing in the world to change. On the other hand an impression will change, although very slowly.

Impressions about books, customs, laws, anything at all,—they are all easy to make and hard to alter. The football team came back from Dartmouth last week with a wonderful impression of the college and the men who go to school there. This impression was given to them by an organization known as "The Green Key" and whose duty it is to entertain visiting teams. That impression will last with the men who went to Hanover until proven otherwise.

Last year Westminster College got the impression that Allegheny was a school where everyone was a fine sportsman and a place where the college spirit was to be envied. This impression has lasted all year and the question is whether we want them to go back to New Wilmington this week with a different one, or the same one. As for the football team, we all know that they will play a clean, hard game; but is the football team going to be the only part of the school to try to up-hold that impression? Let's all get in there and yell on Saturday and if you get a chance to do a Westminster student a favor while they're here, do it cheerfully and with a smile. Let's give Westminster a big hand!

YEA TEAM! FIGHT, FIGHT, FIGHT.

Allegheny college would be able to have as good cheering as any other school its size if it would but realize it. The faulty cheering at the St. Bonoventure game was a crime. It was ragged, loose, weak, and in general, rotten.

The customary speeches that have been made prior to each cheer could well be dispensed with or, if not totally dispensed with, at least cut down to five minutes.

If the freshmen MUST sit in a special section at the games then have a cheer leader with them who can lead them so that they will be in unison with the rest of the student body.

Allegheny can cheer if they will. or once, the job is not entirely up to the students. Cheer-leaders, get on the ball and make the best of the opportunity that has been given you.

PRACTICE MODERATION.

Since the freshman rules have been in effect on the campus the sophomores have been practicing an undue amount of razzing, which has almost reached the state of hazing. In general, except for a few individuals, the freshmen have been diligently obeying the rules laid down by the Student Senate. It is no more than just for the sophomores to enforce these rules and an occasional razzing certainly does no harm, but when razzing reaches the point of hazing, as it has this year, some attempt should be made to curb this practice.

The Student Senate has taken prompt action in bringing about an understanding between these two classes. The frosh have given their word to obey the rules diligently, while the sophs have been asked to refrain from any sort of hazing and keep razzing down to a minimum, using it only to enforce the rules.

If both classes cooperate with the Senate much ill feeling will be overcome and the frosh will bear a much better impression of life at Allegheny.

The present sophomore class received very little razzing when they were freshmen and it is only fair that they give no more than they received. Furthermore the practice of hazing is a remnant of the barbaric ages being entirely out of place in the modern college. The sensible student realizes the value of a certain amount of razzing, but the sensible student also condemns the practice of inflicting bodily punishment and other humiliating measures upon the frosh.

Every freshman desires to appear at his best on the campus, but the practices of thoughtless sophomores make it impossible for a freshman to keep his clothes appearing neat. It is a real hardship for many freshmen who own perhaps only one suit and cannot afford to have it repressed daily.

SOCIETY

SOCIETY BOWS HER HEAD TO ATHLETICS PAST WEEK

There was a lull in the festivities this week. Only one large party and one small one took the dates away from the rest of us. The Delts held quite a brawl while the Non-Frats had a novel five-couple bridge at Cochran.

Clubs seemed dead this week, too. The reason for that was partly because they were electing new members and their usual programs were omitted. Then, too, the World Series and the Dartmouth game took all our interest for two or three days.

DELTS HAVE FULL CHAPTER PARTY

Delta Tau Delta's Alpha chapter held a full chapter party last Friday night, October 7. Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Schultz attended as chaperones with Kress' Olympians furnishing the music during the evening.

The following were guests of the chapter; Alan Christner, Noble Crandall, Fred Hariff, L. J. Brendel ex '28, W. L. Butler '27, M. Dean Fiscus '27, Milton Alfred of Ohio University, Abler Lampson of Miami University, and Frank Johnston of Pittsburgh.

NON-FRATS HAVE CARD PARTY

The Non-Fraternity men held a five-couple card party at Cochran Hall on Friday evening, October 7, with Professor and Mrs. Wagner acting as chaperones. Refreshments were served.

"Y" BEGINS CAMPAIGN TO RAISE SUM OF $500

Regular Chapel services on Friday were given over to an appeal for funds for the College Branch of the Y. M. C. A. James E. Meadowcroft, an officer in the Y. M. C A cabinet, presented the case of the organization in a very complete manner.

