Miss R.H.G.Lincoln,
923 Franklin St.,
Reading, Pa.

My dear Miss Lincoln:

When I saw you so many weeks ago in Reading, I did not suppose that it would be so long before I would write you and return the documents that you kindly loaned me. Very soon, however, after my visit there I started on a Lincoln pilgrimage through Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois, and this kept me so occupied that I neglected my Reading notes.

I am returning herewith the copy of the Lincoln and Boone records.

I have been hoping to get back to Reading, but do not quite see my wy clear. I hope to be able to arrange by correspondence for any loose ends which I left behind me. If any new Lincoln information has come to your attention, particularly anything about Mordecai and John Lincoln, I should like to have it.

Please remember me kindly to your mother, and believe me,

Gratefully yours,
