

Exeter, N. H.
April 30th 1913.

My dear Miss Tarbell.

In a conversation with Mrs. George The other day she told me that you were getting many letters of abuse from women who disagree
with your views as expressed in your recent writings.

In our work in Exeter
you are constantly quoted, and because of what you stand for as well as because of what you are, your words carry great weight.

Gratifyingly yours
Mabel B. Thane.

Gratifyingly yours
Mabel B. Howe.