The speaker began by stressing the real importance of the Y. M. C. A. on Allegheny's campus. Although the Y. M. C. A. has been in the background for the past few years, the present program assures a decided improve- Sherwood Eddy who was here to address student meetings Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The speaker also spoke of the work of the Association along social lines. Their social activities include such events as the Y. M.-Y. W. Reception and the "Y" Circus.

The budget which has been set for the necessary expense for this school year is $500, and it is expected that this amount will be raised entirely through the sale of "Student Memberships."

Two members of each fraternity will be in charge of the soliciting of funds and every student on the campus is earnestly requested to aid this organization in sponsoring this program which is so invaluable to the interests of the school.

ment. Mr. Meadowcroft pointed out that the Y. M. C. A stands for the development of the Spiritual, Mental, Physical and Social sides of life and that the Y. M. C. A. at Allegheny would endeavor to emphasize the Spiritual side. In beginning this program of Spiritual development, this organization is sponsoring Vesper Services which will be held every Sunday afternoon in the Chapel at four o'clock. Special music and speakers will be secured and it is hoped that the students will take an active interest in these services.

In addition to the religious spirit which the Y. M. C. A. is endeavoring to create on the campus it is trying to develop interest along the intellectual lines through a number of good speakers who will deliver lectures at frequent intervals. The first speaker to come under their auspices was kind of character have we to aid us in whatever course we pursue? First, let me refer to a certain stone found in India which, when brought into contact with any yellow metal, will tell whether or not it is gold or brass or an alloy. It is called a touchstone. Now let us apply this idea to character, and call it the 'Touchstone of Character'.

QUILL CLUB ELECTS NEW MEMBERS

The first meeting of the Quill Club was held in the club room in the Library Wednesday evening, October 5. This meeting was announced as "Publications Night," with the editors of The Campus and Kaldron, Dr. C. A. Darling, and Robert Wilson being the speakers. Following these talks, John S. Lindsey outlined the plans that are underway for the club this year.

Seven students were taken into membership in the club. The new members are Catherine Betts, Helen Briggs, Wilmot Collins, Marguerite Forbell, Marie Hartman, and Caroline Richards; also the following were elected to membership, Carol Moody, Hugh K. Long, Ruth Graham, Joseph Shafer, George C. Booth, Hildegarde Dolson, Margaret Helmbold, Bruce Leffingwell, and John Walton.

"The first is 'What am I?' Are you honest in dealing with other people or yourself or are you crooked?" asked Doctor Eddy. "It is not what people think of you but what you think way down within yourself.

"The second touchstone is 'Am I playing the game? Take the example of Bob Spears of Princeton and Stagg of Yale who influenced the life of the whole school because they played the game square in every respect whether in sports, studies or social relations.

"The third great touchstone to character is "Am I clean?' This final test is at the bottom of every person's life. Here we have the physical basis of life; on one side, hunger and a struggle or life and on the other, love and a struggle for others. Each one of us was created clean and we should do nothing to cause ourselves to become unclean. The taboo of silence concerning sex relations has caused many the ruining of their lives. Avert this question and it can easily lead to vice, crime, prostitution and the lowest forms of evil. When one most needs it, nobody will ever tell them the problems of sex relations. This taboo of silence and the lack of sex education in the home has caused many a future home to be wrecked. We must have control o our population or leave it to war, famine or pestilence to keep this world from becoming overcrowded. At present our laws are very deceptable and we should try to improve them."

In closing, Doctor Eddy said, "I am against puritanism. I am against paganism. I am against taboo of silence. I am for social betterment."

Tuesday Evening

In his evening lecture, Doctor Eddy took as his topic "Applying Christianity to Our Economic Problems." He pointed out that the United States, once a borrowing nation, now is being paid one million dollars a day from our war debt and one billion dollars a year from our foreign investments.

"How is our money divided? the speaker questioned. "At the top there are the multi-millionaires, next the very wealthy men. Below them are those who have about a million dollars. From there down we have the fair to do and the very poor. Sixty per cent of all our money is owned by a few o the men at the top of the list. The very rich soon become selfish and are lead astray from God. The poor are always in constant fear of hunger and physical wants. Out of this poverty comes vice and crime. Our slums are an example of the poorest living conditions."

Four principles which one should follow if Christ's teachings are believed, according to the speaker, are: (1. To live simply, avoiding luxury; (2) To make men, rather than make money; (3) To share instead of growing alumni, their friends and families, the members of the faculty, and the members of the Band, free of charge.

Featuring the program for the afternoon is the Football classic between Allegheny and Westminster on Montgomery Field. The United Presbyterians boast of a strong team this season, one which walloped Buffalo University 41-0, and which fell to St. Francis only after a hard struggle, the score being 3-0. And so there will be no let up for Allegheny after the two hard games played so far this season.

