Mr. Paul Angle
The Lincoln Centenary Association
Springfield, Ill.

Dear Mr. Angle:

I am not receiving your Bulletins. I have asked several times to be put on your list, and said that I would be glad to pay whatever fee you charged, if any. The Bulletins are too valuable and interesting for me to afford to miss. The last that I received were those in regard to the "Atlantic" letters last November. Will you not send me everything since then, if necessary with bill.

When I had the pleasure of seeing you in New York, you told me that the Association was publishing a fac-simile of large numbers of Lincoln letters and documents. I said to you then that I was getting my little collection into shape to give to my old college, and that I would very much like to secure a set of your fac-similes for that purpose. You told me that you thought it could be arranged.

Now, will you not let me know if this is possible, and on what terms? I am not asking for this, you understand, for myself as an individual, but for a college. I shall be glad if you will let me hear from you on this point.

Sincerely yours
