Miss Nannie V. Joyce,
Brandt & Brandt,
101 Park Avenue, New York.

My dear Miss Joyce:

Will you not thank Mr. Yore for his thoughtfulness in sending me a copy of the Lincoln picture that he found in the possession of a grandson of Allan Pinkerton.
I am most glad to have it.

It differs from the usual published photograph of the same three gentlemen at Antietam in that Mr. Lincoln shows the side figure instead of the full figure and that Allan Pinkerton has his hand between the buttons of his coat instead of under the collar - small distinctions but enough to make a collector glad to have this picture.

The picture to which I refer as differing from this was published in my Life of Abraham Lincoln.

Thanking you and Mr. Yore for your kindness, believe me

Sincerely yours,