The prospects are fairly bright that the "old grads" who come back for the game will go away happy in having seen their Alma Mater triumph. The Merrittmen made a stand against Dartmouth last Saturday that would do credit to any small college team in the country. The Dartmouth team will probably prove to be one of the strongest teams in the East this fall, and Allegheny was the first school to score on them in three games. However, against a school of the same size, the Blue and Gold stands a fine chance of scoring their first win of the season.

The whole squad came through the Dartmouth game without any serious injury to a single man, and so Coach Merritt will not be handicapped by the loss of any regulars. Captain Dave Behrhorst sustained an injured wrist, but he will be back in action again Saturday. The Allegheny defense against an aerial attack was pleasant to watch last Saturday, the Green being unable to complete a single pass. And, although the Blue and Gold's touchdown came as the result of an intercepted forward pass, it is still believed that the Allegheny backfield has plenty of ground gaining ability which the yhaven't had much chance to display so far this season.

Following the game the alumni will be the guests of the various fraternity organizations for the evening dinner. From seven-thirty to eight-thirty all alumnae and friends will be guests at an informal reception to be held in the parlors of Hulings Hall.

Beginning at nine o'clock and lasting until twelve o'clock an all-College dance will be held in Cochran Hall with Kress' Olympians furnishing the music. Admission to this dance will be fifty cents per couple, enough to cover the expenses. Tickets are to be purchased at the door. At least two hundred fifty couples are expected to attend the event.

Facilities for the checking of articles have been provided for in the Y. M. C. A. rooms in the basement of Cochran Hall.

LADY LUCK ENABLES DARTMOUTH TO DEFEAT ALLEGHENY 38-7

Every Forward Pass of The Green Is Broken Up—Captain Behrhorst Scores Touchdown

The Big Green team from Dartmouth proved too much for the Blue and Gold last Saturday in the first encounter between the two schools. The Dartmouth backs were too speedy for Allegheny with the result that the Hanover outfit ran its string of victories to three. However, the game was not so one-sided as the score would seem to indicate. Allegheny put up a mighty scrappy game and won the applause of the Dartmouth rooters with their sturdy resistance.

The Blue and Gold threw a big scare into the Green supporters by scoring a touchdown in the second quarter. Captain Behrhorst intercepted a forward pass on Allegheny's 40 yard line and ran 60 yards for a score. Slaven kicked goal and the count stood 7-6 in favor of Allegheny until just before the half ended. This was the first time that the Green's goal line had been crossed this season.

The first quarter passed without a score with the teams about evenly matched. Allegheny received and after failing to gain in two plays, Rowlingson punted. Dartmouth took the ball on its own 37 yard line and on the first play Marsters galloped around left end for 21 yards. The Green then began a march down the field with Marsters, Lane and Black carrying the ball which placed the oval on Allegheny's eight yard line. Black hit center for one yard. Lane made two through left guard. On a lateral pass Lane made two more at right end. With three to go on fourth down, Lane threw a forward pass which was grounded over the goal. Allegheny's ball on the 20 yard line.

During the rest of the quarter the teams fought on even terms. One of the features of the quarter was a tackle by Captain Behrhorst which forced Lane back for a 13 yard loss. After an exchange of punts Dartmouth secured the ball on Allegheny's 45 yard line. A run of 14 yards around left end by Marsters and another by Black for 13 yards around right end were the principle ground gainers in a drive that brought the Green to the Allegheny ten as the quarter ended.

Two dashes by Lane off guard made 5 yards a piece and resulted in the first score. Lane's attempted placement for the extra point was blocked.

Behrhorst kicked off to Cole who made a pretty run to return the ball to midfield. Black slid past right tackle for 15 yards. Lane added three at center. On the next play Dartmouth tried a forward pass but the effort was hauled in by Captain Behrhorst and a 60 yard run for a touchdown resulted. Hughes took out a would-be tackler a few yards from the line and, although Phelan overtook the runner on the five yard line, Behrhorst was able to dive over the goal for the score with Slaven kicking goal.

Allegheny did not hold the lead for long. Another drive down the field and Marsters crossed the line less than one minute before the half ended. Score: Dartmouth 12, Allegheny 7.

The third quarter spelled defeat for Allegheny. Numerous substitutions against the Blue and Gold's tiring team proved to be the deciding factor. After an exchange of punts, Dartmouth marched 65 yards for a touchdown. End runs and tackle plays with Lane and Marsters carrying the ball behind fine interference were the best ground gainers in this advance.

