CABLE ADDRESS: PACHAMAC

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY

PUBLISHERS

64-66 FIFTH AVENUE

NEW YORK

BOSTON
CHICAGO
ATLANTA
DALLAS
SAN FRANCISCO

LONDON
TORONTO
BOMBAY
CALCUTTA
MELBOURNE

January 2, 1920.

Miss Ida Tarbell,
132 East 19th St.,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Owing to the pressure of work at the end of the year, I have been a little bit delayed in getting through the contracts for your books. I am now sending you the contract for IN LINCOLN'S CHAIR, and I shall hope to have the final copy for this little book in a day or two. I have asked Miss Seaman, the head of our Juvenile Department, to prepare a contract for the BOY'S LIFE OF LINCOLN, which I discussed with you the other day and which we are exceedingly glad to have you write. We all look for great results from this book, which should sell steadily, I believe, for many years to come.

I shall be very much obliged if you will ask your managers to send us from time to time your new lecture dates, so that we may do what is possible to get your books on sale in the places where you are to appear.

I am,

Very truly yours,

Edward C. Marsh

ECM/H

Vice President.

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library