Public Opinion (1883(?) —) digested the weekly the & comment of the editorial committee on contemporary reported events. It is well edited and gives in a nutshell material for judging the way in which the country looked at what was going on in the business world.

Periodicals (3)

The monthly magazines gave sporadic but often effective action on ~~the~~ developments. Harper's magazine was inclined to descriptive articles - The Century inclined chief in social reform doing good service in the attacks on the ~~poor~~ in the slums, and in the interest of Sanitation. The New England Magazine - The Arena & The Worker followed the struggles of Labor & Capital and ~~now & then~~ but a hand in stimulating social & economic reform. McClure's Magazine reported ~~after~~ from its foundation in 1893 what it called The Edge of the Dollar - new scientific decisions & discoveries. It also inclined chief in industrial problems the problems of the leaders of industry & finance.

 its ~~historical~~ its review of finances particularly of the stock market are among regular features of importance.

A group of periodicals which should not be overlooked ^{among} ~~is~~ ^{where a number} concerned chief with special industries. Trade journals of varying degrees of importance. The Iron Age covering iron & steel is a first-class journal of its kind.

so is the Oil City Derrick representing the oil industry. The fullest & most-reliable data on the industry is to
