New York, New York

My dear Miss Tarbell:

It becomes my pleasant privilege, as secretary of the Knox College Alumni Club in New York, to tell you that we plan to hold our annual dinner this year on the evening of February 12, at the Hotel Lafayette, and that we shall count ourselves fortunate indeed if you can arrange to be present.

You share two enthusiasms with us - Knox College and Abraham Lincoln. This year Knox is one hundred years old, and by design we are celebrating our Centennial dinner on Lincoln's birthday. At 10 P. M. that night, the National Broadcasting Company is presenting a radio play about Lincoln, with Galesburg and Old Main as a setting. We plan to listen in.

There will be no speeches, in the formal sense. However, if you can be with us we would like to have you talk to us for five or ten minutes, reminding us as you can so well of our heritage.

Sincerely yours,

Wade Arnold

TAKE NOTICE

Alumni and Friends of Knox College

On Friday night, February 12, the New York Knox Club will celebrate the one-hundredth birthday of Knox College.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS NOW!

Place: The historic Lafayette Hotel of the celebrated cuisine, University Place & 9th Street, New York City.

Time: Friday evening, February 12, at 7:00 P.M.

Program: No "speeches" in the traditional sense. The NBC will present, from 10:00 to 10:30 P.M. over WJZ and the blue network, a special Lincoln's Birthday program with Galesburg and the College as a setting. Plans have been made to tune in on this radio drama giving nation-wide publicity to places and events dear to us all.

There will be an informal round-table discussion of plans for the Centennial.

There will be music, dancing, and chance for conversation after the broadcast.

Dress: As you wish.

Tariff: Three Dollars per person. Payable at the dinner.

But- SEND IN YOUR ACCEPTANCES NOW!

Cordially yours,

Allan C. Rearick, '97, President

Anita Foley MacRae, '25, Vice-President
