

[Probably 1904] June 29

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Thank for your letter. It's still coming — wild letters from Mrs. McClure

— devoted but innocent & humble & confiding. Under date of June 15

"I am thankful to have seen once more turn to me, more thankful than I can say. I have profound reason to be thankful, and to love & obey."

The letter I sent you in city was dated June 21 — a cable that day & 5 or 6 letters & cables

before that. "Lord how we are given to lying."

Wm. Litch says "This is all the working of God's providence".

Live at a stand still!

Wm. Litch
