Dear Madam,

I have read the short item in the March number of The Cosmopolitan, written by you in connection with Abraham Lincoln. I am a great lover of the stories and life of Lincoln. I have owned for a number of years the "Life of Lincoln" written by you. I have also read the many other lives of Lincoln. One thing that I can not understand is the failure of any of the authors to mention the visit of Lincoln to Council Bluffs Iowa. on August 12th 1859. Having been a citizen of Council Bluffs for the past 65 years I know that the result of that visit was quite an occasion and has a great bearing on the history of the west. I was a member of Public Library Board of Directors at the time of your visit in Council Bluffs a number of years ago. I believe that you gathered quite a little information relative to the visit of Lincoln to our city. Is it possible that you may some time in the future publish some facts relative to his visit to this part of the country and his associations with General Grenville M. Dodge?

With kindest regards,

Andrew McMillen