Hardly had the first score been made than Lane took the ball on the kickoff and raced 70 yards through the entire Allegheny team for the Green's fourth touchdown. It was one of the most brilliant runs seen on the Hanover field since the days of Swede Oberlander.

Dartmouth's last two scores came as the result of sustained advances from midfield. Numerous substitutions were sent into the game shortly after Lane's great run but despite brilliant running by a new set of backs Dartmouth was held on fairly even terms by the Blue and Gold during the remainder of the game.

Allegheny supporters should not be disheartened by this defeat. Dartmouth, despite its strong team, had no easy time of it. Allegheny's form was much improved over that displayed in the first game of the season. Both tackle positions, however, need to show further improvement in order to cope with the rest of the team. The Green tried nine of its famous forward passes and failed to complete even one of them. This speaks very well for Coach Merritt's team as Dartmouth's aerial attack has never before been successfully stopped.

rich in a country of poor people; and (4) Obey the Golden Rule.

In conclusion Doctor Eddy declared that everyone should live a sacrificial and sharing life by taking Christ seriously and trying to follow His example.

Wednesday Noon

Can we still believe in Religion? What is religion? What is Christianity? were the opening questions of Mr. Eddy's talk at the chapel hour last Wednesday.

"When we consider the marvelous mechanisms that embodied in our present day automobiles and the minds which have constructed them," said Mr. Eddy, "and then consider the wonderful machinery and minute accuracy that controls this great universe, can we doubt that there is a great mind behind all this creation and that there is a God? We cannot prove there is a God neither can we disprove that there is a God. We must assume an attitude of reality, rationality and universality toward the spiritual kindom. Religion is bringing the best of your life into this world and living by it. It is following and sharing your life with God, making your life more abundant for ourselves and for others. Religion is not a salvation for ourselves but for everyone throughout the world."

In conclusion, Doctor Eddy put the problem squarely up to the student body, asking, "Have you discovered God?

Wednesday Evening

In his evening address Doctor Eddy applied the following principles to internation problems discussing Europe, Russia and China: (1) To live Simply, (2) To practice brotherhood toward all, (3) To make peace where there is strife and seek to outlaw war, (4) To redeem the social order, and (5) To seek a new discovery of God.

The latter part of the evening's address was devoted primarily to a summary of the principal items covered in the four lectures.

During his visit to Allegheny, Doc-Eddy was the guest of several fraternity houses and Hulings Hall. It is needless to say that the visit and lectures were inspiring and appreciated by the entire school.

ALLEGHENY-WESTMINSTER SPIRIT IS EXCELLENT

DEAN OF DOWN-STATE SCHOOL IS GRADUATE OF BLUE AND GOLD

New Wilmington, Pa., Oct. 12.—Westminster students, alumni, and faculty are looking forward to Saturday's game with Allegheny with more enthusiasm and interest than is shown in any game on the 1927 schedule. This feeling is typical of the United Presbyterians whenever Allegheny is met in any sort of intercollegiate contest.

Perhaps the excellent spirit existing between the two schools may be traced back to the fact that Dr. Charles Freeman, who was graduated from Allegheny in 1891, is dean at Westminster. Doctor Freeman, beloved by students and alumni, is entering his thirty-fourth year as an instructor at Westminster. In addition to being dean, Doctor Freeman is head of the department of chemistry.

Doctor Freeman has taken graduate work at Johns Hopkins University, is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, American Chemical Society, and numerous other scientific organizations. While a student at Allegheny, he was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM TO MEET WESTMINSTER

Allegheny's cross country team schedule has been completely arranged. There will be one trip for the team with the remaining contests being run off on the local course.

The schedule of the meets is:

Oct. 15—Westminster at home.
Oct. 27—Grove City at Grove City.
Nov. 5—Geneva at home.
Nov. 12—Grove City at home.

There are a number of experienced men on the squad this year including the letter men of last year, Bentley, Dreibelbis, and Wycoff, with Richards and Minniss, two distance runners from last year's track team, also back and in good condition.

The Sophomore Class has supplied Gordon, Dean, and Gill, while the Freshmen Class has provided Kelly, Rumsey and Spero.

Announcement has been received of the incorporation of John H. Bozic '23, with the law firm of Price and Boone of Miami, Fla. Mr. Bozic was graduated from Allegheny in 1923 and from the University of Pittsburgh Law School in 1926. He went first to Florida in October, 1926, and for a while was City Solicitor of Keystone Heights. Last May he went to Miami and has since been in the office of Price and Boone.

The Bible is the only book which is never off the press.
